Understanding Children's Spirituality Kevin E. Lawson, 2012-03-22 How important is childhood in the spiritual formation of a person How do children experience God in the context of their lives as they grow What does God do in the lives of children to draw them to himself and help them grow into a vital relationship with him How can adults who care about children better support their spiritual growth and direct it toward relationship with God through Jesus Christ These are critical questions that church leaders face as they consider how best to nurture the faith of the children God brings into our lives In this book over two dozen Christian scholars and ministry leaders explore important issues about the spiritual life of children and ways parents church leaders and others who care about children can promote their spiritual formation

Race, Ethnicity and Nuclear War Paul Williams, 2011-10-18 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library Ranging across novels and poetry critical theory and film comics and speeches Race Ethnicity and Nuclear War Representations of Nuclear Weapons and Post Apocalyptic Worlds explores how writers thinkers and filmmakers have answered the following question are nuclear weapons white Many texts respond in the affirmative and arraign nuclear weapons for defending a racial order that privileges whiteness They are seen as a reminder that the power enjoyed by the white western world imperils the whole of the Earth Furthermore the struggle to survive during and after a speculated nuclear attack is often cast as a contest between races and ethnic groups Race Ethnicity and Nuclear War listens to voices from around the Anglophone world and the debates followed do not only take place on the soil of the nuclear powers Filmmakers and writers from the Caribbean Australia and India take up positions shaped by their specific place in the decolonizing world and their particular experience of nuclear weapons The texts considered in Race Ethnicity and Nuclear War encompass the many guises of representations of nuclear weapons the Manhattan Project that developed the first atomic weapons the destruction of Hiroshima and Nagasaki nuclear tests taking place around the world and the anxiety surrounding the superpowers devastating arsenals Of particular interest to SF scholars are the extensive analyses of films novels and short stories depicting nuclear war and its aftermath New thoughts are offered on the major texts that SF scholars often return to such as Philip Wylie's Tomorrow and Pat Frank's Alas Babylon and a host of little known and under researched texts are scrutinized too

The Stuff of Science Fiction Gary Westfahl, 2022-10-07 While students and general readers typically cannot relate to esoteric definitions of science fiction they readily understand the genre as a literature that characteristically deals with subjects such as new inventions space robot and aliens This book looks at science fiction in precisely this manner with twenty one chapters that each deal with a subject that is repeatedly addressed in science fiction of recent centuries Based on a packet of original essays that the author assembled for his classes the book could serve as a supplemental textbook in science fiction classes but also contains material of interest to science fiction scholars and others devoted to the genre In some cases chapters offer thorough surveys of numerous works involving certain subjects such as imagined vehicles journeys beneath the Earth and undersea adventures discovering intriguing patterns in the ways that various writers developed their ideas When comprehensive coverage of ubiquitous topics such as robots aliens and the planet Mars is impossible chapters focus on major themes referencing selected texts A conclusion discusses other science fiction subjects that were omitted for various reasons and a bibliography lists additional resources for the study of science fiction in general and the topics of each chapter

Afrofuturism's Transcultural Trajectories Eva Ulrike Pirker, Judith Rahn, 2023-02-28 The future is a contested terrain and one that has in recent years been debated theorized and imaginatively constructed with an unprecedented albeit unsurprising sense of urgency The recent Afrofuturist imaginary is an increasingly noticeable field in these debates and manifestations requesting as it does the envisioning of a future through an artistic scientific and technological African or Black lens Afrofuturism is not a new term but it seems to have broadened and developed in different directions The recent Afrofuturist engagements which oscillate between narratives of empowerment and tech wise superheroes on the one hand and dystopian agendas on the other raise questions about earlier futurist accounts about historical Black visions of the future that precede the establishment even of the term Afrofuturism This volume contextualizes Afrofuturism's diverse approaches in the past and present through investigations into overlapping horizons between Afrofuturist agendas and other intellectual and or artistic movements e g Pan Africanism debates about Civil Rights decolonial debates and transcultural modernisms as well as through explorations of Afrofuturist approaches in the 21st century across media cultures and in a transcultural perspective This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Critical Studies in Media Communication
