Homeric Contexts Franco Montanari, Antonios Rengakos, Christos C. Tsagalis, 2012-04-26 This volume aims at offering a critical reassessment of the progress made in Homeric research in recent years focussing on its two main trends Neanalysis and Oral Theory Interpreting Homer in the 21st century asks for a holistic approach that allows us to reconsider some of our methodological tools and preconceptions concerning what we call Homeric poetry The neoanalytical and oral booms which have to a large extent influenced the way we see Homer today may be re evaluated if we are willing to endorse a more flexible approach to certain scholarly taboos pertaining to these two schools of interpretation Song traditions formula performance multiformity on the one hand and Motivforschung Epic Cycle on the other may not be so incompatible as we often tend to think Labor Imperfectus Jacqueline Fabre-Serris, Marco Formisano, Stavros Frangoulidis, 2023-11-06

Unfinishedness and incompleteness are a central feature of ancient Greek and Roman literature that has often been taken for granted but not deeply examined many texts have been transmitted to us incomplete How and to what extent has this feature of many texts influenced their aesthetic perception and interpretation and how does it still influence them today Also how do various editorial arrangements of fragmentary texts influence the reconstruction of closure These important questions offer the opportunity to bring together specialists working on Greek and Roman texts across various genres epic tragedy poetry mythographic texts rhetorical texts philosophical treatises and the novel Reading a text by focusing on its current unfinishedness or incompleteness or the textual signs suggesting an unfinished or incomplete state the contributors examine the relations between author reader and text as underscored by the verbal generic and aesthetic features of each work This edited volume brings together a broad spectrum of approaches to ancient and modern texts and aims to reach out to a broad scholarly community consisting not only of Classicists but also scholars of other literature and aesthetics THE

Network-Based Language Teaching: Concepts and Practice Mark Warschauer,Richard Geyman Kern,2000-01-13 This collection of research in on line communication for second language learning includes use of electronic mail real time writing and the World Wide Web It analyses the theories underlying computer assisted learning Restorations of Empire in Africa Samuel Agbamu,2024-03-19 The histories of Europe and Africa are closely intertwined At times this closeness has been emphasized at other times suppressed and denied Since the nineteenth century European imperial powers have carved up the continent of Africa among themselves drawing borders and charting shorelines in the process inventing Africa This was a project anchored in ancient Greek and Roman representations of Africa For Italy colonialism in Africa was a matter of consolidating its project of national unification nominally completed in 1870 with the capture of Rome By asserting its position as an imperial power the young nation of Italy hoped to join the club of European nation states and in so doing be rid of the perception that it was a country somewhere in between Europe and Africa Yet Italy s colonial endeavour in Africa was also a project with deep historical meaning Italy posed its imperial project in Africa as a national return to territory which was rightfully Italian Italian ideologues of imperialism based this claim on the history of Roman history on the continent When Italian soldiers disembarked on the beaches of Libya during Italy s invasion of 1911 1912 and came across the ruins of Roman imperialism they were according to prominent cultural and political figures in Italy rediscovering the traces of their ancestors Yet when Italian imperial ambitions set their sights on East Africa regions that had not been conquered by Rome how could Italy nevertheless shape its imperial project in the image of ancient Rome This book charts this story Beginning with Italy s first imperial endeavours on the African continent in the last decades of the nineteenth century and continuing right through to Italy s current attitudes towards Africa this book argues that empire in Africa was a central aspect of Italian nation building and that this was a project which anchored itself in memories of ancient Rome in Africa Although Fascism s invasion of Ethiopia 1935 1936 is the best known moment of Italian imperialism in Africa this book shows that Italian imperialism modelled on ancient Rome has a history which long predates Mussolini s movement and has a legacy which continues to be acutely felt ECIE2015-10th European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Renata Paola Dameri, Roberto Garelli and Marina Resta,2015-08-24 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 10th European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship ECIE 2015 hosted this year by The University of Genoa Italy on the 17 18 September 2015 The Conference Chair is Prof Luca Beltrametti and the Programme Co chairs are Prof Renata

Classical Reception Anastasia Bakogianni, Luis Unceta Gómez, 2024-07-22 In a time of acute crisis when our societies face a complex series of challenges race gender inclusivity changing pedagogical needs and a global pandemic we urgently need to re access the nature of our engagement with the Classical World This edited collection argues that we need to discover new ways to draw on our discipline and the material it studies to engage in meaningful ways with these new academic and societal challenges The chapters included in the collection interrogate the very processes of reception and continue the work of destabilising the concept of a pure source text or point of origin Our aim is to break through the boundaries that still divide our ancient texts and material culture from their reception and interpretive communities Our contributors engage with these questions theoretically and or through the close examination of cultural artefacts They problematise the concept of a Western elitist canon and actively push the geographical boundaries of reception as both a local and a global phenomenon Individually and cumulatively they actively engage with the question of how to marshal the classical past in our efforts to respond to the challenges of our mutable contemporary world ECKM 2018 19th European Conference on Knowledge Management

Ettore Bolisani, Eleonora Di Maria, Enrico Scarso, 2018-09-06 Classicisms in the Black Atlantic Ian S. Moyer, Adam Lecznar, Heidi Morse, 2020 Classicisms in the Black Atlantic explores how black authors and artists in the Atlantic world have shaped and reshaped the cultural legacies of classical antiquity from the aftermath of slavery up to the present day to represent black voices and experiences often revealing in the process effaced black presences in classical antiquity Metalepsis Sebastian Matzner, Gail Trimble, 2020 Examining phenomena from Greek and Latin literature through the lens of metalepsis this volume sheds new light on central features and important dynamics in ancient texts and advances literary theory by probing how explorations of ancient metalepsis might change refine or extend our understanding of the concept itself The Politics of Identity in Visigothic Spain Jamie Wood, 2012-03-20 This book reappraises the historical writings of the seventh century Spanish bishop Isidore of Seville as a coherent and pastorally informed programme intended to reconcile the population of Spain to their recent conquest by the barbarian Visigoths speaking audiences The Reality behind Barbara Pym's Excellent Women Robin R. Joyce, 2023-02-20 This book analyses Barbara Pym's published and unpublished work through a new image that of the troublesome woman. It details the political nature of her work, highlighting her feminist ideas which are hidden in village-like settings and revealed by troublesome women. By exploring Pym's written work, published and unpublished diaries and notebooks, the book shows that this material gives credence to Hilary Pym's interpretation of her sister as a complex person. Plato and Jesus, Not Caesar Mateusz Stróżyński, 2025-10-13 This book discusses the influence of ancient and medieval Platonism and Christian Platonism on the modern political concepts and experiences of freedom and tyranny in Central Eastern Europe. The main claim of the book is that because the nations of Younger Europe were oppressed by the imperialism of Russia, Germany, and Austria, they maintained a stronger connection to the premodern Christian Platonic tradition. This tradition was experienced as a source of inspiration in the struggle for freedom and independence. The book focuses on the life and work of selected philosophers, poets, and artists, all of whom were both mystics and figures deeply engaged in their nations' fight for freedom. Records of the ...
