The Bounder - The Riotous True-Life Adventures of a Bon Vivant Mike Daunt,2016-04-07 This merry memoir tells how the author has lurches through a life full of friendship laughter and bad behavior. He has bonded with some of the most famous names in show business drinking with Lee Marvin lunching with Richard Burton and a couple of ferrets fishing with Chris Tarrant and Eric Clapton and laughing with Ronnie Corbett. Here too is the story of his great love for a famous actress and the joy and pleasure they had together as well as the sadness of their eventual parting. Somehow the author also ran a highly successful fish and game business in London employing a team of handsome public school boys to deliver the goods to the dining rooms. In the course of his extraordinary life the author has slept in the longhouses of Borneo with head hunters and guarded Hitler's deputy Rudolf Hess in Berlin's Spandau Prison. He has caught salmon in Russia's bleak Kola Peninsula Russia marlin off the coast of Kenya bone fish in the Bahamas and hunted rats with as amusing and bibulous a cast of reprobates as one could meet. By turns funny outrageous and poignant this is at once a picaresque rogue's memoir a salute to the independent life well lived and a celebration of a certain type of character who is nowadays all too rare.
