Special Committee to Investigate Whitewater Development Corporation and Related Matters,1997 AIDS, Women, and the Next Generation Ruth R. Faden,Gail Geller,Madison Powers,1991 The proliferation of Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome AIDS among women and children represents one of the gravest health issues confronting contemporary society Women most of childbearing age now constitute 11 percent of all cases and the U S Public Health Service has projected over 3 000 cases of pediatric AIDS by the end of 1991 In the face of these sobering statistics experts have been called upon to grapple with a difficult compelling question under what conditions if any should HIV testing of women and children be required Also at issue are the surreptitious testing for HIV antibodies as part of routine prenatal and neonatal examinations and whether such testing should be performed on all women and infants or only those who belong to groups judged at high risk In this unique contribution to the debate about HIV screening and testing Ruth Faden Madison Powers and Gail Geller have assembled perspectives from experts in public health medicine law and ethics Their wide ranging treatment examines the history of prenatal and neonatal screening programs informed consent legal issues and confidentiality reproductive decision making and numerous other aspects of HIV testing Alternative policy options for both now and the future are discussed in detail This volume provides a comprehensive analysis of these pressing medical public health legal ethical and social issues and is essential reading for AIDS researchers and clinicians public health specialists ethicists health policymakers and analysts obstetricians and pediatricians Funding Public Colleges and Universities for Performance Joseph C. Burke,2002-10-10 This is the first comprehensive study of performance funding of public colleges and universities which directly ties some state allocations to institutional results on designated indicators The book examines performance funding as a national phenomenon identifying the champions and critics of the program the arguments for and against its adoption the most common performance measures used for funding the characteristics that separate stable from unstable initiatives and the inherent possibilities and problems The authors include case studies of performance funding in Tennessee Missouri Florida Ohio and South Carolina and explore the reasons why Arkansas Colorado Kentucky and Minnesota first adopted and later abandoned their programs They examine problems with performance funding such as the reluctance of the academic community to agree on reasonable goals for undergraduate education or the failure to apply performance funding to the academic departments that are mostly responsible for institutional results on many of the performance indicators The contributors conclude that although the future of performance funding remains

cloudy one aspect is becoming clear taxpayers are unlikely to continue to accept the proposition that performance should count in all endeavors except state funding for higher education Contributors include E Grady Brogue Joseph C Burke Juan C Copa Patrick Dallet Terri Lessard Gary Moden Dr Robert B Stein Michael Williford and David J Wright The Arkansas Register ,1990
