Sterling, Cary O'Dell, 2013-05-13 The Biographical Encyclopedia of American Radio presents the very best biographies of the internationally acclaimed three volume Encyclopedia of Radio in a single volume It includes more than 200 biographical entries on the most important and influential American radio personalities writers producers directors newscasters and network executives With 23 new biographies and updated entries throughout this volume covers key figures from radio s past and present including Glenn Beck Jessie Blayton Fred Friendly Arthur Godfrey Bob Hope Don Imus Rush Limbaugh Ryan Seacrest Laura Schlesinger Red Skelton Nina Totenberg Walter Winchell and many more Scholarly but accessible this encyclopedia provides an unrivaled guide to the voices behind radio for students and general readers alike It's the Pictures That Got Small Christine Becker, 2008 An original study of Hollywood film stars and 1950s television Television Talk Bernard M. Timberg, Robert J. Erler, 2010-01-01 A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Book Flip through the channels at any hour of the day or night and a television talk show is almost certainly on Whether it offers late night entertainment with David Letterman share your pain empathy with Oprah Winfrey trash talk with Jerry Springer or intellectual give and take with Bill Moyers the talk show is one of television s most popular and enduring formats with a history as old as the medium itself Bernard Timberg here offers a comprehensive history of the first fifty years of television talk replete with memorable moments from a wide range of classic talk shows as well as many of today s most popular programs Dividing the history into five eras he shows how the evolution of the television talk show is connected to both broad patterns in American culture and the economic regulatory technological and social history of the broadcasting industry Robert Erler s A Guide to Television Talk complements the text with an extensive who s who listing of important people and programs in the history of television talk Some Like It Wilder Gene D. Phillips, 2010-02-05 A biography of the six time Oscar winning director of films like Some Like It Hot and Double Indemnity featuring analysis of his work Although his career spanned fifty years and included more than fifty films Austrian American film director Billy Wilder 1906 2002 may be best known for the legendary shot of Marilyn Monroe s dress billowing over a subway grating in The Seven Year Itch 1955 This shot seen round the world is representative not only of Hollywood s golden era of cinema but also of one of its most prolific and brilliant directors Wilder whose filmography includes such classics as Sunset Boulevard 1950 Sabrina 1954 Witness for the Prosecution 1957 and

Some Like It Hot 1959 is often remembered for his versatility biting wit and passion for challenging social and moral conventions Author Gene D Phillips departs from the traditional biography in Some Like It Wilder offering new insights into the acclaimed director s professional and private life In preparation for the book Phillips conducted personal interviews with Wilder and other key players from the legendary director s life and times Phillips s unique combination of analysis and biographical detail brings Wilder to life as both an artist and man Phillips traces Wilder s path from Berlin where he worked as a scriptwriter for one of the city s largest studios to Hollywood where he would quickly establish himself as a premier film director Forming a partnership with writer producer Charles Brackett Wilder directed the classic films Five Graves to Cairo 1943 Double Indemnity 1945 and The Lost Weekend 1945 which earned Academy Awards for best picture best director and best screenplay During the 1960s Wilder continued to direct and produce controversial comedies including Kiss Me Stupid 1964 and The Apartment 1960 The Apartment brought Wilder another round of Oscars for best picture best director and best screenplay Wilder s maverick approach and independent artistic vision pushed boundaries and ensured his legacy as one of the Hollywood greats Sharply written Some Like It Wilder serves as a comprehensive companion to Wilder s films offering a personalized and heartfelt account of the life and genius of this compelling director Praise for Some Like It Wilder Featuring Gene D Phillips unique in depth critical approach Some Like It Wilder provides a groundbreaking overview of a filmmaking icon This definitive biography reveals that Wilder was and remains one of the most influential directors in filmmaking Turner Classic Movies Phillips goes beyond the surface and deep into the complex mind and soul of the famous film director This book is in my view definitive Vincent LoBrutto author of Martin Scorsese A Biography What Women Watched Marsha F. Cassidy, 2009-04-20 In this pathfinding book based on original archival research Marsha F Cassidy offers the first thorough analysis of daytime television s earliest and most significant women s genres appraising from a feminist perspective what women watched before soap opera rose to prominence After providing a comprehensive history of the early days of women s programming across the nation Cassidy offers a critical discussion of the formats programs and celebrities that launched daytime TV in America Kate Smith s variety show and the famed singer s unsuccessful transition from patriotic radio star to 1950s TV idol the charm boys Garry Moore Arthur Godfrey and Art Linkletter whose programs honored women s participation but in the process established the dominance of male hosts on TV and the misery shows Strike It Rich and Glamour Girl and the controversy both critical and legal they stirred up Cassidy then turns to NBC s Home show starring the urbane Arlene Francis who infused the homemaking format with Manhattan sophistication and the ambitious daily anthology drama Matinee Theater which strove to differentiate itself from soap opera and become a national theater of the air She concludes with an analysis of four popular audience participation shows of the era the runaway hit Queen for a Day Ralph Edwards s daytime show of surprises It Could Be You Who Do You Trust starring a youthful Johnny Carson and The Big Payoff featuring Bess Myerson the country s first Jewish Miss America Cassidy s close feminist reading of these shows clearly demonstrates how daytime TV mirrored the cultural pressures inconsistencies and ambiguities of the postwar era
