Confessions of the Critics H. Aram Veaser,2014-05-01 The Confessions of the Critics shatters a certain silence Autobiographical criticism has until now skated relatively free from the challenges that usually assail a new literary critical method It has had this immunity from critique largely because feminists and third world liberation fighters such as Alice Walker Adrienne Rich and Jane Gallop ushered it to the North American academic stage Other women and men including Rigoberta Menchu Nawal al Sadawi Mahasweta Devi and Malcolm X wrote in the tradition and genre of testimonio These and other unimpeachably militant backgrounds gave confessional criticism a certain cache among the largely liberal community of literary scholars We have hesitated to express misgivings about a form that seemed intrinsically tied to the most vital powerful strivings Telling stories about one's own past is probably our culture's richest way of characterizing the effects of social injustice and developing what it takes to resist various kinds of victimage writes contributor Charles Altieri Confessions of the Critics provides a revealing look into the thoughts and experiences of some of the most influential and important critics of the 20th century The writers included avoid pretention and gross self misrepresentation giving way to raw sometimes embarrassing always wholly believable emotion Describing cumulative literary shocks and episodes of self recognition contributors offer insights to their ruling passions and works Powerful sensations emotions recognitions and revelations make up the heart of Confessions of the Critics It is a book that none will put aside or easily forget Contributors Charles Altieri William Andrews Michael F Berube Timothy Brennan Gillian Brown Cathy Davidson Elizabeth Fox Genovese Diane Freedman Marjorie Garber Gerald Graff Stephen J Greenblatt Michael Hill Marianne Hirsch Alice Yeager Kaplan Amitava Kumar Candace Lang Louis Menand Judith Lowder Newton Linda Orr Vincent Pecora David Simpson Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Madelon Sprengnether Jane Tompkins Marianna Torgovnick H Aram Veaser Jeffrey Williams Elizabeth Young Bruehl

Criticism and Confession Nicholas Hardy,2017 The period between the late Renaissance and the early Enlightenment has long been regarded as the zenith of the republic of letters a pan European community of like minded scholars and intellectuals who fostered critical approaches to the study of the Bible and other ancient texts while renouncing the brutal religio political disputes that were tearing their continent apart at the same time Criticism and Confession offers an unprecedentedly comprehensive challenge to this account Throughout this period all forms of biblical scholarship were intended to contribute to theological debates rather than defusing or transcending them and meaningful collaboration between scholars of different confessions was an exception rather than the norm Neutrality was a fiction that obscured the ways in which scholarship served the interests of ecclesiastical and political institutions Scholarly practices varied from one confessional context to another and the progress of criticism was never straightforward The study demonstrates this by placing scholarly works in dialogue with works of dogmatic theology and comparing examples from multiple confessional and national contexts It offers major revisionist treatments of canonical figures in the history of scholarship such as Joseph Scaliger Isaac Casaubon John Selden Hugo Grotius and Louis Cappel based on unstudied archival as well as printed sources and it places those figures alongside their more marginal overlooked counterparts It also contextualizes scholarly correspondence and other forms of intellectual exchange by considering them alongside the records of political and ecclesiastical bodies Throughout the study combines the methods of the history of scholarship with techniques drawn from other fields including literary political and religious history As well as presenting a new history of seventeenth century biblical criticism it also critiques modern scholarly assumptions about the relationships between erudition humanistic culture political activism and religious identity Confessions and Police Detention United States. Confessions Now Abdulhamit Arvas, Afrodesia McCannon, Kris Trujillo, 2023-01-09 This book is based on the postmedieval journal special issue Critical Confessions Now These chapters on confessions exhibit great diversity and take up different disciplinary approaches by scholars who stand at various stages of their careers They address not only different time periods but also various linguistic and cultural contexts Contributors deploy a wide array of methods critical approaches and narrative voices and contributors assumed the confessional voice with a whole host of affective responses from enthusiasm to cautious hesitation to outright discomfort Previously published in postmedieval Volume 11 issue 2 3 August 2020 FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin , 2002 Criticism and Fiction William Dean Howells, 2021-04-25 In Criticism and Fiction William Dean Howells masterfully examines the interplay between literature and its critical evaluation highlighting the importance of realism in the portrayal of social issues Addressing a contemporary audience Howells employs a conversational yet incisive literary style beckoning readers to engage with the nuances of fiction through a realist lens The book is structured around essays that explore the evolution of literary criticism the role of the author and the moral responsibilities of fiction all grounded in the context of late 19th century American literary tradition where realism emerged as a counterpoint to romanticism William Dean Howells often referred to as the Dean of American Letters was a significant figure in American literature and criticism His experiences as a novelist playwright and editor along with his deep engagement with the cultural and social fabric of his time informed his perspectives on fiction and the art of criticism Howells commitment to realism reflects his desire to represent the complexities of American life influenced by his friendships with luminaries such as Mark Twain and Henry James For readers seeking a profound understanding of the relationship between fiction and criticism Howells Criticism and Fiction provides invaluable insights Its examination of realism not only enriches literary appreciation but also encourages critical reflection on how literature shapes and mirrors societal values This book is essential for scholars students and lovers of literature eager to explore the depths of artistic responsibility and the transformative power of fiction

Augustine and His Critics Robert Dodaro, George Lawless, 2005-07-28 Examines the arguments of present day critics of Augustine and argues in favour of some of the much neglected historical philosophical and theological perspectives which lie behind Augustine s most unpopular convictions

Convenient Criticism Dan Chen, 2020-10-01 Why and how does critical reporting persist at the local level in China despite state media control a hallmark of authoritarian rule Synthesizing ethnographic observation interviews survey and content analysis data Convenient Criticism reveals evolving dynamics in local governance and the state media relationship Local critical reporting though limited in scope occurs because local leaders motivated by political career advancement use media criticism strategically to increase bureaucratic control address citizen grievances and improve governance This new approach to governance enables the shaping of public opinion while at the same time disciplining subordinate bureaucrats In this way the party state not only monopolizes propaganda but also expropriates criticism which expands the notion of media control from the suppression of journalism to its manipulation One positive consequence of these practices has been to invigorate television journalists unique brand of advocacy journalism

The Ascetic Imperative in Culture and Criticism Geoffrey Galt Harpham, 2011-01-15 In this bold interdisciplinary work Geoffrey Galt Harpham argues that asceticism has played a major role in shaping Western ideas of the body writing ethics and aesthetics He suggests that we consider the ascetic as the cultural element in culture and presents a close analysis of works by Athanasius Augustine Matthias Gr newald Nietzsche Foucault and other thinkers as proof of the extent of asceticism s resources Harpham demonstrates the usefulness of his findings by deriving from asceticism a discourse of resistance a code of interpretation ultimately more generous and humane than those currently available to us

Tropes of Politics John S. Nelson,1998-05-18 In this volume the author aims to apply rhetorical analysis first to political theory and then to politics in practice He offers an examination of political science and political theory as fields of study and undertakes a series of creative examinations of political rhetoric Twentieth-century Literary Criticism Gale Research Company,2005 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights and other creative writers 1900 1960

Baptist Theology James Leo Garrett,2009 This title offers a comprehensive analysis of Baptist theology Embracing in one common trajectory the major Baptist confessions of faith the major Baptist theologians and the principal Baptist theological movements and controversies this book spans four centuries of Baptist doctrinal history Acknowledging first the pre 1609 roots patristic medieval and Reformational of Baptist theology it examines the Arminian versus Calvinist issues that were first expressed by the General Baptists and the Particular Baptists that dominated English and American Baptist theology during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries from Helwys and Smyth and from Bunyan and Kiffin to Gill Fuller Backus and Boyce and that were quickened by the awakenings and the missionary movement Concurrently there were the Baptist defense of the Baptist distinctives vis a vis the pedobaptist world and the unfolding of a strong Baptist confessional tradition Then during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the liberal versus evangelical issues became dominant with Hovey Strong Rauschenbusch and Henry in the North and Mullins Conner Hobbs and Criswell in the South even as a distinctive Baptist Landmarkism developed the discipline of biblical theology was practiced and a structured ecumenism was pursued Missiology both impacted Baptist theology and took it to all the continents where it became increasingly indigenous Conscious that Baptists belong to the free churches and to the believers churches a new generation of Baptist theologians at the advent of the twenty first century appears somewhat more Calvinist than Arminian and decidedly more evangelical than liberal

Hearings United States. Congress Senate,1958 The Anti-Jacobin Review and Magazine Or Monthly Political and Literary Censor ,1809 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1893 The Purge of the Inner Mongolian People's Party in the Chinese Cultural Revolution, 1967-69 Kerry Brown,2021-11-29 During the Chinese

Cultural Revolution from 1967 to 1969 some 16 000 Mongolians died and over a quarter of a million suffered injury during the purge of what was claimed to be a separatist party in the Inner Mongolian region This study looks at the purge through an analysis of the voices found in contemporary documents those of Red Guard groups local leaders felled during the campaign and the new leaders put in place by the central government in Beijing At the heart of this was the struggle for domination by a central government asserting national unity opposed to any expression of local particularities in Inner Mongolia The author examines the discourse strategies by which central government attempted to impose total control asserting a dominant ideology and narrative based on Marxism Leninism The volume offers a unique insight into the relationship between language and culture of political power in modern China at a time of crisis and violence
