Currently the influence of shifts and changes in the legal system due to global political social and economic dynamics demands significant changes to harmonize and adapt the various realities of human relations which are currently dominated by various activities in cyberspace Law is the most important and strategic instrument in organizing the space for social interaction and changes in other social institutions and institutions in the current era Therefore it is not only about 3 legal instruments such as norms legal institutions and their enforcement but the most important thing is legal education which will build not only legal instruments and systems but also awareness of a new legal culture Thus structuring legal education and its educational ecosystem which is connected to other aspects such as economics social cultural religious political and so on is a necessity that continues to be developed Law is also the glue and device of a world that is all connected and cross border connected to the digital world as well as an interconnected global society making an agreement on a common global goal help individuals institutions and governments throughout the world to agree on the direction of development focusing on things that are truly beneficial for the future directing all parties to focus on the same thing mobilizing all resources and making it easier to organize and implement so that all parties can move together towards the achievements they hope for By having a common goal every policy and development step taken by every national leader will always be tested by the public This means that a common goal provides a common opportunity for all elements of society to control the entire development process in order to remain faithful to the path towards mutual achievement encouraging mobilization all networks of expertise knowledge and practices to overcome various difficulties faced in implementing sustainable development and mobilize all stakeholder networks This multi stakeholder process is critical to addressing complex challenges in sustainable development and the fight against poverty hunger and disease In line with the global agenda called Sustainable Goals Development especially point 4 of SGD s goals which sets the goal of providing quality education this is also included in the world of legal education The SDGs goals above are interconnected and influence each other To achieve the SDGs goals collaboration and cooperation are needed These SDGs are a global commitment to achieve better sustainable development Every country including Indonesia has a responsibility to achieve the SDGs goals By paying attention to sustainability aspects in every decision and action we can build a better and more sustainable future for future generations Thus there is a need for strategic partnerships especially at the national and regional levels which will harmonize various curricula and learning methods especially in the field of law in order to achieve a parameter of success in the development of national and regional law which is one of the elements of the resilience of a country or region This is considered necessary and strategic considering that currently the dynamics of the region are being influenced by global turmoil in various fields as well as the ongoing struggle for hegemony among world geopolitical and geoeconomic forces in the new world balance order Therefore this international seminar and call for papers is an opportunity for participants to find out about harmonization and strategic cooperation in legal education especially in the era of disruption economic and digital and to know its relevance for development at the ASEAN level

Women, Matrimonial Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Neelam Tyagi, 2021-04-05 This book examines the practice of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR as it stands today in the context of matrimonial disputes and for providing gender justice for women undergoing matrimonial litigation ADR is a fairly recent but increasingly prevalent phenomenon that has significantly evolved due to the failure of the adversarial process of litigation to provide timely resolution of disputes The book explores the merit and demerit of traditional litigation process and emergence socio legal framework work environment and success rate of various ADR processes in general and for resolving matrimonial disputes in particular It comprehensively discusses the role of various institutions and attitudes and perceptions of ADR practitioners It analyzes the influence of patriarchal cultural assumptions of appropriate feminine behaviour and its effect on ADR practitioners like mediators and counsellors that leads to the marginalization of aggrieved woman s issues With a brief analysis of the experience and challenges faced with the way the ADR process is conducted the focus is on probing the vulnerability of aggrieved women The book critiques the practice of ADR as it is today and offers constructive ways forward by providing suggestions insights and analysis that could bring about a transformation in the way justice is delivered to women This in depth study is an attempt to guide decision making by bringing forth and legitimizing the battered women s voice which often goes unrepresented in the debate about the efficacy of ADR mechanism in resolving matrimonial disputes The book is of interest to those working for justice for women particularly in the context of matrimonial disputes legal professionals mediators counsellors judges academicians women rights activists researchers in the field of gender and women studies social work and law ADR educators policymakers and general readers who are inclined and interested in bringing a gender perspective to their area of work

Youth, Globalization, and Society in Africa and Its Diaspora Jepkorir-Rose Chepyator-Thomson, Akinloye Ojo, Karim Traore, Katja Sonkeng, 2020-02-11 This edited collection provides a window into Africa s diversity A wide ranging body of authors offers a valuable glimpse into the challenges and opportunities presented by globalization to the youth in Africa and its diaspora while issuing a stern call for action to local governments to act now and tap into the energy of Africa's burgeoning youth population. In doing so, the authors expand extant literature on the continent's coping with globalization in the context of young people in various African nations. Featured in the collection are views on education, language, agriculture, sport, and technology deeply interwoven into the schooling behavior and health of youth. Specifically, these practices are found in both formal and non-formal education, agricultural production and food nutrition, computer technology, and sport's amelioration of health issues throughout Africa. Dispute System Design Lisa Blomgren Amsler, Janet Martinez, Stephanie E.

Smith, 2020-06-02 Dispute System Design walks readers through the art of successfully designing a system for preventing managing and resolving conflicts and legally framed disputes. Drawing on decades of expertise as instructors and consultants, the authors show how dispute systems design can be used within all types of organizations, including business firms, nonprofit organizations, and international and transnational bodies. This book has two parts: the first teaches readers the foundations of Dispute System Design (DSD), describing bedrock concepts and case chapters exploring DSD across a range of experiences, including public and community justice, conflict within and beyond organizations, international and comparative systems, and multi-jurisdictional and complex systems. This book is intended for anyone who is interested in the theory or practice of DSD, who uses or wants to understand mediation, arbitration, court trial, or other dispute resolution processes, or who designs or improves existing processes and systems. Pastoral Mediation: An Innovative Practice: Second Edition Mary Kendall

Hope, 2014-04-15 Pastoral Mediation Second Edition is a training manual for pastors, church leaders, and counselors of any faith to provide mediation. This step-by-step process is edited, updated with new forms. The mediation theory and practice in this book establishes the specialty of Pastoral Mediation within the larger field of professional mediation. This second edition continues to provide the best set of specific instructions to mediators to date on how to provide mediation service that truly serves individuals' needs in times of crisis. Dr. Hope's in-depth insights to mediation practice are a must for any professional pastoral counselor or mediator's reference. Controlling the Costs of Conflict Karl A. Slaikeu, Ralph H. Hasson, 2012-07-16

Written for non-experts in jargon-free language, this work shows how to create systems within organizations that preempt the monetary, strategic, and emotional costs associated with on-the-job conflict. Its clear and simple approach translates advanced concepts into practical how-tos and provides readers with four guiding principles they can follow to create conflict control systems of their own. Amply illustrated with real-world examples, it details the policies, procedures, and practices that make for successful control systems and tells precisely how to implement them. WIPO Alternative Dispute Resolution Options
