Knieter,Jane Stallings,1979 The Future of the Arts David B. Pankratz,Valerie B. Morris,1990 This volume presents the work of social scientists public policy analysts policy makers and arts funding decision makers The contributors seek to address serious issues confronting the future of the arts in America by defining the role of social science research in the formulation of public policies The chapters reflect the diverse disciplinary perspectives and methodologies which make up the broad enterprise of arts research and cover a wide array of current issues in arts research and public policy including the current state of arts and arts education research arts participation by ethnic cultures baby boomers and older adults emerging patterns of aesthetic choice public arts policy in the future and conditions for the growth and effective use of arts research Academics and students in political science policy analysis sociology economics arts administration and education policy makers and arts administrators will find The Future of the Arts a valuable resource The contributors conclude that the future of the arts in America will be shaped by a wide array of forces The challenge is in avoiding passive reactivity to these trends assessing their short term and long term influences and strategically developing policy options that are within the decision making control of leadership sectors in the complex arts policy world Until recently the political context of public arts policy has hindered the development and utilization of arts research In many ways this book illustrates the promise of research based policy formulation for the arts in America

Issues of Contemporary Art and Aesthetics in Chinese Context Eva Kit Wah Man, 2015-08-17 This book discusses how China's transformations in the last century have shaped its arts and its philosophical aesthetics For instance how have political economic and cultural changes shaped its aesthetic developments Further how have its long standing beliefs and traditions clashed with modernizing desires and forces and how have these changes materialized in artistic manifestations In addition to answering these questions this book also brings Chinese philosophical concepts on aesthetics into dialogue with those of the West making an important contribution to the fields of art comparative aesthetics and philosophy

Aesthetic Hybridity in Mughal Painting, 1526-1658 Valerie Gonzalez, 2016-03-03 The first specialized critical aesthetic study to be published on the concept of hybridity in early Mughal painting this book investigates the workings of the diverse creative forces that led to the formation of a unique Mughal pictorial language Mughal pictoriality distinguishes itself from the Persianate models through the rationalization of the picture's conceptual structure and other visual modes of expression involving the aesthetic concept of mimesis If the stylistic and iconographic results of this transformational process have been well identified and evidenced their hermeneutic interpretation greatly suffers from the neglect of a methodologically updated investigation of the images conceptual underpinning Valerie Gonzalez addresses this lacuna by exploring the operations of cross fertilization at the level of imagistic conceptualization resulting from the multifaceted encounter between the local legacy of Indo Persianate book art the freshly imported Persian models to Mughal India after 1555 and the influx of European art at the Mughal court in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The author's close examination of the visuality metaphysical order and aesthetic language of Mughal imagery and portraiture sheds new light on this particular aspect of its aesthetic hybridity which is usually approached monolithically as a historical phenomenon of cross cultural interaction That approach fails to consider specific parameters and features inherent to the artistic practice such as the differences between doxis and praxis conceptualization and realization intentionality and what lies beyond it By studying the distinct phases and principles of hybridization between the variegated pictorial sources at work in the Mughal creative process at the successive levels of the project intention the practice realization and the result product the author deciphers the modalities of appropriation and manipulation of the heterogeneous elements Her unique Philosopher, Teacher, Musician Estelle Ruth Jorgensen,1991 Art Index Alice Maria Dougan,Margaret Furlong,1981 Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell,Music Educators National Conference (U.S.),1992 Curriculum and Instruction in Arts and Aesthetic Education Martin Engel,Jerome J.
