Als Freud das Meer sah Georges-Arthur Goldschmidt, 1999 The Bodily Unconscious in Psychoanalytic Technique Sebastian Leikert, 2024-08-29 The Bodily Unconscious in Psychoanalytic Technique explores how corporeality and body memory can be more strongly integrated into psychoanalytic work This book brings together an international range of contributors to consider the bodily unconscious from different theoretical perspectives Concepts from the work of Freud Bion Winnicott Lacan Laplanche and Fonagy are developed with the aim of incorporating body memory into psychoanalytic technique The contributors consider how severe and complex clinical states dominated by bodily symptoms and disorganization can be approached with methods that go beyond classical interpretation The book includes ten case histories and discussion of key themes including transference and countertransference feelings of corporeality and bodily sensations and features clinical material throughout The Bodily Unconscious in Psychoanalytic Technique will be essential reading for psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists in practice and training particularly those interested in somatic approaches Languages of Modern Jewish Cultures Anita Norich, Joshua L Miller, 2016-04-06 A fascinating discussion of Jewish multiculturalism through the range of Jewish lingualisms cultures and history German Philosophy in English Translation Spencer Hawkins, 2023-06-16 This book traces the translation history of twentieth century German philosophy into English with significant layovers in Paris and proposes an innovative approach to long standing difficulties in its translation German philosophy s reputation for profundity is often understood to lie in German s polysemous vocabulary which is notoriously difficult to translate even into its close relative English Hawkins shows the merit in a strategy of differential translation which involves translating conceptually dense German terms with multiple different terms in the target text rather than the conventional standard of selecting one term in English for consistent translation German Philosophy in English Translation explores how debates around this strategy have polarized both the French language and English language translation landscapes Well known translators and commissioners such as Jean Beaufret Adam Phillips and Joan Stambaugh come out boldly in favor and others such as Jean Laplanche and Terry Pinkard polemically against it Drawing on Hans Blumenberg s work on metaphor German Philosophy in English Translation questions prevalent norms around the translation of terminology that obscure the metaphoric dimension of German philosophical vocabulary This book is a crucial reference for translators and researchers interested in the German language and particularly for scholars in translation studies philosophy and intellectual history German Memory Contests Anne Fuchs, Mary Cosgrove, Georg Grote, 2006 Since unification in 1990 Germany has seen a boom in the confrontation with memory evident in a sharp increase in novels films autobiographies and other forms of public discourse that engage with the long term effects of National Socialism across generations Taking issue with the concept of Vergangenheitsbew ltigung or coming to terms with the Nazi past which after 1945 guided nearly all debate on the topic the contributors to this volume view contemporary German culture through the more dynamic concept of memory contests which sees all forms of memory public or private as ongoing processes of negotiating identity in the present Touching on gender generations memory and postmemory trauma theory ethnicity historiography and family narrative the contributions offer a comprehensive picture of current German memory debates in so doing shedding light on the struggle to construct a German identity mindful of but not wholly defined by the horrors of National Socialism and the Holocaust Contributors Peter Fritzsche Anne Fuchs Elizabeth Boa Stefan Willer Chloe E M Paver Matthias Fiedler J J Long Dagmar C G Lorenz Cathy S Gelbin Jennifer E Michaels Mary Cosgrove Andrew Plowman Roger Woods Anne Fuchs is Professor of modern German literature and Georg Grote is Lecturer in German history both at University College Dublin Mary Cosgrove is Lecturer in German at the University of Edinburgh Jenseits von Frisch und Dürrenmatt Dariusz Komorowski,2009 Frank Wedekind Freiburger Literaturpsychologische Gespräche Jahrbuch für Literatur und Psychoanalyse Bd. 20 € 30,00 / Sfr 52,70 Ortrud Gutjahr,2001
