Concilium 52 Prayer Community:

Dissident Daughters Teresa Berger, 2001-01-01 With its focus on narratives its attention to contextual and material realities and its collection of women identified liturgies in global context Dissident Daughters claims prominence within the growing literature on women's ways of worship This book not only introduces liturgical texts but focuses on the communities that create and celebrate these liturgies Dissident Daughters gives voice to the women activists in these communities who show how their communities came into being how social cultural and political realities shaped them and their liturgies and how they envision their lives in and as communities of faith In drawing the different narratives together Dissident Daughters displays the expanse of the worldwide expression of women's rites and how each is shaped by distinctly different contexts of struggle and hope The Salesianum, 1972 Women's Ways of Worship Teresa Berger, 1999 The richness of recent research on women's worship gives witness to the scholarly interest in its contemporary practice reflection and construction On the other hand feminist scholarship has had little impact on liturgical historiography In Women's Ways of Worship Teresa Berger reconstructs liturgical history from the perspectives of women She shows that the invisibility of women in the traditional liturgical narrative draws into question the credibility of that narrative especially at a time when research into women's history has unearthed much material relevant to women's liturgical lives Berger focuses on thirteen key interpretative principles that guide the reconstruction of women at worship from a re configuration of the canon of sources and a re Visioning of liturgical periodization to re interpretation of anthropological basics and of liturgical texts On the basis of these principles she analyzes liturgical dynamics in two time periods crucial to the history of women at worship the early centuries of the Christian Church and the twentieth century liturgical renewal Within the twentieth century liturgical renewal Berger focuses on two specific foci of renewal the classical liturgical movement of the first half of the century and as a case of history in the making the women's liturgical movement of the present day Women's Ways of Worship narrates both past and present liturgical developments from the perspectives of women's lives heeding such dynamics as the genderization of liturgical space women specific liturgical taboos gender specific devotional practices and the emergence of feminist liturgies An epilogue confronts the question of a future liturgy beyond gender Convinced that reconstructing the history of women at worship will offer a new Vision of the place of the women's liturgical movement within liturgical history as a whole Berger puts this movement on a continuum of women at worship which is a continuum of struggle against the historic marginalization of women in most liturgical contexts As this struggle has come to the forefront today Women's Ways of Worship provides a context for change with women themselves being agents of both the questioning and the transformation Chapters are Reconstructing Women's Ways of Worship In Search of Methodological Principles Liturgical History Re Constructed I Early Christian Women at Worship Liturgical History Re Constructed II Women in the Twentieth Century Liturgical Movement and Liturgical History in the Making The Women's Liturgical Movement Teresa Berger is associate

The Church as the Community of the Believers Manuel Rebeiro, 2001 Sent Out into the World Michael McGourty, 2024-01-29 Sent Out into the World contains a liturgical theology for a parish community and the new evangelization that is derived from a reading of The Order of the Dedication of a Church For this reason its content can be attributed directly to a liturgical rite of the Catholic Church It is not the creation of any one person but rather an exercise in lex orandi lex credendi It presents a vision of the parish that comes directly from a rite of the church and focuses the parish community and its members on the mission that it has within the body of Christ Applying the content of the ordo to a parish community it presents a theology for those communities in which most Catholics meet the Lord and practice their faith The liturgical theology for a parish community that is presented here focuses all parish communities on Christ and his presence in the liturgical celebrations that take place in the parish churches As this ritual powerfully reminds the baptized from the liturgical and sacramental celebrations in which they encounter Christ in their parish church the faithful are to be sent out into the world as ministers of the new evangelization By reading this book every Christian who practices his or her faith within a parish community will be reminded of the mission which they are called to live as members dismissed to go into the world at the end of every eucharistic celebration Oneness Stephen

Platten, 2017-08-30 Oneness considers the role small group monastic life plays within the life of the contemporary church Using a focus on the life practice and history of the Shepherds Law community as a starting point the book broadens the discussion to consider the how such communities negotiate the boundary between the solitary life and life within their community Contributions include Sarah Foot on Northumbria's long tradition Peta Dunstan on Monasticism in the 19th century Andrew Louth on the Skete George Guiver on the monastic sacrament in life liturgy saints and buildings Dom Xavier Perrin on Gregorian chant and monastic life Christopher Irvine and Ralph Pattison on the buildings of Shepherds Law in their context With an afterword by Rowan Williams A Bibliography of Christian Worship Bard Thompson, 1989 Deals
