The Festal Works of St.

Gregory of Narek Abraham Terian, 2016-03-08 Saint Gregory of Narek a monk of the tenth century knew how to express the sentiments of your people more than anyone He gave voice to the cry which became a prayer of a sinful and sorrowful humanity oppressed by the anguish of its powerlessness but illuminated by the splendor of God's love and open to the hope of his salvific intervention which is capable of transforming all things Pope Francis April 12 2015 This is the first translation in any language of the surviving corpus of the festal works of St Gregory of Narek a tenth century Armenian mystic theologian and poet par excellence d 1003 Composed as liturgical works for the various Dominical and related feasts these poetic writings are literary masterpieces in both lyrical verse and narrative Unlike Gregory's better known penitential prayers these show a jubilant author in a celebratory mood In this volume Abraham Terian an eminent scholar of medieval Armenian literature provides the nonspecialist reader with an illuminating translation of St Gregory of Narek's festal works Introducing each composition with an explanatory note Terian places the works under consideration in their author's thought world and in their tenth century landscape *The Embroidered Bible: Studies in Biblical Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha in Honour of Michael E.
