, Routledge Handbook on Cooperation, Interdependencies and Security in the Mediterranean Elena Calandri, Karolina Golemo, Jesús Ventura-Fernández, 2024-11-29 This Handbook provides an essential overview of the contemporary dynamics of the Mediterranean region Conceptualising the Mediterranean as both a socio cultural area and a geopolitical entity it considers the basin both as a whole and as a set of interacting subregions Established scholars offer new perspectives and approaches from international history postcolonial studies migration studies geography private international law and public international law environmental and tourism studies to reappraise the long term trends and ruptures that shape security interdependence and cooperation These contributions explain the Mediterranean's long established role as a crossroads and demonstrate the political economic ecological and cultural meanings of security The book shows how interdependence in economic environmental cultural and human sectors continues to bind the Mediterranean together as migration flows across the sea environmental change requires common action legal systems coexist and multifaceted identities growing cultural awareness and human rights remain on the political agenda This volume will be an invaluable resource for graduate students researchers and professionals seeking a comprehensive multidisciplinary approach to the historical political geographic and socio cultural complexities challenges and potential of the area The Works of William Robertson, D.D., Fellow of the Royal Society, and Principal of the University of Edinburgh, Etc. Etc William Robertson, 1824 Vital Crossroads Reynolds Mathewson Salerno, 2002 Most international historians present the outbreak of World War II as the result of an irreconcilable conflict between Great Britain and Germany This ubiquitous Anglo German perspective fails to recognize complex causes and repercussions of international events misappropriates historical responsibilities and overlooks many global and imperial factors of the war's origins Reynolds M Salerno shows that the situation in the Mediterranean played a decisive role in the European drama of the late 1930s and profoundly influenced the manner in which the Second World War unfolded Vital Crossroads is the result of the author's remarkable access to and extensive research in twenty eight archives in five different countries Concentrating on the period from the Mediterranean crisis of 1935 to Italy's declaration of war in June 1940 Salerno demonstrates that the international politics of pre World War II Europe particularly in the Mediterranean can only be understood as the multilateral interaction of British French German and Italian foreign and defense policies Control of the Mediterranean he asserts was a central concern for the European powers in 1935-40 and a fundamental reason why Europe went to war and why the conflict unfolded as it did As a result France and Italy influenced and often determined the nature and direction of Allied and Axis policy to an extent disproportionate to their nations military and economic strength Salerno contends that the Allies' reluctance to take decisive action against Fascist Italy in 1939-40 contributed to the fall of France in 1940 Britain's desperate situation in 1940-41 and the post war collapse of Britain as a world power At a time when the Allied powers dreaded the ability of the German military to march across the European continent they also feared that the Italian
