Alta California Land Of Fire:

Land of Chamise and Pines Richard A. Minnich, Ernesto Franco Vizcaino, 1998-11-04 In marked contrast to California's landscape of urban sprawl expansive agriculture and wildlands altered by protectionist management systems many landscapes in neighboring Baja California would still be recognizable to the first European explorers This book shows that the vegetation of present day Baja California is remarkably similar to that observed in the 18th and 19th centuries and that historical fire and grazing management has done little to alter the region's resilient mediterranean type shrublands and forests

Santa Monica Mountains National Recreation Area (N.R.A.), Fire Management Plan, 2005 California Disasters, 1812-1899 William B. Seacrest, William B. Seacrest, 2006 First person accounts of the major catastrophies of 19th century California

In the Land of Frozen Fires Neil C. Mangum, 1990 Biodiversity, Ecosystems, and Conservation in Northern Mexico Jean-Luc E. Women and the Conquest of California, 1542-1840 Virginia M. Bouvier, 2004-08 Studies of the Spanish conquest in the Americas traditionally have explained European Indian encounters in terms of such factors as geography timing and the charisma of individual conquistadores Yet by reconsidering this history from the perspective of gender roles and relations we see that gender ideology was a key ingredient in the glue that held the conquest together and in turn shaped indigenous behavior toward the conquerors This book tells the hidden story of women during the missionization of California It shows what it was like for women to live and work on that frontier and how race religion age and ethnicity shaped female experiences It explores the suppression of women's experiences and cultural resistance to domination and reveals the many codes of silence regarding the use of force at the missions the treatment of women indigenous ceremonies sexuality and dreams Virginia Bouvier has combed a vast array of sources including mission records journals of explorers and missionaries novels of chivalry and oral histories and has discovered that female participation in the colonization of California was greater and earlier than most historians have recognized Viewing the conquest through the prism of gender Bouvier gives new meaning to the settling of new lands and attempts to convert indigenous peoples By analyzing the participation of women both Hispanic and Indian in the maintenance of or resistance to the mission system Bouvier restores them to the narrative of the conquest colonization and evangelization of California And by bringing these voices into the chorus of history she creates new harmonies and dissonances that alter and enhance our understanding of both the experience and meaning of conquest

Forest Ecosystem of Southeast Alaska ,1974 The Archaeology of Ethnogenesis Barbara L. Voss,2015-03-31 This pioneering work of historical archaeology sheds light on the genesis of the Californios a community of military settlers who forged a new identity on the northwest edge of Spanish North America The revised edition includes a new preface from the author looking at the development of ethnogenesis theory since the first edition of this book Land of the Dead Terry Hamburg,2024-09-15 The fabled nineteenth century migration to the American West was filled with peril and despair From sailing ship to covered wagon ambitious young pioneers endured six months of unprecedented largely unanticipated personal hardship that is if they survived the trip Death was a constant companion and the promised land proved as lethal as it was fickle Land of the Dead explores how the demands of survival and adaptation during Westward Expansion changed the way we have buried and grieved for our dead in America That custom was one of many transformations an outlier adolescent culture wrought upon the nation that spawned it Nowhere did these changes play out more dynamically than in California particularly in the quintessential American boom city gold rush San Francisco which banned burials at the turn of the twentieth century and then decreed the removal of 150 000 privately owned graves the only major metropolis to execute a complete eviction of its dead The epic cemetery battle began early when San Francisco was still a remote wannabe great city and raged on for over half a century replete with fiery polemics political intrigue nasty legal wrangling and divisive elections Public cemeteries were dispatched quickly but as time will reveal hardly well Private sanctuaries took longer to expunge and many of its residents were overlooked in what has been called the greatest mass removal of the dead in human history How could the unthinkable happen And how did other American cities reckon with the now precious land once dedicated to their dead In this well researched and well told history Terry Hamburg explores how an instant city heritage bred that momentous decision and led to the formation of nearby Colma the largest necropolis in America Providing a fresh overlay on traditional narratives and revealing a burgeoning nation s trends and conflicts Land of the Dead examines how we relate to our living dead then and now Five Fires David Wyatt,1998 Using his background in cultural history and literature David Wyatt focuses this history of California on five events that swept through the state altering its physical and political landscape Five Fires provides a unique framework for understanding the recent developments in California and will prove an important contribution to the history of American culture Photos America's Ancient Forests Thomas M. Bonnicksen,2000-02-07 At the time of European discovery the ancient North American forests stretched across nearly half the continent And while today little remains of this past glory efforts are underway to bring back some of the diverse ecosystems of that era America s Ancient Forests From the Ice Age to the Age of Discovery provides scientists and professionals with essential information for forest restoration and conservation projects while presenting a compelling and far reaching account of how the North American landscape has evolved over the past 18 000 years The book weaves historical accounts and scientific knowledge into a dynamic narrative about the ancient forests and the events that shaped them Divided into two major parts it covers first the glaciers and forests of the Ice Age and the influences of native peoples and then provides an in depth look at these majestic forests through the eyes of the first European explorers. Changes in climate and elevation, the movement of trees northward, the assembly of modern forests and qualities that all ancient forests shared are also thoroughly examined. A special feature of this book is its self contained introduction to the early history of Native American peoples and their environment. The author draws on his roots in the Osage nation as well as painstaking research through the historical record offering a complete discussion of how the cultural practices of hunting, agriculture and fire helped form the ancient forests.

The Routledge Companion to Decolonizing Art History Tatiana Flores, Florencia San Martín, Charlene Villaseñor Black, 2023-11-27. This companion is the first global comprehensive text to explicate, theorize and propose decolonial methodologies for art historians, museum professionals, artists and other visual culture scholars, teachers and practitioners. Art history as a discipline and its corollary institutions, the museum, the art market, are not only products of colonial legacies but active agents in the consolidation of empire and the construction of the West. The Routledge Companion to Decolonizing Art History joins the growing critical discourse around the decolonial through an assessment of how art history may be rethought and mobilized in the service of justice, racial, gender, social, environmental, restorative and more. This book draws attention to the work of artists, art historians and scholars in related fields who have been engaging with disrupting master narratives and forging new directions, often within a hostile academy or an indifferent art world. The volume unpacks the assumptions projected onto objects of art and visual culture and the discourse that contains them. It equally addresses the manifold complexities around representation as visual and discursive praxis through a range of epistemologies and metaphors originated outside or against the logic of modernity. This companion is organized into four thematic sections: Being and Doing, Learning and Listening, Sensing and Seeing, and Living and Loving. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, visual culture, museum studies, race and ethnic studies, cultural studies, disability studies and women's, gender and sexuality studies.

Five Suns Stephen J. Pyne, 2024-04-30. Narrating Mexico's evolution of fire through five eras: pre-human, pre-Hispanic, colonial, industrializing (1880-1980) and contemporary (1980-2015). It completes a North American trilogy of fire histories that also includes the United States and Canada.
