Whalley has an insightful article on GATT and Soogil Young discusses the place of an East Asian trading bloc in a global economic system In the next section H Edward English and Murray G Smith examine NAFTA and conclude that NAFTA may foster the formation of new regional trading arrangements in the Asia Pacific region Peter Drysdale and Ross Garnaut survey and analyze trade in the Pacific region and see additional gains from trade liberalization in the region The final section of this work contains articles on direct investment the Japanese yen human capital flows environmental issues and post Cold War security implications An excellent work for those interested in the economic dynamics of the Pacific region Special Bibliography Series ,1957 American Hegemony and the Trilateral Commission Stephen Gill,1991-11-07 Dr Stephen Gill examines the extent and nature of Americas as a hegemonic state Financing the World Economy in the Nineties J.J. Sijben,2012-12-06 The present volume contains the texts of the papers and critical commentary presented at the one day conference Financing the world economy in the nineties at Tilburg University 23 March 1988 This conference was organized by the Post graduate School of Banking and Finance of The Tilburg Institute of Advanced Studies T I A S which is closely associated to Tilburg University It should be borne in mind that all the chapters were written before March 1988 Although some were revised later none of the authors has been asked to include developments which have occurred since To achieve a better understanding of the current financial imbalances in the world economy and its consequences and to discuss the alternatives to correct these imbalances this conference brought together outstanding authorities from the academic world from the international supervisors and from the industrial companies and the banks After the editor's introduction about the external disequilibrium in the world economy and the burden of economic adjustment Chapter 1 is the text of the opening address by Dr Witteveen He calls attention to the central issue which financing needs that we can see now may persist into the nineties and how can they be met In this context he mentions the U S current account deficit the need for stable exchange rates and the international debt problem Canada Among Nations 1986 Brian Tomlin, Maureen Appel Molot,1987 The 1986 edition of Canada Among Nations chronicles the momentous ongoing debates concerning free trade negotiations with the United States From the start the free trade talks were bedevilled by a flurry of protectionist moves in the U S the most inflammatory involving a proposed duty on Canadian softwood lumber In the face of American belligerence the Mulroney government appeared indecisive on the lumber issue it insisted that it would neither negotiate nor impose an export tax and then did both In addition to free trade Canada Among Nations treats issues including Canada's foreign policy its economic situation relations with the third world and response to contemporary arms control proposals Managing the Dollar Yōichi Funabashi,1989 Managing the Dollar published four years after the Plaza Agreement took place was the initial analysis of lessons learned and takeaways from the finance ministers policy efforts in 1985 Based largely on interviews immediate analysis illuminates the forces at play and the differences of opinions among the policymakers and how collaborative economic integration can be improved The piece is being republished to celebrate the 30 year anniversary of the accord and as a companion to a new long term retrospective The International Political Economy of Monetary Relations Benjamin J. Cohen,1993 This key reference collection focuses on the international monetary system It includes seminal contributions on issues such as exchange rate systems recycling adjustment mechanisms debtor creditor relations international monetary policy coordination and seigniorage While focusing on the international system it includes important work on domestic policy making that affects this system Managing the World Economy Peter B. Kenen,1994 The international economic order established at Bretton Woods New Hampshire in 1944 has contributed significantly to world growth and stability But the world economy will be very different in the 21st century due to the end of the Cold War the advent of new economic powers and the globalization of markets and companies The Group of Seven major industrial democracies at their Naples summit in July 1994 decided to consider What framework of institutions will be required to meet the challenges of the 21st century and How can we adapt existing institutions and build new institutions to ensure the future prosperity and security of our people Conditions for Partnership in International Economic Management C. Fred Bergsten,Etienne Davignon,Isamu Miyazaki,Trilateral Commission,1986 Focusing Partnerships Janelle Plummer,2013-05-13 Despite the increasing occurrence of policies aimed at mobilising the financial and human resources of the private sector most urban local governments responsible for urban basic services in the South do not have the capacity to initiate and sustain partnerships Nor do they understand how they can create partnerships that target the poor This sourcebook provides practical information and guidance to do so With extensive illustrative material from Africa Asia and Latin America it sets out a strategic framework for building municipal capacity to create pro poor partnerships It focuses on implementation rather than policy It locates private sector participation within the broader urban governance and poverty reduction agenda And it is above all concerned to supply information on the issues and processes involved in making the public private partnership PPP approach appropriate for service delivery in developing countries The second in a series of capacity building sourcebooks it will be invaluable for those concerned with the capacity of local levels of government policy makers municipal authorities development agencies and practitioners and all those involved in urban governance and poverty reduction
