The Holy Quran is in both Arabic and easy to understand English Language.

The Quran describes itself as a book of guidance for mankind. It sometimes offers detailed accounts of specific historical events and it often emphasizes the moral significance of an event over its narrative sequence.

The Holy Quran, the recitation in Arabic pronunciation, is the central religious text of Islam, believed by Muslims to be a revelation from God Allah. It is widely regarded as the finest work in classical Arabic literature. It is organized in 114 chapters (surahs) which consist of verses (ayat). Muslims believe that the Quran was orally revealed by God to the final prophet Muhammad through the archangel Gabriel (Jibril) incrementally over a period of some 23 years, beginning in the month of Ramadan when Muhammad was 40 and concluding in 632, the year of his death. Muslims regard the Quran as Muhammad's most important miracle, a proof of his prophethood, and the culmination of a series of divine messages starting with those revealed to Adam, including the Tawrah (Torah) and the Zabur (Psalms), and the Injil (Gospel). The word Quran occurs some 70 times in the text itself, and other names and words are also said to refer to the Quran. Someone who has memorized the entire Quran is called a hafiz (memorizer). An ayah (Quranic verse) is sometimes recited with a special kind of elocution reserved for this purpose, called tajwid. During the month of Ramadan, Muslims typically complete the recitation of the whole Quran during tarawih prayers. In order to extrapolate the meaning of a particular Quranic verse, most Muslims rely on exegesis or
