Sebastian Lassandro

Alma Cogan:

Alma Cogan Gordon Burn,2011-06-16 How does it feel to be never allowed to die In his classic debut novel Gordon Burn takes Britain's biggest selling vocalist of the 1950s and turns her story into an equation of celebrity and murder Fictional characters jostle for space with real life stars from John Lennon to Doris Day and Sammy Davis Jr as Burn in a breathtaking act of appropriation reinvents the popular culture of the post war years As beautifully written as it is disturbing Alma Cogan remains a stinging relevant exploration of the sad dark underside of fame An extraordinary unprecedented novel Audacious innovative and totally compelling William Boyd Alma Cogan Sandra Caron,1991 Alma Cogan. Postmodernity, Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson,2002-01-04 In Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson sets out to demonstrate that postmodern theory has actually made possible an ethical discourse around fiction Each chapter elaborates and discusses a particular aspect of Levinas thought and raises questions for that thought and its bearing on the novel It also contains detailed analyses of particular texts Part of the book's originality is its concentration on a range of modernist and postmodern novels which have seldom if ever served as the basis for a larger ethical theory of fiction

Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel discusses among others the writings of Joseph Conrad Henry James Jane Austen Samuel Beckett Marcel Proust and Salman Rushdie Alma Cogan ,1960 Burt Bacharach: Song By Song Serene

Dominic,2003-12-01 Best known as the composer of such hits as Dionne Warwick's Walk On By Dusty Springfield's The Look of Love and the Carpenters Close to You Burt Bacharach wrote the music for over 700 published songs and has been recorded by some 2 000 artists from Frank Sinatra and Elvis Presley to the Beatles and the Supremes Song By Song is a witty cheeky song by song journey through Bacharach's vast recorded oeuvre from Nat King Cole's little known 1952 version of Once in a Blue Moon to Burt's recent collaborations with Elvis Costello Lyle Lovett and Chicago I Had to Go There to Get

Here Ken Holmes,2011-08-01 There was a lust for fame and fortune Only then would he become the biggest pull on the planet But the closer he got to his fortune the more he became disillusioned with the value of money as he discovered a world full of greed evil and corruption He falls in love and realises that's what he's been looking for all his life but there is work to do He is now Don Quixote the character Cervantes saw four hundred years ago and he must slay the evil giants before he is worthy of the fair Dulcinea But they are many Though Don Quixote is not alone there have been forces guiding him giving him strength all his life way outside our comprehension and they're getting stronger and so is he Violence and Dystopia

Daniel Cojocaru,2015-09-18 Violence and Dystopia is a critical examination of imitative desire scapegoating and sacrifice in selected contemporary Western dystopian narratives through the lens of Ren Girard's mimetic theory The first chapter offers an overview of the history of Western utopia dystopia with a special emphasis on the problem of conflictive mimesis and scapegoating violence and a critical introduction to Girard's theory The second chapter is devoted to J G Ballard's seminal novel Crash 1973 Chuck Palahniuk's Fight Club 1996 and Rant 2007 and Brad Anderson's film The Machinist 2004 It is argued that the car crash functions as a metaphor for conflictive mimetic desire and leads to a quasi sacrificial crisis as defined by Girard for archaic religion The third chapter focuses on the psychogeographical writings of Iain Sinclair and Peter Ackroyd Walking the streets of London the pedestrian represents the excluded underside of the world of Ballardian speed The walking subject is portrayed in terms of the expelled victim of Girardian theory The fourth chapter considers violent crowds as portrayed by Ballard's late fiction the writings of Stewart Home and David Peace's GB84 2004 In accordance with Girard's hypothesis the discussed narratives reveal the failure of scapegoat expulsion to restore peace to the potentially self destructive violent crowds The fifth chapter examines the post apocalyptic environments resulting from failed scapegoat expulsion and mimetic conflict out of control as portrayed in Sinclair's Radon Daughters 1994 Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale 1985 and Oryx and Crake 2003 and Will Self's The Book of Dave 2006 The Big Snow David Park, 2012-07-05 Northern Ireland 1963 In a house with windows flung defiantly wide a wife dies before her husband can make his confession Elsewhere an old woman searches desperately for a wedding dress in her dream of love And in the very heart of the city the purity of snow is tainted by the murder of a young woman leaving one man in race against time to find the murderer before the snow melts This is the story of a time muffled and made claustrophobic by unprecedented snow falls Suddenly shaken free from the normal patterns of their lives by the extremity of the weather people find their intimate desires thrown into sharp relief and David Park shows this flawed slice of humanity to be somehow glorious Ingenious SUNDAY TIMES A magnificent writer BELFAST TELEGRAPH Park writes prose like a poet and the invisible lines of national borders and tribal territory are etched into a text which rolls thorough time and space THE TIMES Some of the more exhibitionist fictional voices currently clamouring for our attention seem mute in comparison INDEPENDENT Considerable dexterity freshness and insight A well crafted closely observed tale WASHINGTON POST RUNAWAY - The Del Shannon Story Brian C. Thank Your Lucky Stars: The 60's Pop Show

Featuring The Kinks, The Beatles And The Rolling Stones Kevin Mulrennan, Fully revised and expanded this history of the influential 1960 s pop show contains a wealth of facts information and trivia on ABC s Lucky Stars a weekly pop show that ran from 1961 to 1966 The Beatles the Kinks and the Rolling Stones were among the many hundreds of artists that travelled up the M1 to the Alpha studios in Birmingham to appear on the show Chapters in the book deal with the history of the show an analysis of the surviving episodes a detailed look at a rare surviving script a discussion of the crew books and records the artists who appeared from 1961 to 1966 and the songs they performed and the Australian version of the show Fully illustrated throughout there are many references to how the show was reported in the U K press Original host and television and radio legend Pete Murray has very kindly written the foreword Pete says Thank Your Lucky Stars was a pleasant and easy programme to work on We were given plenty of freedom to play whichever songs we wanted The big difference between Thank Your Lucky Stars and Top of the Pops Lucky Stars was not driven by the charts we had the complete freedom to play whatever we wanted I remember meeting The Springfields on the show and I really enjoyed working with them what a lovely group of people really friendly Thank Your Lucky Stars was a great sixties tv show that has been sadly neglected in the archives in recent years I am delighted that Kevin Mulrennan has brought out this long overdue book I d like to say that not just on behalf of myself but also on behalf all the others who worked on that lovely show Pete Murray Thank Your Lucky Stars presenter and original host of Top of the Pops Thank Your Lucky Stars was unique in that it straddled the pre and post Beatles era of British pop music There are brief biographies of all the artists appearing on the show as well as the guest Disc Jockeys In addition to the main hosts Pete Murray Keith Fordyce Brian Matthew and Jim Dale I have discovered that John Benson Martin Locke Simon Dee and Don Moss introduced the show too Fans and performers alike recall their memories of this super show Hopefully this book will raise the profile of this forgotten gem of 1960 s British television and you ll be thanking your lucky stars you bought it

ABC Music Shows Volume One 1956 to 1959: Featuring Marty Wilde, Billy Fury, Cliff Richard and other artists on Jack Good's Oh Boy! Kevin Mulrennan, Following the success of my previous book which dealt with the pop show Thank Your Lucky Stars I have now decided to look at the music shows that appeared on A B C Weekend Television A B C Weekend Television catered for viewers in the Midland and the North for thirteen glorious years from 1956 to 1968 The format will be similar to my previous work I shall take a chronological view with mini biographies where appropriate trivia interesting facts pictures and opinions both my own and from the contemporary public I shall not be looking at the previous company that was called A B C that morphed into A T V Television Nor will I be looking at music shows shown on A B C but not directly produced by them Therefore shows such as Sunday Night At The London Palladium and The Jack Jackson Show will not be featured as they merit a book in their own right If a weekend is absent from the diary it probably means A B C was concentrating on sports that particular weekend In the 60 s

sports such as tennis rugby league and motor racing had a high profile Sadly most of the shows mentioned here are not preserved in the archives Television was considered an ephemeral pleasure back then Preserving a show was in many cases impossible or too expensive The powerful music unions discouraged repeat showings and many shows went out live and there was no need to record them Tapes were reused on a regular basis with shows being wiped forever within a few weeks of transmission Mercifully a handful of Oh Boys survive along with a snippet of Cliff in the anniversary show The ABC of ABC A George Formby section from a 1957 Top Of The Bill has popped up on YouTube A Chas McDevitt clip featuring a very young Jean Marsh opening a door may very well come from the same show British Pathe News have lovely features on Ship Canal Showboat showing the likes of Thora Hird rehearsing in Manchester in 1956 as well as a feature on Holiday Town Parade A few Sunday Breaks exist Sadly I could find nothing from programmes such as Bid For Fame Top Numbers After Hours and many more great shows Writing this book really struck me how viewing habits have changed over the decades Television was on just two channels Daytime shows were rare and television ended before midnight Televisions were expensive Shows tended to be on at exactly the same time each week to build up audience figures But some things never change Even back then some people moaned at the quality of the shows and were fed up of seeing the same stars week in week out Hopefully you will gain more pleasure reading the book than those killjoys
