ADR, Arbitration, and Mediation CI Arb, 2014 The various developments and changes in the field of arbitration coupled with the large sums and important issues which are so often at stake in them mean that a new book providing a comprehensive overview on the topic from an authoritative source is not merely very welcome it is positively needed by professionals involved in arbitration and their clients It is hard to think of an organisation better qualified to sponsor such a book than the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators with its enormous experience and authority in the field It is also hard to conceive of a more impressive and well qualified group of contributors to such a book than the list of people who Julio CE sar Betancourt and Jason A Crook have included in this volume Lord Neuberger of Abbotsbury President of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators is a learned society that works in the public interest to promote and facilitate the use of alternative dispute resolution ADR mechanisms Founded in 1915 and with a Royal Charter granted in 1979 it is a UK based institution that has gained international presence in more than 100 countries and has more than 13 000 professionally qualified members around the world Chartered Institute of Arbitrators 12 Bloomsbury Square London United

Unsettling the Settler Within Paulette Regan,2010-12-22 In 2008 the Canadian government apologized to the victims of the notorious Indian residential school system and established a Truth and Reconciliation Commission whose goal was to mend the deep rifts between Aboriginal peoples and the settler society that engineered the system Unsettling the Settler Within argues that in order to truly participate in the transformative possibilities of reconciliation non Aboriginal Canadians must undergo their own process of decolonization They must relinquish the persistent myth of themselves as peacemakers and acknowledge the destructive legacy of a society that has stubbornly ignored and devalued Indigenous experience Today s truth and reconciliation processes must make space for an Indigenous historical counter narrative in order to avoid perpetuating a colonial relationship between Aboriginal and settler peoples A compassionate call to action this powerful book offers all Canadians both Indigenous and not a new way of approaching the critical task of healing the wounds left by the residential school system Mediation and Alternative

Regulating Dispute Resolution Felix Steffek, Hannes Unberath, Hazel Genn, Reinhard Greger, Carrie Menkel-Meadow, 2014-07-18 This book proposes a principled approach to the regulation of dispute resolution. It covers dispute resolution mechanisms in all their varieties including negotiation, mediation, conciliation, expert opinion, mini trial, ombud procedures, arbitration and court adjudication. The authors present a transnational Guide for Regulating Dispute Resolution (GRDR). The regulatory principles contained in this Guide are based on a functional taxonomy of dispute resolution mechanisms, an open normative framework and a modular structure of regulatory topics. The Guide for Regulating Dispute Resolution is formulated and commented upon in a concise manner to assist legislators, policy makers, professional associations, practitioners and academics in thinking about which solutions best suit local and regional circumstances. The aim of this book is to contribute to the understanding and development of the legal framework governing national and international dispute resolution. Theory, empirical research and regulatory models have been taken from the wealth of experience in 12 jurisdictions: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, England and Wales, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, Norway, Switzerland and the United States of America. Experts with a background in academia, practice and law making describe and analyse the regulatory framework and social reality of dispute resolution in these countries. On this basis, the authors draw conclusions about policy choices, regulatory strategies and the practice of conflict resolution. This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional's International Arbitration online service.
