The Confessions of St. Augustine Saint Augustine, Bishop of Hippo, E. B. Pusey, Edward Bouverie, 2014-08-23. The Confessions of Saint Augustine By Saint Augustine, Bishop of Hippo. Translated by E. B. Pusey, Edward Bouverie. Confessions Latin Confessiones is the name of an autobiographical work consisting of 13 books by St. Augustine of Hippo, written in Latin between AD 397 and AD 398. Modern English translations of it are sometimes published under the title The Confessions of St. Augustine in order to distinguish the book from other books with similar titles. Its original title was Confessions in Thirteen Books and it was composed to be read out loud, with each book being a complete unit. The work outlines Augustine's sinful youth and his conversion to Christianity. It is widely seen as the first Western autobiography ever written and was an influential model for Christian writers throughout the following 1,000 years of the Middle Ages. It is not a complete autobiography as it was written in his early 40s and he lived long afterwards, producing another important work, City of God. It does nonetheless provide an unbroken record of his development of thought and is the most complete record of any single person from the 4th and 5th centuries. It is a significant theological work featuring spiritual meditations and insights. In the work, St. Augustine writes about how much he regrets having led a sinful and immoral life. He discusses his regrets for following the Manichaean religion and believing in astrology. He writes about Nebridius's role in helping to persuade him that astrology was not only incorrect but evil, and St. Ambrose's role in his conversion to Christianity. The first nine books are autobiographical, and the last four are commentary. He shows intense sorrow for his sexual sins and writes on the importance of sexual morality. The books were written as prayers to God, thus the title, based on the Psalms of David, and it begins with

The Confessions of St. Augustine St. Augustine, 2022-04-25 More than an autobiography, The Confessions of St. Augustine is one of the most influential religious books in the Christian tradition. A great work of Western literature, it recalls crucial events and episodes in the author's life in particular life with his devoutly Christian mother and his origins in rural Algeria in the mid-fourth century A.D. the rise to a lavish life at the imperial court in Milan, his struggle with sexual desires, eventual renunciation of secular ambitions and marriage, and recovery of his Catholic faith. This intensely personal narrative, among the first in which self-analysis was used to describe spiritual and emotional experiences, provides a detailed classic recounting of one man's internal struggles and religious conversion. The book will be useful to anyone interested in the impact made by one of the foremost leaders in the development of Christian thought. In his Confessions, Saint Augustine reflects upon his life in the light of scripture and the presence of God. He begins with his infancy, pondering the many sins of his life before his conversion, and he confesses not only his sins but even more the greatness of God. This work presents a wonderful contrast between the Holy God who created all things and whom heaven and earth cannot contain, and a commonly sinful man who has joyfully received God's loving salvation and mercy. Many scholars consider Saint Augustine to be among the greatest and most influential fathers of the early church. And as you read his Confessions, you will find the confident humility that is common among those whom Jesus calls great in the kingdom of heaven. Augustine writes as a common man, and so his words span time and tradition. May his Confessions guide you to the One whom he confesses. The Confessions of St. Augustine by Bishop of Hippo Saint Augustine Saint Augustine, 2017-11-18 The Confessions of Saint Augustine is considered the all-time number one Christian classic. It is an extended, poetic, passionate, intimate prayer. Augustine was probably forty-three when he began this endeavor. He had been a baptized Catholic for ten years, a priest for six, and a bishop for only two. His pre-baptismal life raised questions in the community. Was his conversion genuine? The first hearers were captivated, as many millions have been over the following sixteen centuries. His experience of God speaks to us across time, with little need of transpositions. This new translation masterfully captures his experience. Writing in the last years of the fourth century A.D., Saint Augustine of Hippo created what is at once the first true autobiography in Western literature and among the most sophisticated yet accessible theological arguments in the history of Christianity. With extraordinary candor and psychological acumen Augustine recounts his passage from a life of sensuality Manichaeian superstition and empty careerism to a genuine spiritual awakening and he articulates views on marriage morality and faith that have shaped our discourse ever since The Confessions allows us to appreciate both the startling modernity of Augustine's insights and the imperishable poetry of his voice With a new Preface by MacArthur Fellow Patricia Hampl author of Virgin Time and A Romantic Education In the annals of spirituality certain books stand out both for their historical importance and for their continued relevance The Vintage Spiritual Classics series offers the greatest of these works in authoritative new editions with specially commissioned essays by noted contemporary commentators Filled with eloquence and fresh insight encouragement and solace Vintage Spiritual Classics are incomparable resources for all readers who seek a more substantive understanding of mankind's relation to the divine
