Alterities Criticism History Representation:

Alterities Thomas Docherty, 1996 Alterities marks an advance to a new stage of critical theory Dealing with literature from Shakespeare and Donne to Calvino with philosophy from the medieval to the contemporary with cinema from popular to art film and with political theory from Marx to Lyotard Baudrillard and Badiou Thomas Docherty intervenes in all the major contemporary cultural debates to propose and practice a new criticism whose theoretical foundations lie in a postmodern ethics ecopolitics and an austere attention to the radical difficulties of art Bound together by the cohesive drive of Docherty's intelligence and the coerciveness of the arguments he enlarges about alterity and historicity Alterities rehabilitates the question of why we bother about art and proposes new modes of critical engagement with contemporary culture

Alterities Thomas Docherty, 1996 The author of this treatise proposes a new form of literary criticism with theoretical foundations rooted in a postmodern ethics ecopolitics and an austere attention to the radical difficulties of art White Gloves of the Doorman Branko Gorjup, 2004 The Chinese Dreamscape, 300 BCE - 800 CE Robert Ford Campany, 2022-03-07 Dreaming is a near universal human experience but there is no consensus on why we dream or what dreams should be taken to mean In this book Robert Ford Campany investigates what people in late classical and early medieval China thought of dreams He maps a common dreamscape an array of ideas about what dreams are and what responses they should provoke that underlies texts of diverse persuasions and genres over several centuries These writings include manuals of dream interpretation scriptural instructions essays treatises poems recovered manuscripts histories and anecdotes of successful dream based predictions In these many sources we find culturally distinctive answers to questions peoples the world over have asked for millennia What happens when we dream Do dreams foretell future events If so how might their imagistic code be unlocked to yield predictions Could dreams enable direct communication between the living and the dead or between humans and nonhuman animals The Chinese Dreamscape 300 BCE 800 CE sheds light on how people in a distant age negotiated these mysteries and brings Chinese notions of dreaming into conversation with studies of dreams in other cultures ancient and contemporary Taking stock of how Chinese people wrestled with and celebrated the strangeness of dreams Campany asks us to reflect on how we might reconsider our own notions of dreaming Der Wahre Historiker Caitríona Leahy, 2007 Relocating Identities in Latin American Cultures Elizabeth Montes Garcés, 2007 Literature and other forms of cultural expression provide unprecedented insight into perpetually changing notions of Latin American identity in this fascinating collection that explores a wide breadth of genres and topics Relocating Identities in Latin American Cultures explores the perpetually changing notion of Latin American identity particularly as illustrated in literature and other forms of cultural expression Editor Elizabeth Montes Garcés has gathered contributions from specialists who examine the effects of such major phenomena as migration globalization and gender on the construct of Latin American identities and as such are reshaping the traditional understanding of Latin America's cultural history The contributors to this

Postmodernity, Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson,2002-01-04 In Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson sets out to demonstrate that postmodern theory has actually made possible an ethical discourse around fiction Each chapter elaborates and discusses a particular aspect of Levinas thought and raises questions for that thought and its bearing on the novel It also contains detailed analyses of particular texts Part of the book s originality is its concentration on a range of modernist and postmodern novels which have seldom if ever served as the basis for a larger ethical theory of fiction Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel discusses among others the writings of Joseph Conrad Henry James Jane Austen Samuel Beckett Marcel Proust and Salman Rushdie

Ethics and Eventfulness in Middle English Literature J. Mitchell,2009-04-27 Medieval writers were fascinated by fortune and misfortune yet the critical problems raised by such explorations have not been adequately theorized Allan Mitchell invites us to consider these contingencies in relation to an ethics of the event His book examines how Middle English writers including Chaucer Gower Lydgate and Malory treat unpredictable events such as sexual attraction political disaster social competition traumatic accidents and the textual condition itself locating in fortune the very potentiality of ethical life While earlier scholarship has detailed the iconography of Lady Fortune this book alters and advances the conversation so that we see fortune less as a negative exemplum than as a positive sign of radical phenomena

Reconstructing Contexts Robert D. Hume, 1999 This book attempts to justify and theorize old historicism defining archaeo historicism as a method by which scholars can reconstruct past context in order to apply it to the interpretation of works and events of that time If such reconstruction is to be more than wildly impressionistic it must be grounded in hard evidence handled according to clear rules In this intriguing and rigorous analysis Robert Hume identifies legitimate objects for reconstruction and proposes procedures and principles by which such interpretation may be pursued He then examines the failures of the same method which works only when adequate evidence can be found In particular Hume flatly denies the intellectual legitimacy of literary history as it is commonly practised and attempts to disentangle such history from the practice of historicism The final chapter is devoted to a cogent discussion of how archaeo historicism relates to various forms of contemporary theory Hume offers a profusion of examples of good and bad historicist reconstruction and interpretation drawing largely on English literature but also on American and other world literatures theatre history and music theory Although addressed primarily to literary critics this wide ranging and bold work will be of interest to historians and cultural critics as well

James Joyce and the Difference of Language Laurent Milesi, 2003-07-24 James Joyce and the Difference of Language offers an alternative look at Joyce's writing by placing his language at the intersection of various critical perspectives linguistics philosophy feminism psychoanalysis postcolonialism and intertextuality Combining close textual analysis and theoretically informed readings an international team of leading scholars explores how Joyce's experiments with language repeatedly challenge our ways of reading Topics covered include reading Joyce through translations the role of Dante's literary linguistics in Finnegans Wake and the place of gender in Joyce's modernism Two further essays illustrate aspects of Joyce's cultural politics in Ulysses and the ethics of desire in Finnegans Wake Informed by debates in Joyce scholarship literary studies and critical theory and addressing the full range of his writing this volume comprehensively examines the critical diversity of Joyce's linguistic practices It is essential reading for all scholars of Joyce and modernism

Poetic Obligation Matthew G. Jenkins, 2008-04 Since at least the time of Plato's Republic the relationship between poetry and ethics has been troubled Through the prism of what has been called the new ethical criticism inspired by the work of Emmanuel Levinas G. Matthew Jenkins considers the works of Objectivists Black Mountain poets and Language poets in light of their full potential to reshape this ancient relationship American experimental poetry is usually read in either political or moral terms Poetic Obligation by contrast considers the poems of Louis Zukofsky Charles Reznikoff George Oppen Edward Dorn Robert Duncan Susan Howe and Lyn Hejinian in terms of the philosophical notion of ethical obligation to the Other in language Jenkins's historical trajectory enables him to consider the full breadth of ethical topics that have driven theoretical debate since the end of World War II This original approach establishes an ethical lineage in the works of twentieth century experimental poets creating a way to reconcile the breach between poetry and the issue of ethics in literature at large With implications for a host of social issues including ethnicity and immigration economic inequities and human rights Jenkins s imaginative reconciliation of poetry and ethics will provide stimulating reading for teachers and scholars of American literature as well as advocates and devotees of poetry in general Poetic Obligation marshals ample evidence that poetry matters and continues to speak to the important issues of our day Stalking the Subject Carrie Rohman,2009 Human and animal subjectivity converge in a historically unprecedented way within modernism as evolutionary theory imperialism antirationalism and psychoanalysis all grapple with the place of the human in relation to the animal Drawing on the thought of Jacques Derrida and Georges Bataille Carrie Rohman outlines the complex philosophical and ethical stakes involved in theorizing the animal in humanism including the difficulty in determining an ontological place for the animal the question of animal consciousness and language and the paradoxical status of the human as both a primate body and a human mind abstracting itself from the physical and material world Rohman then turns to the work of Joseph Conrad D H Lawrence H G Wells and Djuna Barnes authors who were deeply invested in the relationship between animality and identity The Island of Dr Moreau embodies a Darwinian nightmare of the evolutionary continuum The Croquet Player thematizes the dialectic between evolutionary theory and psychoanalysis and Women in Love St Mawr and Nightwood all refuse to project animality onto others inverting the traditional humanist position by valuing animal consciousness A novel treatment of the animal in literature Stalking the Subject provides vital perspective on modernism s most compelling intellectual and philosophical issues Literature & Place, 1800-2000 Peter Brown,2008 Ten original essays examine the transactions between real places and the literary imagination including the reinvention of real places in literary form from 1800 to the present day They deal with different kinds of locations islands countries cities the topoi writers use to articulate a sense of place maps ruins landscape history their generic manifestations in fiction travel writing topography auto biography and poetry and the theoretical and methodological issues which arise The focus moves outwards from local to regional and national issues covering questions of cultural identity space representation historicity and modernity in England Scotland Ireland France Germany the United States and the South Pacific The contributors are drawn from both sides of the Atlantic and include established scholars as well as newer voices Science Fiction Adam Charles Roberts,2006 Science Fiction offers a critical account of the phenomenon of science fiction illustrating the critical terminology and following the contours of its continuing history The impact of technological advances on the genre is discussed Science Fiction Adam Roberts,2002-09-11 In Science Fiction Adam Roberts offers a clear and critically engaging account of the phenomenon illustrating the critical terminology and following the contours of its continuing history Cinema and Sensation Martine Beugnet,2007-10-18 This book looks at a much debated phenomenon in contemporary cinema the re emergence of filmmaking practices and by extension of theoretical approaches that give precedence to cinema as the medium of the senses France offers an intriguing case in point here A specific sense of momentum comes from the release in close succession of a series of films that exemplify a characteristic awareness of cinema's sensory impact and transgressive nature Adieu A ma soeur Baise moi Beau Travail La Blessure La Captive Dans ma peau Demonlover L Humanite Flandres L Intrus Les Invisibles Lady Chatterley Lecons de tenebres Romance Sombre Tiresia Trouble Every Day Twentynine Palms Vendredi soir La Vie nouvelle Wild Side Zidane un portrait du XXIeme siecle These films amongst others typify a willingness to explore cinema's unique capacity to move us both viscerally and intellectually Martine Beugnet focuses on the crucial and fertile overlaps that occur between experimental and mainstream cinema Her book draws on the writings of the likes of Deleuze Merleau Ponty and Bataille but first and foremost she develops her arguments from the films themselves from the comprehensive description of specific sequences techniques and motifs which allows us to engage with the works as material events and as thinking processes In turn she demonstrates how the films envisaged as forms of embodied thought offer alternative ways of approaching those questions that are at the heart of today's most burning socio cultural debates from the growing supremacy of technology to globalisation exile and exclusion these are the issues that appear embedded here in the very texture of images and sounds

Popular Culture Icons in Contemporary American Drama Konstantinos Blatanis, 2003 The discussion addresses the task of theater images in a cultural field where the real is mistaken for its reflection originality constantly played against seriality at a moment when simulacra clones and emulations of selves and texts become firmly established as the norm The accommodation of pop icons on stage and the results this framing yields constitute this work's primary interests and aims
