Concordance Of A Course In Miracles:

Concordance of A Course in Miracles Foundation for Inner Peace,1997 A Course in Miracles has sold more than a million copies since it was first published 21 years ago However to date students of the Course have been without a specific guide to its three books Concordance fills that gap with a companion reference that alphabetically organizes and cross references virtually every aspect of A Course in Miracles A Course in Miracles Concordance Barbara Findeisen,1990-01-01 Understanding a Course in Miracles D. Patrick Miller,2011-11-23 This comprehensive introduction to the grassroots phenomenon A Course in Miracles covers the book's role in America's changing spiritual landscape investigates its origins and history and explains its principal tenets and philosophies Weaving together extensive research and student perspectives journalist D Patrick Miller sheds light on the provocative and oft misunderstood text An examination of the teachings and influence of A Course in Miracles one of the most popular and controversial texts in contemporary spirituality With a new foreword by Iyanla Vanzant Covers common questions such as What exactly is the Course Is it Christian Buddhist New Age or something else entirely How did the author channel the message More than two million copies of A Course in Miracles available worldwide in 19 languages with thousands of study groups devoted to it From the Trade Paperback edition Revelatory Events Ann Taves,2016-11-08 A leading scholar sheds critical light on the seemingly revelatory events behind new religions and spiritual movements Unseen presences Apparitions Hearing voices Although some people would find such experiences to be distressing and seek clinical help others perceive them as transformative Occasionally these unusual phenomena give rise to new spiritual paths or religious movements Revelatory Events provides fresh insights into what is perhaps the bedrock of all religious belief the claim that otherworldly powers are active in human affairs Ann Taves looks at Mormonism Alcoholics Anonymous and A Course in Miracles three cases in which insiders claimed that a spiritual presence guided the emergence of a new spiritual path In the 1820s Joseph Smith Jr reportedly translated the Book of Mormon from ancient gold plates unearthed with the help of an angel Bill Wilson cofounded AA after having an ecstatic experience while hospitalized for alcoholism in 1934 Helen Schucman scribed the words of an inner voice that she attributed to Jesus which formed the basis of her 1976 best selling self study course In each case Taves argues the sense of a guiding presence emerged through a complex creative interaction between a founding figure with unusual mental abilities and an initial set of collaborators who were drawn into the process by diverse motives of their own A major work of scholarship this compelling and accessible book traces the very human processes behind such events A Course in Miracles Barbara Findeisen,Foundation for Inner Peace,1983 Routledge Library Editions: Spiritualism Various,2022-07-30 The volumes in this set originally published between 1974 and 1992 draw together research by leading academics in spiritualism and provide a rigorous examination of related key issues The collection examines spirituality from a broad range of disciplines from the spirituality in the Christian church spirituality in Africa and Afro American religions as well as examining the areas of channeling mediumship and spirit possession In this 3 volume set there are two incredibly unique and insightful bibliographic source collections examining both primary and secondary source listings across the subject of spiritualism and one volume providing field research into spirituality in the Christian church and in the occult This collection is an incredibly useful tool for researchers examining the broad area of spiritualism and will be of interest to researchers academics and students of anthropology religion and sociology Claiming Knowledge Olav

Hammer,2003-11-01 This volume deals with the transformation of religious creativity in the late modern West Its point of departure is a set of esoteric beliefs from Theosophy to the New Age It shows how these traditions have adapted to the cultural givens of each successive epoch The claims of each movement have been buttressed by drawing on various structural characteristics of late modernity The advance of science has resulted in attempts to claim scientific status for religious beliefs Globalization has given rise to massive loans from other cultures but also to various strategies to radically reinterpret foreign elements Individualism has led to an increasing reliance on experience as a source of legitimacy The analytical tools applied to understanding religious modernization shed light on changes that are fundamentally reshaping many religious traditions This publication has also been published in hardback please click here for details Cumulative
