Conditions Handsome And Unhandsome The Constitution Of Emersonian Perfectionism:

Conditions Handsome and Unhandsome: The Constitution of Emersonian Perfectionism Stanley Cavell, 1990 In these three lectures Cavell situates Emerson at an intersection of three crossroads a place where both philosophy and literature pass where the two traditions of English and German philosophy shun one another where the cultures of America and Europe unsettle one another Cavell's readings of Wittgenstein and Heidegger and Emerson and other thinkers surely deepen our understanding of them but they do much more they offer a vision of what life can be and what culture can mean These profound lectures are a wonderful place to make Cavell's acquaintance Hilary Putnam

Conditions Handsome and Unhandsome Stanley Cavell, 1990 In these lectures Stanley Cavell situates Emerson at an intersection of three crossroads a place where both philosophy and literature pass where the two traditions of English and German philosophy shun one another where the cultures of America and Europe unsettle one another Cavell, Williams and the Question of Style in Philosophy Paolo Babbiotti, 2024-10-07 This book considers the work of two philosophers situated within the anglo american analytical tradition Stanley Cavell 1926 2018 and Bernard Williams 1929 2003 It examines the literary strategies that these stylistically aware authors employ and also the ethical demand which guides their philosophies and gives substance to their philosophical styles The book thereby aims to demonstrate the importance of style in philosophy and suggest some of the intellectual dynamics a philosopher's conscious awareness of style can create A Political Companion to Ralph Waldo Emerson Alan M. Levine, Daniel S. Malachuk, 2011-09-16 From before the Civil War until his death in 1882 Ralph Waldo Emerson was renowned and renounced as one of the United States most prominent abolitionists and as a leading visionary of the nation's liberal democratic future Following his death however both Emerson's political activism and his political thought faded from public memory replaced by the myth of the genteel man of letters and the detached sage of individualism In the 1990s scholars rediscovered Emerson's antislavery writings and began reviving his legacy as a political activist A Political Companion to Ralph Waldo Emerson is the first collection to evaluate Emerson's political thought in light of his recently rediscovered political activism What were Emerson's politics A Political Companion to Ralph Waldo Emerson authoritatively answers this question with seminal essays by some of the most prominent thinkers ever to write about Emerson Stanley Cavell George Kateb Judith N Shklar and Wilson Carey McWilliams as well as many of today's leading Emerson scholars With an introduction that effectively destroys the pernicious myth about Emerson's apolitical individualism by editors Alan M Levine and Daniel S Malachuk this volume reassesses Emerson's famous theory of self reliance in light of his antislavery politics demonstrates the importance of transcendentalism to his politics and explores the enduring significance of his thought for liberal democracy Including a substantial bibliography of work on Emerson's politics over the last century A Political Companion to Ralph Waldo Emerson is an indispensable resource for students of Emerson American literature and American political thought as well as for those who wrestle with the fundamental challenges of democracy and

liberalism The Art of Translation in Seamus Heaney's Poetry Edward T. Duffy, 2024-03-13 The Art of Translation in Seamus Heaney's Poetry is a critical study of the poet's later work While exploring his practice as a translator it also traces his increasing preoccupation with the possibilities and conditions of translation in the theological sense of being lifted up in spirit To the work of this philosophical poet who would be both earthed and heady this book brings the insights of ordinary language philosophy as practiced by Stanley Cavell It devotes separate chapters to Station Island and three later collections Seeing Things Electric Light and Human Chain The first of these addresses the most fundamental change in Heaney's life when he acknowledges the need and chance to re-envision his Irish Catholic upbringing it is also replete with both the activity and the trope of translation Published seven years later Seeing Things begins with a translation of Virgil's golden bough episode and ends with a similar crossing over into the underworld by Dante Heaney transforms both into poems about poetry In Electric Light Heaney returns to Virgil but now he concentrates not on the hero of the Aeneid but on Virgil's earlier efforts in pastoral a mode of writing that Heaney takes as a model for his own time and place of devastated order Heaney returns to the Aeneid in Human Chain but this time around he gives all his attention to the scene of the human souls in Elysium seeking rebirth and turns it into an image for the need and chance of pronouncing a final Yes to our world and our place in it New Morning Arthur S. Lothstein, Michael Brodrick, 2008-08-21 Essays and poems explore the contemporary relevance of Emerson's work and thought Constitutional Limits and the Public Sphere Oren Ben-Dor, 2000-10-21 Ben Dor law U of Southampton developed this book concerning critical constitutionalism from his doctoral thesis at University College London In it he interprets unpublished and recently published texts by Jeremy Bentham 1748-1832 first reconstructing the most general argument about Bentham's legal and political thought as a founder of utilitarianism and then analyzing Bentham's work within the context of contemporary debates in legal and political philosophy He concludes that the technical and reductionist methodology associated with utilitarianism don't do justice to the theory which identifies the maximization of pleasure as the most fundamental self-interest guiding people Distributed by ISBS c Book News Inc

American Metempsychosis John Michael Corrigan, 2012 American Metempsychosis explores the ancient concept of metempsychosis as a precursor to the idea of history In the writings of Ralph Waldo Emerson and Walt Whitman metempsychosis serves as a form of American self-knowing the effort to reshape identity through a self's heightened awareness of its own cognitive succession On Leaving Branka Arsić, 2010-04-15 Arsi unpacks Ralph Waldo Emerson's repeated assertion that our reality and our minds are in constant flux Her readings of a broad range of Emerson's writings are guided by a central question what does it really mean to maintain that everything fluctuates is relational and so changes its identity Identity and Society in American Poetry Robin Mookerjee, 2008 Emerson's Ethics Gustaaf Van Cromphout, 1999 Critical Environments Cary Wolfe, 1998 Unique in its collation of major theorists rarely considered together Critical Environments incorporates detailed discussions of the work of Richard Rorty Walter Benn Michaels Stanley

Cavell Humberto Maturana Francisco Varela Niklas Luhmann Donna Haraway Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Fredric Jameson and others and ranges across fields from feminist philosophy of science to the theory of ideology Offering American readers a comprehensive introduction to systems theory and responding to the widespread charge of relativism leveled against it Wolfe's work will enhance and inspire new kinds of critical thought

Crisis of Authority Nancy Luxon, 2013 Contemporary social and political theory has reached an impasse about a problem that had once seemed straightforward how can individuals make ethical judgments about power and politics Crisis of Authority analyzes the practices that bind authority trust and truthfulness in contemporary theory and politics Drawing on newly available archival materials Nancy Luxon locates two models for such practices in Sigmund Freud's writings on psychoanalytic technique and Michel Foucault's unpublished lectures on the ancient ethical practices of fearless speech or parrhesia Luxon argues that the dynamics provoked by the figures of psychoanalyst and truth teller are central to this process Her account offers a more supple understanding of the modern ethical subject and new insights into political authority and authorship

Literature and the Political Imagination Andrea T. Baumeister, John Horton, 2013-04-15 This volume shows how modern political theory can be enriched through an engagement with works of literature It uses the resources of literature to explore issues such as nationalism liberal philosophy utopianism narrative and the role of theory in political thought A variety of approaches are adopted and the aim is to show some of the many and diverse ways in which literature may enrich political theorising as well as considering some of the problems to which this may give rise The theorists discussed include Richard Rorty Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor and Martha Nussbaum There are literary references from Greek tragedy Jonathan Swift Brian Moore Elizabeth Bowen and contemporary feminist utopian fiction All the contributors have a long standing interest in the relations between literature and moral and political thought They are concerned not to be restricted by conventional academic boundaries and are not united by any party line or uniformity of intellectual commitments This volume will be of great interest to all students engaged in the study of politics and literature

Philosophy's Artful Conversation D. N. Rodowick, 2015-01-05 Theory has been an embattled discourse in the academy for decades But now it faces a serious challenge from those who want to model the analytical methods of all scholarly disciplines on the natural sciences What is urgently needed says D N Rodowick is a revitalized concept of theory that can assess the limits of scientific explanation and defend the unique character of humanistic understanding Philosophy's Artful Conversation is a timely and searching examination of theory's role in the arts and humanities today Expanding the insights of his earlier book Elegy for Theory and drawing on the diverse thought of Ludwig Wittgenstein G H von Wright P M S Hacker Richard Rorty and Charles Taylor Rodowick provides a blueprint of what he calls a philosophy of the humanities In a surprising and illuminating turn he views the historical emergence of theory through the lens of film theory arguing that aesthetics literary studies and cinema studies cannot be separated where questions of theory are concerned These discourses comprise a conceptual whole providing an overarching model of critique that resembles in embryonic form what a new philosophy of the humanities might look like Rodowick offers original readings of Gilles Deleuze and Stanley Cavell bringing forward unexamined points of contact between two thinkers who associate philosophical expression with film and the arts A major contribution to cross disciplinary intellectual history Philosophy's Artful Conversation reveals the many threads connecting the arts and humanities with the history of philosophy

Melancholic Freedom David Kyuman Kim, 2007-06-25 Why does agency the capacity to make choices and to act in the world matter to us Why is it meaningful that our intentions have effects in the world that they reflect our sense of identity that they embody what we value What kinds of motivations are available for political agency and judgment in an age that lacks the enthusiasm associated with the great emancipatory movements for civil rights and gender equality What are the conditions for the possibility of being an effective agent when the meaning of democracy has become less transparent David Kyuman Kim addresses these crucial questions by uncovering the political moral philosophical and religious dimensions of human agency Kim treats agency as a form of religious experience that reflects implicit and explicit notions of the good Of particular concern are the moral political and religious motivations that underpin an understanding of agency as meaningful action Through a critical engagement with the work of theorists such as Judith Butler Charles Taylor and Stanley Cavell Kim argues that late modern and postmodern agency is found most effectively at work in what he calls projects of regenerating agency or critical and strategic responses to loss Agency as melancholic freedom begins and endures Kim maintains through the moral and psychic losses associated with a broad range of experiences including the moral identities shaped by secularized modernity and the multifold forms of alienation experienced by those who suffer the indignities of racial gender class and sexuality discrimination and oppression Kim calls for renewing the sense of urgency in our political and moral engagements by seeing agency as a vocation where the aspiration for self transformation and the human need for hope are fundamental concerns

The American Classics Denis Donoghue, 2008-10-01 How is a classic book to be defined How much time must elapse before a work may be judged a classic And among all the works of American literature which deserve the designation In this provocative new book Denis Donoghue essays to answer these questions He presents his own short list of relative classics works whose appeal may not be universal but which nonetheless have occupied an important place in our culture for more than a century These books have survived the abuses of time neglect contempt indifference willful readings excesses of praise and hyperbole Donoghue bestows the term classic on just five American works Melville's Moby Dick Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter Thoreau's Walden Whitman's Leaves of Grass and Twain's Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Examining each in a separate chapter he discusses how the writings have been received and interpreted and he offers his own contemporary readings suggesting for example that in the post 9/11 era Moby Dick may be rewardingly read as a revenge tragedy Donoghue extends an irresistible invitation to open the pages of these American classics again demonstrating with wit and acuity how very much they have to say to us now

Animal Rites Cary

Wolfe,2003-02 Now that supposedly distinguishing marks of humanity from reasoning to tool use have been found in other species how can we justify discriminating against nonhuman animals on the basis of their species Wolfe examines contemporary notions of humanism ethics and animal rights

Religion Hent de Vries,2008 What do we talk about when we talk about religion Is it an array of empirical facts about historical human civilizations Or is religion what is in essence unpredictable perhaps the very emergence of the new In what ways are the legacies of religion its powers words things and gestures reconfiguring themselves as the elementary forms of life in the twenty first century Given the Latin roots of the word religion and its historical Christian uses what sense if any does it make to talk about religion in other traditions Where might we look for common elements that would enable us to do so Has religion as an overarching concept lost all its currency or does it ineluctably return sometimes in unexpected ways the moment we attempt to do without it This book explores the difficulties and double binds that arise when we ask What is religion Offering a marvelously rich and diverse array of perspectives it begins the task of rethinking religion and religious studies in a contemporary world Opening essays on the question What is religion are followed by clusters exploring the relationships among religion theology and philosophy and the links between religion politics and law Pedagogy is the focus of the following section Religion is then examined in particular contexts from classical times to the present Pentecostal revival leading into an especially rich set of essays on religion materiality and mediatization The final section grapples with the ever changing forms that religion is taking such as spirituality movements and responses to the ecological crisis Featuring the work of leading scholars from a wide array of disciplines traditions and cultures Religion Beyond a Concept will help set the agenda for religious studies for years to come It is the first of five volumes in a collection entitled The Future of the Religious Past the fruit of a major international research initiative funded by the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research

The Emerson Dilemma T. Gregory Garvey,2001-01-01 This gathering of eleven original essays with a substantive introduction brings the traditional image of Emerson the Transcendentalist face to face with an emerging image of Emerson the reformer The Emerson Dilemma highlights the conflict between Emerson s philosophical attraction to solitary contemplation and the demands of activism compelled by the logic of his own writings The essays cover Emerson s reform thought and activism from his early career as a Unitarian minister through his reaction to the Civil War In addition to Emerson s antislavery position the collection covers his complex relationship to the early women s rights movement and American Indian removal Individual essays also compare Emerson s reform ethics with those of his wife Lidian Jackson Emerson his aunt Mary Moody Henry David Thoreau John Brown and Margaret Fuller The Emerson who emerges from this volume is one whose Transcendentalism is explicitly politicized thus we see him consciously mediating between the opposing forces of the world he thought and the world in which he lived
