Goetheanism Rudolf Steiner, 2024-10-28 There will be a resurrection a resurrection that should not be imagined politically but it will be a resurrection Goetheanism still rests in the grave as far as external culture is concerned But Goetheanism must rise again In the first winter following the Great War Rudolf Steiner appealed to the spirit of Central Europe which he characterized as Goetheanism that had been languishing for decades Only such a spiritual force could provide answers to the pressing social national and international questions of the time A new constellation of polar hostile opposition had emerged after the war with the East and Bolshevism on one side and the victorious West and Americanism on the other In the middle with no apparent role or hope for the future was the defeated Central Europe But this centre beseeched Steiner should not become a vacuum Rather it needs to discover its true world historical task In this context with deep seriousness and urgency Rudolf Steiner speaks of the work of Goetheanism which begins with understanding the threefold human being and leads to threefolding the social organism Steiner goes on to describe the decisive role of the consciousness soul in the present epoch and how Schiller s Aesthetic Letters and Goethe s Fairy Tale relate to contemporary challenges He discusses a multitude of seemingly diverse but interrelated themes such as the migration of peoples in the past and present the thinking of John of the Cross and the modern path of spirit cognition The first English publication of these lectures features an introduction by Christian von Arnim notes and an index Twelve lectures Dornach Jan Feb 1919 GA 188
