Comrade Past And Mister Present:

Comrade Past & Mister Present, 1986 Comrade Past & Mister Present Andrei Codrescu, 1986 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4,000 contemporary poets world wide, this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well known poets, talented up and coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes. Andrei Codrescu and the Myth of America Kirby Olson, 2014-09-17 This is one of those times a time choked in the weeds of academic and civilian formalism. To put it mildly, most of what we see in print in North America is unbearably trivial and singularly devoid of courage. Andrei Codrescu, the Disappearance of the Outside. Known to the general public as a radio commentator on National Public Radio, Romanian born essayist and poet Andrei Codrescu has developed a variety of voices throughout his career. Transylvanian humorist on NPR, surrealist poet in his many volumes of poetry, academic essayist in his philosophical writings and historical novelist. Taking seemingly everyday events in seemingly mundane places, Codrescu is able to link the random details into a larger whole, leading his readers and listeners to conclusions very different from those they first imagined. This work explores Codrescu's writings and how they are a part of the surrealist tradition. It examines the ways in which his poetry, essays and novels are influenced by his upbringing in Communist Romania and the liberal attitudes he encountered upon moving to the United States and draws comparisons between Codrescu and other surrealists. An interview with the author is also included.

My New Orleans Rosemary James, 2010-06-15 From famous writers and personalities who call the city home, whether by birth or simply love, these pieces written in the wake of Hurricane Katrina serve as a timeless tribute to New Orleans. Sentimental, joyful and witty, these essays by celebrated writers, entertainers, chefs and fans honor the life of one of America's most beloved cities. Paul Prudhomme writes about the emotional highs New Orleans inspires. Wynton Marsalis exalts his native city as soul model for the nation, while Walter Isaacson shares his vision for preserving his hometown's pentimento magic. Stewart O'Nan recalls the fantasy haze that enshrouded his first trip to the Big Easy when he was thirty and bowed to Richard Ford to receive his first literary prize. Poppy Z Brite thanks New Orleans for helping her discover the simple pleasure of Audubon Park's egrets, and Elizabeth Dewberry explores what it means to work Bourbon Street as a stripper. My New Orleans captures the spirit of the city that was and that will be again. [Proceedings of the Stated Convention of the ...
