Conditionality as Bargaining Process Paul Mosley, IDPM., 1987 The New Sovereignty Abram Chayes, Antonia Handler Chayes, 2009-07-01 States resort to regulatory agreements to address problems as disparate as nuclear proliferation international trade species destruction and intellectual property while threatening military or economic sanctions in order to deter noncompliance This book argues that this approach is misconceived and proposes a new model of treaty compliance

Conditionality as Bargaining Process Paul Mosley, 1987 Negotiating Structural Adjustment in Africa Hilary Hodgson, United Nations Development Programme, 1994 Essential reading for those involved in implementing adjustment programmes the findings of this UNDP commissioned research set out to analyse experiences and provide a set of development objectives Insufficient attention has been paid in the programmes to the links between macroeconomic policy changes and microeconomic behaviour which has had a negative impact on investment and activity BR In association with UNDP FSG and QEH The Politics of Economic Adjustment Stephan Haggard, Robert R. Kaufman, 2018-06-05 In the 1980s some developing countries adopted orthodox market oriented policies in response to international economic crises others experimented with alternative programs and still others failed to develop coherent adjustment strategies of any sort Building on the case studies in Economic Crisis and Policy Choice these essays offer comparative analysis of these divergent experiences with macroeconomic stabilization and structural adjustment Barbara Stallings and Miles Kahler explore the external pressures on governments Peter Evans and John Waterbury examine the role of the state in the adjustment process Evans through the lens of earlier historical experience with economic restructuring Waterbury by focusing on the politics of privatization Joan Nelson analyzes the politics of income distribution in the adjustment process and Haggard and Kaufman investigate the political correlates of inflation and stabilization A final essay assesses the prospects for combining market oriented reforms with political democratization Land Reform and Structural Adjustment in Sub-Saharan Africa Jean-Philippe Platteau, 1992-01-01 Structural Adjustment and Household Welfare in Rural Areas Raghav Gaiha, 1991-01-01 Stabilization and Structural Adjustment Finn Tarp, 2002-09-11 This book reveals and examines the relevance of the macroeconomic theory and models behind recommendations for stabilization and structural adjustment Alternative analytical approaches are discussed This is done on the basis of an up to date review of developments in sub saharan Africa during the 1980 s and within a common analytical framework Conditionality as Bargaining Process Arminio Fraga, Paul Mosley, R. S. Masera, 1986 Development Centre Studies Policy Ownership and Aid Conditionality in the Light of the Financial Crisis A Critical Review OECD, 2009-08-26 This study evaluates controversies that persist with respect to aid conditionality how successful donors have been in stemming aid conditionality and how the financial crisis has made it difficult to maintain traditional conditionality frameworks Consequences of Structural Adjustment Elsie LeFranc, 1994 Evaluating Development Assistance Lodewijk Berlage, Olav

Programs? David Dollar,Jakob Svensson,1998 Institutional Changes in Agricultural Product and Input Markets and Their Impact on Agricultural Performance A. M. Thompson,1991-01-01 Lending Credibility Randall W. Stone,2012-01-06

With the end of the Cold War the International Monetary Fund emerged as the most powerful international institution in history But how much influence can the IMF exert over fiercely contested issues in domestic politics that affect the lives of millions In Lending Credibility Randall Stone develops the first systematic approach to answering this question Deploying an arsenal of methods from a range of social sciences rarely combined he mounts a forceful challenge to conventional wisdom Focusing on the former Soviet bloc Stone finds that the IMF is neither as powerful as some critics fear nor as weak as others believe but that the answer hinges on the complex factor of how much credibility it can muster from country to country Stone begins by building a formal game theoretic model of lending credibility which he then subjects to sophisticated quantitative testing on original data from twenty six countries over the 1990s Next come detailed interview based case studies on negotiations between the IMF and Russia Ukraine Poland and Bulgaria Stone asserts that the IMF has exerted startling influence over economic policy in smaller countries such as Poland and Bulgaria However where U S foreign policy interests come more heavily into play as in Russia the IMF cannot credibly commit to enforcing the loans for policy contract This erodes its ability to facilitate enduring market reforms Stone s context is the postcommunist transition in Europe and Asia but his findings carry implications for IMF activities the world over Analyzing the Distributional Impact of Reforms: A practitioner's guide to trade, monetary and exchange rate policy, utility provision, agricultural markets, land policy, and education World Bank,2005 This publication is a practitioner s guide for analyzing the distributional impact of reforms to trade monetary and exchange rate policy utility provision agricultural markets land policy and education These six areas of policy reform are the ones most likely to have an impact on distribution and poverty Such analysis helps in policy formulation and development and for implementing poverty reduction strategies in developing countries Each chapter in this volume provides an overview and guidance on the specific issues arising in the analysis of the distributional impacts of policy and institutional reforms in selected sectors Women and Adjustment Policies in the Third World Haleh Afshar,Carolyne

Dennis,2016-07-27 The Third World debt crisis the International Monetary Fund and World Bank s adjustment policies have compelled many countries to move towards a contraction of public sector expenditure in favour of market orientated development policies Women in general and the poorest amongst them in particular have borne a disproportionate burden of the ensuing hardships This book addresses the shortcomings in the current gender blind analytical frameworks of governments and financial organisations and offers alternative strategies for combating recession and poverty Africa's Recovery in the 1990s Thandika Mkandawire,Rolph Van der Hoeven,2016-07-27 While the design of adjustment policies in the latter part of the 1980s has generally shown greater attention to their impact on growth and social implications this book argues that several orthodox adjustment policies are still incongruent with long term development in Africa It goes on to discuss a development strategy which could lead to a much awaited economic recovery and improvement in social conditions in Africa in the 1990s drawing its conclusions from a general theoretical discussion and national case studies
