The Critical and Miscellaneous Writings of Theodore Parker Theodore Parker,1843 Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1854 Lectures on Christian Theology Georg Christian Knapp,1850 The Story of Siegfried James Baldwin,2024-11-23 WHEN the world was in its childhood men looked upon the works of Nature with a strange kind of awe They fancied that every thing upon the earth in the air or in the water had a life like their own and that every sight which they saw and every sound which they heard was caused by some intelligent being All men were poets so far as their ideas and their modes of expression were concerned although it is not likely that any of them wrote poetry This was true in regard to the Saxon in his chilly northern home as well as to the Greek in the sunny southland In the north a different story was told but the meaning was the same Sometimes men told how Odin the All Father had become angry with Brunhild the maid of spring and had wounded her with the thorn of sleep and how all the castle in which she slept was wrapped in deathlike slumber until Sigurd or Siegfried the sunbeam rode through flaming fire and awakened her with a kiss Sometimes men told how Loki heat had betrayed Balder the sunlight and had induced blind old Hoder the winter months to slay him and how all things living and inanimate joined in weeping for the bright god until Hela death should permit him to revisit the earth for a time So too when the sun arose and drove away the darkness and the hidden terrors of the night our ancestors thought of the story of a noble young hero slaying a hideous dragon or taking possession of the golden treasures of Mist Land And when the springtime came and the earth renewed its youth and the fields and woods were decked in beauty and there was music everywhere they loved to tell of Idun the spring and her youth giving apples and of her wise husband Bragi Nature s musician When storm clouds loomed up from the horizon and darkened the sky and thunder rolled overhead and lightning flashed on every hand they talked about the mighty Thor riding over the clouds in his goat drawn chariot and battling with the giants of the air When the mountain meadows were

green with long grass and the corn was yellow for the sickles of the reapers they spoke of Sif the golden haired wife of Thor the queen of the pastures and the fields When the seasons were mild and the harvests were plentiful and peace and gladness prevailed they blessed Frey the giver of good gifts to men To them the blue sky dome which everywhere hung over them like an arched roof was but the protecting mantle which the All Father had suspended above the earth The rainbow was the shimmering bridge which stretches from earth to he aven The sun and the moon were the children of a giant whom two wolves chased forever around the earth The stars were sparks from the fire land of the south set in the heavens by the gods Night was a giantess dark and swarthy who rode in a car drawn by a steed the foam from whose bits sometimes covered the earth with dew And Day was the son of Night and the steed which he rode lighted all the sky and the earth with the beams which glistened from his mane
