Producing Legality Marjorie Zatz, 2014-03-18 Producing Legality provides a window into the official construction of socialist legality in Cuba and the dissemination of this legal consciousness throughout the country. It links abstract theories of lawmaking and the state with the specific dilemmas confronting individual policymakers to detail the inner workings of the Cuban legal order. Los voluntarios de Cuba y el obispo de la Habana Jacinto María Martínez y Sáez (bp. of Havana.), 1871

Diario de los debates Mexico. Congreso. Cámara de Diputados, 1879 Latinization of America Eliot Tiegel, 2007-10-01 Latinization of America provides a contemporary overview of the Hispanic population's cultural impact in the United States. The author explores the growth of this community in show business at large as well as in the Spanish speaking entertainment industry. Focusing on music, television, film, theater, and sports while also considering economic and political factors, the author tracks developments over the first decade of the 21st century. Encompassing the various groups of immigrants who create new vistas of opportunity for both Spanish speaking and mainstream entrepreneurs, this volume highlights the crossover and integration of Hispanics into competitive mainstream show business and the rush by Anglo companies to grab their piece of the Latin pie. Proceedings of the Annual Conference Asociación de Tecnicos Azucareros de Cuba, 1941 Masters of War Clara Nieto, 2011-01-04 In Masters of War Clara Nieto adeptly presents the parallel histories of the countries of Latin America, histories that are intertwined, each reflecting the United States' coherent policy of intervention set into motion by the Monroe Doctrine. As the value of this continued policy comes increasingly into question, Nieto argues for the need to evaluate the alarming precedent set in Latin America: the institution of client dictatorships, the roles played by the interests of U.S. corporations, the enormous tolls taken on civilian populations, and the irreversible disruption of regional stability. Drawing from an impressive array of documents and sources as well as from her unique first hand insights as a participant in crucial meetings and negotiations in the region from the mid 1960s through the mid 1980s, Nieto chronicles the Cuban Revolution, the CIA sponsored coup against popularly elected President Allende in Chile, the U.S. invasions of Panama and Grenada, U.S. support for the cultivation and training of paramilitary death squads in Nicaragua, El Salvador, and Colombia, as well as similarly severe but less well known situations in other countries such as Uruguay, Venezuela, Argentina, Peru, Bolivia, Honduras, and Guatemala. Masters of War offers from an informed perspective, perhaps for the first time, a distanced, objective analysis of recent Latin American history. Clara Nieto's depth of knowledge and understanding is an invaluable resource at a time when the media is seen as unapologetically aligned with the interests of major corporations and policymakers, and the American public has reached a new height of apprehension regarding the intentions behind and consequences of its government's policies. State-Sponsored Disinformation Around the Globe Martin Echeverría, Sara García Santamaría, Daniel C. Hallin, 2024-08-28 This book explores the pervasive and globalised trajectory of domestic disinformation. It describes specific operations and general apparatuses of disinformation that are sponsored by the State institutions in several countries around the world such as governments political parties and politicians With an international team of expert authors this volume meticulously scrutinises instances of State sponsored disinformation across a diverse spectrum of 14 countries encompassing Western and Eastern Europe North and Latin America Africa Asia and the Middle East It examines how political landscapes amplify or constrain disinformation advancing a comprehensive understanding of its dynamics in the contemporary global milieu The book is organised in three sections that gather case studies from democratic non democratic and transitional regimes Advancing the field of misinformation and disinformation studies by specialising in State sponsored operations and their consequences this book will be an essential volume for scholars and upper level students of media and communication studies journalism political communication disinformation and misinformation social media sociology and international politics The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
