Focus ,1998 CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN FINANCIAL REPORTING OF ISLAMIC

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS (Penerbit UMK) Zulkarnain Bin Muhamad Sori, Sazali Bin Abdul Wahab, Mahmoud Al Homsy, 2020-12-01 This book presents contemporary issues in financial reporting of Islamic financial institutions Two key areas are covered namely accounting for Islamic financial transactions and shariah governance The main motivation to publish this book is to share our understanding on the unique nature of Islamic finance industry and the approach to be taken in accounting and reporting of Islamic financial transactions Also the book illustrate the importance of shariah governance in ensuring end to end shariah compliance This book is to provide a practical guidance to researchers industry practitioners and the others stakeholders The Routledge Companion to Accounting Education Richard M.S. Wilson, 2014-04-29

Many enquiries into the state of accounting education training undertaken in several countries over the past 40 years have warned that it must change if it is to be made more relevant to students to the accounting profession and to stakeholders in the wider community This book s over riding aim is to provide a comprehensive and authoritative source of reference which defines the domain of accounting education training and which provides a critical overview of the state of this domain including emerging and cutting edge issues as a foundation for facilitating improved accounting education training scholarship and research in order to enhance the educational base of accounting practice The Routledge Companion to Accounting Education highlights the key drivers of change whether in the field of practice on the one hand e g increased regulation globalisation risk and complexity or from developments in the academy on the other e g pressures to embed technology within the classroom or to meet accreditation criteria on the other Thirty chapters written by leading scholars from around the world are grouped into seven themed sections which focus on different facets of their respective themes including student curriculum pedagogic and assessment considerations Accounting and Auditing Practices in Africa

Mariaan Roos, Lesley Stainbank, 2017-06-26 This book comprises nine chapters drawn from the papers presented at the fourth annual conference of the African Accounting and Finance Association which took place in Somerset West South Africa in 2014 The chapters address a number of aspects of accounting ranging from the adoption of IFRS for SMEs in Africa the compliance by SMEs with IFRS for SMEs in Ghana the provision of finance to small businesses drivers of corporate failures financial regulations the audit of casinos the auditors report and investment decisions the role of government audit committees and audit fees and audit quality Fundamental Accounting David Flynn, Carolina Koornhof, 2005 The book has been specifically designed to include all topics covered in first courses in accounting in higher education In addition it caters for the curriculum of professional bodies which examine students for entry into business and accounting careers

Accounting theories, practices, education and human capital formation trends, 2025-09-15 This book aims to provide empirical and conceptual insights into contemporary accounting theories practices education and approaches adopted to advance human capital formation in the discipline Although new accounting practices have emerged in the modern world conceptual and empirical research that provides a holistic comprehensive understanding of these evolutions and human capital approaches used to promote capabilities formation in accounting remains scarce Contemporary research often focuses on developing a framework for integrating accounting practices while coverage of human capital development is limited Instead research strands on accountancy and human capital are growing separately without a comprehensive empirical and conceptual framework for integrating the two concepts Insights on accounting practices and human capital developments are necessary for building a holistic understanding of the two concepts and working towards adopting an interdisciplinary approach The findings in this book seek to advocate for the need to develop highly skilled generations who may meet the requisite accounting and financial capabilities required in the modern global economy This book adopts both conceptual and empirical methods to address the gap in the literature on the need for research that focuses on human capital formation in the accounting and finance discipline It contributes an interdisciplinary perspective on the intersectionality between accounting practice and the human capital formation of individuals who possess the requisite knowledge

International Books in Print, 1990      Measurement in Public Sector Financial Reporting Josette Caruana, Marco Bisogno, Mariafrancesca Sicilia, 2023-03-20 Measurement in Public Sector Financial Reporting presents a constructive and thoughtful analysis of possible valuation methodologies for the public sector context and related peculiarities and critical issues      Managing Technology and Innovation Robert Verburg, J. Roland Ortt, Willemijn M. Dicke, 2006-06-19 Modern technology and innovation are vital to the success of all companies be they hi tech firms or companies seemingly unaffected by technology and innovation whether established firms or business start ups This book focuses on understanding technology as a corporate resource covering product development design of systems and the managerial aspects of new and high technology Topics investigated include the internal organization of high technology firms the management of technology in society managing innovation dilemmas and strategies The wide ranging experience of the teachers and experts contributing to this book has resulted in an integrated multi disciplinary textbook that provides an introductory overview to managing technology and innovation in the twenty first century This text is essential reading for students of business and engineering concerned with technology and innovation management      The 1984 Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services: Air Force American Council on Education, 1984      Teaching IFRS Richard M.S. Wilson, Ralph Adler, 2013-09-13 The increasing pace of global conformance towards the adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS highlights the need for accounting students as well as accounting practitioners to be conversant with IFRS Teaching IFRS offers expert descriptions of and insights into the IFRS convergence process from a teaching and learning perspective Hence this book is both timely and likely to have considerable impact in providing guidance for those who teach financial reporting around the world The contents of the book come from authoritative sources and offer something distinctive to complement the existing textbooks which typically focus on the technical aspects of IFRS and their adoption Drawing upon the experiences of those who have sought to introduce IFRS related classroom innovations and the associated student outcomes achieved therefrom the book offers suggestions about how to design and deliver courses dealing with IFRS and catalogues extensive listings of IFRS related teaching resources to support those courses This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education An international journal The Routledge Companion to the Professions and Professionalism Mike Dent,Ivy Lynn Bourgeault,Jean-Louis Denis,2016-07-01 The Routledge Companion to the Professions and Professionalism is a state of the art reference work which maps out the current developments and debates around the sociology of the professions and how they relate to management and organizations Supported by an international contributor team specializing in the disciplines of organizational studies and sociology the collection provides extensive coverage of this field of research It brings together the core concepts and issues and has chapters on all the key aspects of professions in both the public and private sectors including issues of governance and regulation The volume closes with a set of international case studies which provide valuable practical insights into the subject This Companion will be an indispensable reference source for students scholars and educators within the social sciences especially within management organizational studies and sociology It will also be highly relevant for those working and studying in the area of professional education narrative disclosure in understanding the full annual report and consequently company performance and future prospects. CNR comprises integral information presented in the front half of the annual report which helps to tell the full story of a business providing a comprehensive overview and understanding of both its past and future performance. Supported with illustrative tables and figures throughout, this volume contains a plethora of carefully selected chapters featuring the analytical insight of knowledgeable academics and researchers from all over the world. Using different data collection and analysis methods, it links and advances theory and practice in the disclosure and presentation of non-financial information in annual reports and other disclosure channels. The book is logically structured into four parts: Narrative Reporting: The State of the Art; Empirical Research on Narrative Reporting; Narrative Sustainability Reporting; Narrative Reporting in Times of Crisis. Providing a global insight into CNR in practice, Corporate Narrative Reporting is an invaluable resource for both students and practitioners interested or involved in preparing, reviewing, auditing, analysing and understanding annual reports. It should also be of particular interest to policymakers, regulators and investors.
