Tatiana Chemi,Lihong Wang,Xiangyun Du,2019-05-07 Core texts addressing creativity in a number of contexts show that creativity as a scientific subject has received principally the attention of Western scholars Is this due to the fact that Western cultures are more creative or sensitive to creativity than the Eastern cultures The editors strongly believe that this is more due to the differences in understanding and practising creativity in the West and East than to an Eastern indifference to creativity Arts Based Education China and Its Intersection with the World investigates the field of arts based educational practices and research It argues that reflections on these themes must necessarily be reframed and re read beyond the limits of colonialist oppositions and suggests a constructive and reflexive approach to theory and methodology which takes into account intercultural and critical perspectives in these studies This volume is the tangible product of the acknowledgement that China and Chinese culture deserves a more systematic and up to date dissemination through recent studies that bring together the arts learning and creativity It is clustered around two themes 1 China and its communication with the world through arts based education in international contexts and 2 the development of arts education in China Global Media

Arts Education Aaron D. Knochel,Osamu Sahara,2022-10-22 This edited volume broadens the understanding of the media arts at a global scale bringing together practices and ideas from artists and art educators from around the world Authors explore issues of cultural and social diversity in fields of education media theory and critical theories of education and pedagogy with particular attention to digital technologies impact on visual arts learning Researchers utilize a range of methodologies including participant researcher ethnographies action research case study and design based research These artists and art educators share new research about the pedagogical and theoretical aspects of media arts in educational systems that are facing unprecedented change This volume begins to map why and how experts are working within networked society and playing with digital innovations through media arts education as a critical and creative practice

Modernization of Korean Theatre in the 20th Century Meewon Lee,2024-09-02 Lee provides a comprehensive guide that traces the transformation of Korean theatre from traditional to modern theatre and examines the impact of the introduction of Western plays to Korean society Important changes in Korean theatre are discussed chronologically from the beginning of the modernization Sinpa Theatre Singeuk Theatre Theatre of Ideology The Little Theatre Movement Madanggeuk experiments for modernizing traditional Korean theatrical arts and transitions to postmodern theatre These changes happened rapidly and coupled with Eurocentric globalization By the end of the century the reinterpretations of Western drama like Shakespeare's plays had reached a point where they received attention from the Western world Today Korean theatre keeps pace with the world theatre and strives to contribute as a member of it This book is a vital resource for scholars and students pursuing Korean studies and East Asian theatres with an authentic Korean perspective from a Korean scholar who has lived and researched in Korea The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
