Teaching Reading in the 21st Century Michael F. Graves, Connie Juel, Bonnie B. Graves, 2004 With new chapters on fluency and motivation the Fourth Edition of Teaching Reading in the 21st Century maintains the friendly voice of its widely recognized author team and its superior coverage of assessment for learning and strengthens its commitment to a rich balanced and comprehensive program of reading instruction Always practical this edition is even richer in first person accounts instructional routines classroom vignettes and hands on literacy activities Video Workshop for Educational Psychology Diane Murphy, 2003 Children's Literature Diana Mitchell, Pamela Waterbury, Rose Casement, 2003 Children's Literature An Invitation to the World is written and organized in a manner that engages the readers and that will instill confidence in teachers when selecting and using literature in their teaching Readers are asked to take a world view of literature what it is how to recognize one's own how to recognize an author's and encouraged to see children's literature through a lens that includes people not like themselves The book tackles tough issues such as gender and racial bias and how they can be insidiously promoted in literature No other book on the market engages readers more than this one Rather than just presenting topics the book asks What can we learn from them In addition the first person narrative involves readers in the discussion rather than simply presenting content to them Elementary and middle school teachers curriculum developers and anyone interested in children's literature Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students Thomas G. Gunning, 2005 With its inclusive view of literacy Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students emphasizes methods that have been validated by research and practice while delivering the basics of all major aspects of reading and writing The Fifth Edition of this best selling book continues to be a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step by step guidance for teaching reading and writing Written by distinguished author Tom Gunning this text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials With its careful balance between the theory and the practice readers are always given the theories behind the methods encouraging them to choose adapt and construct their own approaches as they create a balanced program of literacy instruction Special emphasis has been given to adapting instruction for English language learners struggling readers and writers and special needs students throughout the book Unlike comparable texts the new edition stresses effective steps for closing the gap between achieving and struggling readers as mandated by the No Child Left Behind legislation and Reading First Video Workshop for Reading Methods Allyn & Bacon, 2002-11-14 Instructor's Manual and Test Bank Ronald Cramer, 2004-02 The Essential Elements of Public Speaking Joseph A.
