Adolf Busch , The Finale in Western Instrumental Music

Michael Talbot, 2001 The knowledge that finales are by tradition and perhaps also necessarily different from other movements has been around a long time but this is the first time that the special nature of finales in instrumental music has been examined comprehensively and in detail Three main types of finale labelled relaxant summative and valedictory are identified Each type is studied closely with a wealth of illustration and analytical commentary covering the entire period from the Renaissance to the present day The history of finales in five important genres suite sonata string quartet symphony and concerto is traced and the parallels and divergences between these traditions are identified Several wider issues are mentioned including narrativity musical rounding inter movement relationships and the nature of codas The book ends with a look at the finales of all Shostakovich's string quartets in which examples of most of the types may be found A History of the Concerto

Michael Thomas Roeder, 1994 A History of the Concerto may be read from cover to cover but readers may also use the extensive index to focus on specific concertos and their composers Numerous musical examples illuminate critical points While some readers may want to study the more detailed analyses with scores in hand this is not essential for an
