

SOCIAL CONSTRUCTION OF RACE

The social construction of race is a sociological concept that holds that the category of race is defined in language and culture rather than objective or biological fact (Gergen, 2015).

DEFINITION

"Race is a recent human invention, a social construct designed to divide members of a society into a hierarchy of social, economic, and political advantage or disadvantage based on a set of randomly selected normal human variations in phenotype."

(Feldman et al., 2022)

EXAMPLE

Italians as whites - Dewhurst (2008) has demonstrated how Italians were not seen as white people in early colonial Australia. As a result, they faced increased discrimination. Over time, as Italian-Australians assimilated and influx of darker-skinned migrants arrived, Italians slowly became included in the category of whiteness in Australian discourse.

Concept Of Race:

The Concept of Race Ashley Montagu, 1967      A Theory of Race Joshua Glasgow, 2010-08-18 Social commentators have long asked whether racial categories should be conserved or eliminated from our practices discourse institutions and perhaps even private thoughts In A Theory of Race Joshua Glasgow argues that this set of choices unnecessarily presents us with too few options Using both traditional philosophical tools and recent psychological research to investigate folk understandings of race Glasgow argues that as ordinarily conceived race is an illusion However our pressing need to speak to and make sense of social life requires that we employ something like racial discourse These competing pressures Glasgow maintains ultimately require us to stop conceptualizing race as something biological and instead understand it as an entirely social phenomenon      Cultural and Literary Critiques of the Concepts of "race" E. Nathaniel Gates, 1997      The Idea of Race Robert Bernasconi, Tommy Lee Lott, 2000-01-01 A survey of the historical development of the idea of race this anthology offers pre twentieth century theories about the concept of race classic twentieth century sources reiterating and contesting ideas of race as scientific and several philosophically relevant essays that discuss the issues presented A general Introduction gives an overview of the readings Headnotes introduce each selection Includes suggested further readings      The Meaning of Race Kenan Malik, 1996-08 This work throws new light on the nature and origins of ideas of racial difference It reconstructs the evolution of the modern discourse of race and investigates its meaning in contemporary society      The Race Concept Unesco, 1970      The Concept of "race" in Natural and Social Science E. Hardimon, 2017-06-12 Many scholars and activists seek to eliminate race the word and the concept from our vocabulary Their claim is clear because science has shown that racial essentialism is false and because the idea of race has proved virulent we should do away with the concept entirely Michael O Hardimon criticizes this line of thinking arguing that we must recognize the real ways in which race exists in order to revise our understanding of its significance Rethinking Race provides a novel answer to the question What is race Pernicious traditional racialism maintains that people can be judged and ranked according to innate racial features Hardimon points out that those who would eliminate race make the mistake of associating the word only with this view He agrees that this concept should be jettisoned but draws a distinction with three alternative ideas first a stripped down version of the ordinary concept of race that recognizes minimal physical differences between races but does not consider them significant second a scientific understanding of populations with shared lines of descent and third an acknowledgment of social race as a separate construction Hardimon provides a language for understanding the ways in which races do and do not exist His account is realistic in recognizing the physical features of races as well as the existence of races in our social world But it is deflationary in rejecting the concept of hierarchical or defining racial characteristics Ultimately Rethinking Race offers a philosophical basis for repudiating racism without blinding ourselves to reality Understanding 'Race' and Ethnicity Chattoo, Sangeeta, Atkin, Karl, 2019-04-10 This new edition of a widely respected textbook examines welfare policy and racism in a broad framework that marries theory evidence history and contemporary debate Fully updated it contains a new foreword by Professor Kate Pickett acclaimed co author of The Spirit Level two new chapters on disability and chronic illness and UK education policy respectively updated examples and data reflecting changes in black and minority ethnic demographics in the UK a post script from a minority student on her struggle to make a new home in Britain Suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in social policy sociology and applied social sciences its global themes of immigration austerity and securitisation also make it of considerable interest to policy and welfare practitioners Social Theory Peter Kivisto, 2021 This is an undergraduate reader for students taking course in social theory The Idea Of Race Michael Banton, 2019-07-16 This book deals with the study of race relations as a general body of knowledge which tries to bring together in a common framework studies of group relations in different countries It explores the intellectual context within which the old conception of race relations arose An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion Inger Furseth, Pål Repstad, 2006-01-01 An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion provides an overview of sociological theories of contemporary religious life Some chapters are organized according to topic Others offer brief presentations of classical and contemporary sociologists from Karl Marx to Zygmunt Bauman and their perspectives on social life including religion Throughout the book illustrations and examples are taken from several religious traditions W.E.B. Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty-first Century Reiland Rabaka, 2007-01-01 W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century utilizes Du Bois s thought and texts to develop an informed critical theory of contemporary society This book broadens the base of critical theory making it more multicultural transethnic transgender and non Western European philosophy focused by placing it in dialogue with theory and phenomena that had been heretofore woefully neglected Taking the preeminent black intellectual of the twentieth century as his primary point of departure Reiland Rabaka identifies and analyzes several key contributions that Du Bois and the black racial tradition offer to those interested in redeveloping and racially revising contemporary critical social theory With chapters on critical race theory postcolonial theory feminism and

Marxism this volume builds bridges from Africana Studies to disparate discursive communities accessibly demonstrating Du Bois's and the black radical tradition's contributions to and the potential impact on a wide range of new social scientific research and radical political struggles     Understanding Race, Ethnicity, and Power Elaine Pinderhughes, 1989 foreword by Alvin Pouissant 505 Introduction Culture social interaction and the human services Understanding difference Understanding ethnicity Understanding race Understanding power Assessment Treatment Afterword Beyond the cultural interface Appendix Teaching methods Notes References Index     Race/Sex Naomi Zack, 2016-01-08 Race Sex is the first forum for combined discussion of racial theory and gender theory In sixteen articles avant garde scholars of African American philosophy and liberatory criticism explore and explode the categories of race sex and gender into new trajectories that include sexuality black masculinity and mixed race identity
