Along Hadrians Wall:

A Walk Along Hadrian's Wall Charles Chadwyck-Healey, 2009      Hadrian's Wall Path Gordon Smith, Gordon Simm, Jacquetta Megarry, 2011-05-23 Hadrian's Wall Path runs for 86 miles from Bowness on Solway to Wallsend along the line of the Roman Wall completed in AD122 under the Emperor Hadrian. This National Trail crosses northern England from Irish Sea to North Sea and offers many chances to look at the forts, milecastles and interpretation centers within this UNESCO World Heritage Site. This guidebook contains all you'll need to plan and enjoy a classic week's walking.      Holiday Walks Along Hadrian's Wall David Haffey, Marcus Byron, 2007      Along Hadrian's Wall David Harrison, 1956      An Archaeological Guide to Walking Hadrian's Wall from Wallsend to Bowness-on-Solway (East to West) M. C. Bishop, 2014-01-26 This is an informative yet informal description of the route of Hadrian's Wall and all the remains that can still be seen. For most of the route from east to west it follows the Hadrian's Wall National Trail Footpath but with an important difference where the path veers off the line of the Wall; this account stays with it and allows you to examine the remains most other walkers do not see and most other guidebooks do not describe. Profusely illustrated with more than 100 photographs and plans, it is the perfect archaeological companion to your walk along Hadrian's Wall regardless of whether you take it with you on your ebook reader or smartphone or prefer to sit in the comfort of your favourite armchair and let others experience the rain and blisters whilst you enjoy the text and pictures. Written by an archaeologist who has walked, driven, cycled, flown, illustrated, photographed and even excavated on Hadrian's Wall, this is the second of a new series of accessible guides to that famous wall.      Along Hadrian's Wall D. Harrison, 1975      An Archaeological Guide to Walking Hadrian's Wall from Bowness-on-Solway to Wallsend (West to East) M. C. Bishop, 2013 This is an informative yet informal description of the route of Hadrian's Wall and all the remains that can still be seen. For most of the route from west to east it follows the Hadrian's Wall National Trail Footpath but with an important difference where the path veers off the line of the Wall; this account stays with it and allows you to examine the remains most other walkers do not see and most other guidebooks do not describe. Profusely illustrated with more than 100 photographs and plans, it is the perfect archaeological companion to your walk along Hadrian's Wall regardless of whether you take it with you on your ebook reader or smartphone or prefer to sit in the comfort of your favourite armchair and let others experience the rain and blisters whilst you enjoy the text and pictures.      Hadrian's Wall Path Mark Richards, 2025-01-15 A guidebook to walking the Hadrian's Wall Path National Trail between Bowness on Solway in Cumbria and Wallsend Newcastle. Covering 135km/84 miles, this historic route takes around 10 days to hike. Suitable for beginners, it nevertheless requires a reasonable level of fitness to undertake as a multi-day walk. The route is described in 10 stages between 8 and 16km/5-10 miles in length and in both directions, west-east and east-west. An optional 2-stage extension through Newcastle to South Shields on the east coast is also provided. Contains step-by-step description of the route alongside 1:100,000 OS maps. Includes a separate map booklet containing OS 1:25,000 mapping and route line Handy route summary tables alternative walking schedules and accommodation listings help you plan your itinerary Packed with historical detail as well as maps marking locations of Roman milecastles and other archaeological sites on and near the wall Public transport by stage is listed for those wanting to break the trail into shorter sections

Excavations Along Hadrian's Wall 2019-2021 Rob Collins, Jane Harrison, 2024-04-30 This study focuses on the fabric construction and preservation of stretches of Hadrian's Wall in its more remote locations providing significant insights into the places between the mile castles and important forts and associated settlements The Hadrian's Wall Community Archaeology Project WallCAP conducted a series of fieldwork projects along the Hadrian's Wall corridor between 2019 and 2021 The work focused on sites that were poorly understood or under particular threat and aimed to improve understanding of them so they could be better managed in future At several sites excavation was followed by conservation and consolidation work This volume brings together the final reports of these excavations at six Roman sites in the Wall corridor As the sites were spread along the length of the Wall the character and afterlife of the Wall in very different landscape locations could be compared An assessment of the Vallum at Heddon on the Wall identified how earthwork archaeology survived in a sloped heavily ploughed landscape Three excavations investigated the condition of the stone Wall curtain at Port Carlisle Walltown Crags and Steel Rigg and Cats Stairs At each site the Wall builders had responded to the demands of the local terrain and made use of local resources At each site the Wall had a different post Roman history Excavations at the bridging point of the Cam Beck revealed for the first time how the Wall was carried over a minor watercourse and discovered traces of the Turf Wall Small buildings were also identified just south of the Wall as it approached the bridge At Corbridge Roman town excavations on the northern periphery of the settlement demonstrated that from early in its history the most northerly town in Europe was of considerable extent The area investigated showed that even at the edge of town shops lined the roads alongside well appointed houses with bustling yards Later on in the Roman period the town contracted behind walls and cremation burials were inserted by the road Each site is reported on independently presenting the primary data for each investigation The volume concludes with a synthetic analysis of what the results of these excavations together reveal about Hadrian's Wall considering amongst other things construction details and the decay and destruction of the monument in the centuries following Roman occupation

Great Wall of Britain Anton Hodge, 2004-11 From the Tyne to the Solway Anton Hodge takes us on a geographical and historical tour of the Roman Wall area which is highly informative yet at the same time irreverent and hilarious Packed with accessible stories and histories whether picked up from archaeology or through more dubious drunken chats in the local pubs during the week long walk there are encounters with music loving cows amorous and less amorous dogs other walkers imaginary B B owners Roman soldiers foot and mouth disease the Border Reivers and many more Whether you have walked the Wall or not this is an entertaining account of 2 000 years of history

Along Hadrian's Wall, Etc. [With Plates, Plans and a Map.] David Harrison (LL.D.), 1956

Walking Hadrian's Wall Buck Niehoff, 2018

On the orders of Emperor Hadrian in 122 AD a great wall was constructed coast to coast across northern England Separating the tribes in what is now Scotland from the Roman occupied area of Great Britain this massive structure was one of the glories of the Empire It is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site that includes a path along its 84 mile length Walking this trail to celebrate his seventieth birthday the author shares the camaraderie of his three companions and other hikers including a couple of dogs who join them along the way He struggles over the unexpectedly rugged desolate terrain and discovers the spiritual magic of the hiking trail that clarifies the transition to his seventh decade Publisher s website Hadrian's Wall Path Paul Amess,2020-12-10 Join Paul on an epic walk along one of the most famous and interesting walks in the world Hadrian s Wall Find all about its history both ancient and modern and learn about the people that have tried to destroy it as well as the people that have tried to save it This walk covers a lot more than just the wall though Find out which king carried around a human arm for luck and learn about one of the most famous spy swaps in history But if it s wall you want find out where to see the longest the tallest the best bits and the rudest bits Stretching across the north of England walking the wall sees Paul and the gang enjoy leisurely long summer days tramping across country encountering all sorts of unexpected delights Spending the week under canvas they battle the British weather get fleeced by the locals and get blisters thrown in for good luck This book gives a delightful history of the wall as well as an amusing account of a walk along it all told in a friendly and light hearted manner that will make you smile This is Paul s fourth book following up on the success of 54 Degrees North Rambling On and Coast to Coast Paul Amess was born and bred in Hull Yorkshire and spent many years travelling the world to exotic places until it finally dawned on him that the best place in the world was right on his own doorstep He now spends as much of his time as possible walking around England learning about its fascinating history and meeting often interesting and usually strange people Freedom Walk Bianca Message,Bill Message,2024-10-21 Can you ever break free from the patterns of life Are you really stuck with no choices What would happen if you were diagnosed with a terminal illness Would you find a way to change your life even if you didn t know how much time you had left After thirty years of running their own businesses Bianca and Bill realize they need a change Bill s blood pressure is dangerously high and they have both gained more weight than they care to admit Freedom Walk is a personal account of how lives can be transformed with intention and commitment Come share the adventure as they walk across England at 50 years old Once in England they savour the sights sounds and smells of the landscape and the villages along the wall path Bowness on Solway Carlisle Twice Brewed and Wallsend They recount tales of other wall walkers innkeepers and the culinary delights they experience along the way from the full Cumbrian breakfast to a variety of flavour filled dinners With wild flowers the call of pheasants and the wall wending in the distance to accompany them Bill and Bianca awaken to the beauty and magic of being in the present moment But the walk also brings unexpected challenges both physical and emotional Their commitment to each other and to the walk itself helps them complete the journey closer as a couple than ever A delightful account of a life

altering trip written in a lovely personal style that makes the reader feel like a close friend Diane Keating Instructor in English University of Winnipeg

Hadrian's Wall Path Anthony Burton, 2012-09-20 Since it opened in 2003 Hadrian's Wall Path has become one of Britain's most popular long distance paths Its 84 miles are a convenient week's walking shadowing for the most part the historic line of Hadrian's Wall in its spectacular progress across the superbly wild landscape of the north of England Starting in what used to be Tyneside's shipbuilding heart and joining Newcastle in the east with Carlisle in the west it takes you via the extraordinary Roman forts of Vindolanda and Housesteads close to handsome towns like Hexham and Corbridge to finish on the lonely shores of the Solway Firth with views of Scotland This is the official guide to this superb National Trail published in conjunction with Natural England which administers the path and waymarks it with its familiar acorn signs Comprehensive and engrossing it is the only companion you need
