

Concept formation for young children

Transformation of everyday practice

It is hoped that children will learn through their play Experiences!?

Academic or formal concepts developed

Everyday or preschool practice (or play observed)

Mediation by Educator:
(What can you do to enhance concept formation? What 'talk', what resources, what pedagogical thinking influences your actions?)

Eg Full and empty measurement/capacity
(numeracy and science)

What might you have seen the children engaged in, doing or saying?
Eg Playing with different sized containers in the sand pit or water tray

Cultural-historical Digital Methodology in Early Childhood Settings Marilyn Fler, Glykeria Fragkiadaki, Elin Eriksen Ødegaard, Prabhat Rai, Alicja R. Sadownik, 2024-07-10 This open access book addresses methodological issues related to researching young children s learning and development teacher education and professional development It pays special attention to research conducted in digital contexts in response to the new societal demands of a global pandemic and crisis It illustrates and discusses new methods and tools new study designs new analysis techniques and new procedures developed in a time of crisis in two different parts of the world Australia and Norway The book suggests that during the global pandemic a theoretical crisis in researching children s development in different contexts has emerged which has not only created the need for new methods and methodologies but has opened the space for the development of theory itself Following a cultural historical perspective this book theorises these new approaches to create new theoretical concepts and new ways of researching better understanding and efficiently supporting childhoods in a continually changing world This book is a great resource for researchers and students in the fields of early childhood education and educational psychology

The Role of Imagination in STEM Concept Formation Marilyn Fler, 2022-06-20 Why has early childhood science education taken so long to become established as a field of research inquiry Why do we continue to blame early childhood and primary teachers for their lack of confidence and competence in science education This book tackles these questions and more Grounded in cultural historical theory this book explores the development of the field through the eyes of the author Over 30 years the contexts the questions and the foci of a generation of science education researchers are mapped As the field develops new concepts models of teaching and new methods and methodologies are theorised and empirically supported bringing forward uniqueness of science education for children in play based settings

International Handbook of Early Childhood Education Marilyn Fler, Bert van Oers, 2017-10-10 This international handbook gives a comprehensive overview of findings from longstanding and contemporary research theory and practices in early childhood education in the Northern and Southern hemispheres The first volume of the handbook addresses theory methodology and the research activities and research needs of particular regions The second volume examines in detail innovations and longstanding programs curriculum and assessment and conceptions and research into child family and communities The two volumes of this handbook address the current theory methodologies and research needs of specific countries and provide insight into existing global similarities in early childhood practices By paying special attention to what is happening in the larger world contexts the volumes provide a representative overview of early childhood education practices and research and redress the current North South imbalance of published work on the subject

Play and Learning in Early Childhood Settings Ingrid Pramling Samuelsson, Marilyn Fleer, 2008-11-14 This book represents the outcome of the joint activities of a group of scholars who were concerned about the lack of international research in play for children from birth to 3 years The authors are members of the Organisation Mondiale pour l'Education Prescolaire OMEP For further information see <http://www.om.org.net> The idea of carrying out a research project internationally was born at the OMEP's World Congress in Melbourne Australia 2004 All member countries were invited and 10 countries decided to participate of which three have withdrawn during the process The reason for this might be that in these countries only one person was working with the project while other seven countries have been working in a team of two or more persons The countries that have carried out research and contributed to this book with a chapter each are Australia Chile China Japan New Zealand Sweden and USA Wisconsin For more information about the participating countries and their corresponding addresses see Appendix I This book project started in Melbourne with a discussion about what is general in early childhood education globally and what is culturally specific The discussion was inspired by one of the keynote speakers Nazhat Shameem 2004 judge in the supreme court in Fiji when she said If we all think we are so different and specific in each culture the role of human rights has no value anymore We formulated three questions

Early Learning and Development Marilyn Fleer, Mariane Hedegaard, 2010-04-19 Early Learning and Development provides a unique synthesis of cultural historical theory from Vygotsky Elkonin and Leontiev in the twentieth century to the ground breaking research of scholars such as Siraj Blatchford Kratsova and Hedegaard today It demonstrates how development and learning are culturally embedded and institutionally defined and it reflects specifically upon the implications for the early childhood profession Divided into parts with succinct chapters that build upon knowledge progressively the everyday lives of children at home in the community at pre school and at school are discussed in the context of child development and pedagogy The book explicitly problematises the foundations of early childhood education inviting postgraduates researchers and academics to drill down into specific areas of international discourse and extending upper level undergraduates beyond the fundamental underpinnings of their learning Ultimately Early Learning and Development offers new models of conceptual play practice and theory within a globally resonant cultural historical framework

Foundations of Early Childhood Development and Education - Hearing Impairment Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2024-05-15 Examines developmental needs and educational interventions for children with hearing impairment emphasizing language acquisition and support tools

The Integration of Internet of Toys in Early Childhood Education Sarika Kewalramani, Ioanna Palaiologou, Maria Dardanou, 2023-03-31 This book offers a fresh look at recent developments in policy curricula and pedagogical discourse around children's play with Internet of Toys IoToys By expanding the notion of digital and smart play perspectives in early childhood education the authors critique and develop the broader subject area of IoToys play to better serve its end users The book brings together research from across three different countries Australia Norway and England It offers tangible examples of how one can use IoToys to build children's social skills emotional intelligence sense of achievement collaboration and aspects of STEM and design play thinking processes The learning stories of children's IoToys play will deliver a comprehensive review of how practitioners and parents can come together to build communities of practice for re enhancing children's learning and growth using evolving technology based play and engage in paradigmatic debates Readers as a result will better appreciate the growth in pragmatic applications of technologies together with theoretical perspectives The book will be a valuable resource for any academic or practitioner just beginning to understand the complexities and success stories of integrating IoToys for children's playful learning Music
