Notable American Women Barbara Sicherman, Carol Hurd Green, 1980 Modeled on the Dictionary of American Biography this set stands alone but is a good complement to that set which contained only 700 women of 15 000 entries The preparation of the first set of Notable American Women was supported by Radcliffe College It includes women from 1607 to those who died before the end of 1950 only 5 women included were born after 1900 Arranged throughout the volumes alphabetically entries are from 400 to 7 000 words and have bibliographies There is a good introductory essay and a classified list of entries in volume three Household Employment Training; a Suggested Program Development Guide for Administrators Carole A. Jamison, 1971 The lack of adequate numbers of trained household service workers who have the necessary skills to effectively meet the job requirements and the lack of uniform job standards in these occupations relate directly to the lack of status opportunities for advancement and job security for these workers Effective training programs can assist in overcoming these problems It is necessary to establish many more training programs for persons in these occupations to upgrade themselves and for the unemployed to fill the existing and future needs in household service occupations It is essential that administrators and directors of training establish programs incorporating new concepts of recruiting and methods of training workers for household service and related occupations This guide was prepared to assist administrators and directors of training in planning and operating programs to train personnel in general household service occupations and special areas
