The Prism of the Self S.G. Crowell, 2013-03-09 This volume contains 50 essays written by his students and colleagues in honor of Maurice Natanson The essays explore some of the diverse themes Professor Natanson has pursued through forty years of teaching and philosophizing in the tradition of existential phenomenology Because it also includes a lengthy biographical and philosophical interview where one can find an absorbing account of Natanson's Lebens au in his own words there is no need to detail that polypragmatic career here Suffice to say that even passing acquaintance with the man and the work will reveal that Edmund Husserl's self description holds equally of his distinguished interpreter I seek not to instruct but only to lead to point out and describe what I see I claim no other right than that of speaking according to my best lights principally before myself but in the same manner also before others as one who has lived in all its seriousness the fate of a philosophical existence I For Natanson as the diversity of the contributions to this volume attest such seriousness involves something other than that narrow technical vision for which a topic is the more philosophical the less it has to do with anything else In Natanson's pages to say nothing of his teaching and conversation there are no men of straw but living breathing human beings with hirm philosophy's tentacles are ubiquitous

Adams,Patricia B. Sutker,2007-05-08 The purpose of this handbook originally published in 1984 was to provide a comprehensive review of current clinical descriptions research and theories of psychopathology Descriptive psychopathology is a field that forms the foundation of clinical practice and research in clinical psychology psychiatry psychiatric social work psychiatric nursing and allied professions in mental health Since the 1st edition the editors have devised and updated a handbook to cover both general and specific topics in psychopathology that would be useful to researchers practitioners and graduate or other advanced students in the mental health and behavioral medicine professions To implement this plan we have very carefully chosen colleagues whom we respect for their expertise in particular fields These authors include both clinicians and researchers who have outstanding national reputations as well as more junior behavioral scientists and clinicians who in our opinion will achieve similar recognition in the future The excellent chapters in this book lead us to believe that we have chosen wisely We would like to express our appreciation to these authors for their outstanding contributions and cooperation Community Computing and Support Systems Toru Ishida,2003-05-20 The widespread use of global networks like the Internet and mobile computing have made worldwide computing over virtual communities a reality This is the first book devoted to community computing It is based on the Kyoto Meeting on Social Interaction and Communityware held in Kyoto Japan in June 1998 The 24 revised full papers presented together with an introduction to the emerging field were carefully selected and revised for inclusion in the book The book is divided in parts on models and concepts methodologies for large scale trials sharing knowledge and preferences supporting social interaction and agent technologies in communities Philosophy and Science in Phenomenological Perspective Kah Kyung Cho,1984-10-31 The articles included in this volume originate from contributions to the International Conference on Philosophy and Science in Phenomenological Perspective held in Buffalo in March 1982. The occasion had been to honor the late Professor Marvin Farber, a long time distinguished member of the Department of Philosophy, State University of New York at Buffalo and the Founding Editor of the journal Philosophy and Phenomenological Research. Many of the papers were subsequently rewritten, expanded or otherwise edited to be published in the series Phaenomenologica. The articles by Professor Frings and Professor Rotenstreich had not been presented at the conference although they were originally invited papers. We regret that not all papers submitted to the conference including comments could be accommodated in this volume. Nonetheless, our sincere gratitude is due to all participants who have made the conference a memorable and worthy event. The Department of Philosophy, State University of New York at Buffalo, as the sponsor of the conference, wishes to acknowledge the grants from the Conferences in the Disciplines Program, Conversations in the Disciplines Program, and the International Studies of the State University of New York at Buffalo, as well as for a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. The International Phenomenological Society, with Professor Roderick Chisholm succeeding Marvin Farber as its president, co-sponsored the conference.

The Alter Ego Effect Todd Herman, 2019-02-05. Now a Wall Street Journal bestseller. What if the games we played as children were the greatest gift to helping us achieve more today? Before stage fright, impostor syndrome, emotional baggage, and the other dubious gifts of adulthood, everyone pretended to be a superhero, a favorite athlete, an inspiring entertainer, a nurse, a firefighter, a lion, or whatever else captured our imaginations. And yet that natural creativity is slowly squeezed out of us because we think it's childish or it's time to grow up. Now Todd Herman, backed by scientific research and countless stories from the real world, will show us how to tap into the human imagination to unleash new versions of ourselves, ready-made to kick ass. Herman has been coaching champions in every field for over twenty years, and he's helped them bring out their Heroic Self to transcend the forces pulling them into the Ordinary World. Anyone attempting ambitious things faces adversity, resistance, and challenges, but Herman confronts these obstacles with a question: Who or what needs to show up to make success inevitable? In The Alter Ego Effect, Herman presents countless stories from salespeople, executives, entertainers, athletes, entrepreneurs, creatives, and historical figures to illustrate how to activate the Heroic Self already nested inside each of us. And he reveals that we may not be using those traits in the moments when we need them the most. From the creative entrepreneur who resisted their craft to the accomplished military officer who wanted to be a warmer dad at home, Todd Herman's clients have discovered there is no end to the parts of their lives they could improve by using Alter Egos.

Ego--alter Ego John David Pizer, 1949. AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL LAW CASES Fourth Series 2009 VOLUME 2. Oceana Editorial Board, 2010-12-24. AILC is an annual case law reporter that provides the full text of U.S. court opinions involving international law issues. The courts covered include all U.S. federal district courts, federal appellate courts, and the U.S. Supreme Court, as well as some state courts, the U.S. Court of Claims, the U.S. Court of International Trade, and the U S Tax Court The series seeks to provide not every single case in which a court refers to international law but rather all cases that analyze at least one international law issue in depth The list of subjects addressed by these volumes is vast and changes from year to year with the inclusion and prominence of most topics turning on their prevalence in a given year s jurisprudence Some consistently prominent topics are personal jurisdiction over foreign defendants deportation procedure and double taxation Over the last three editions 2006 2007 and 2008 many topics have developed rapidly and constitute a correspondingly larger portion of the volumes particularly Terrorism the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act Forum Non Conveniens and an entirely new added topic the National Security Exception to deportation eligibility The 2008 edition of AILC also features expanded sections on family law and on the detention of terrorist suspects The U S war on terror and the crisis at Guantanamo have made that last topic a significant and dynamic component of AILC Each edition of AILC also comes framed with two practical resources for students and scholars The first is an introductory editor s note that both reviews international law s major developments for the given year and explains to readers how to use the volumes The second is a subject index to allow for targeted research Volume Two of AILC consists of cases concerning territories trusteeships boundaries and navigable waters covering marine torts and crimes and death on the high seas by wrongful act Also covered are procedural aspects including in personam jurisdiction extraterritoriality and forum selection clauses In Atlantic Sounding Co Inc v Edgar L Townsend the issue was whether an injured seaman may recover punitive damages for his employer s willful failure to pay maintenance and cure The court ruled that punitive damages were available as a matter of general maritime law The issue in Jose Marcial Reyes Fuentes et al v Shannon Produce Farm Inc et al was whether the Fair Labor Standards Act s FLSA provision provides a cause of action to foreign workers located abroad who are denied re hire in retaliation for exercising their rights under the FLSA The court ruled that neither the FLSA nor general extraterritoriality principles stand in the way of the plaintiffs retaliation claim

Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board National Labor Relations Board (U S),2008-10 Each volume of this series contains all the important Decisions and Orders issued by the National Labor Relations Board during a specified time period The entries for each case list the decision order statement of the case findings of fact conclusions of law and remedy
