Altjeringa And Other Aboriginal Poems:

Altjeringa and other Aboriginal poems Roland Robinson,1996 Altjeringa and Other Aboriginal Poems Roland E. Robinson,1970 Poems based on Aboriginal legends 60 Classic Australian Poems Geoff Page,2010-09-27 This is a superb introduction to poetry from the nineteenth century to the present With insight and insider knowledge poet Geoff Page emphasises the contribution made by the notable generation of Australian poets who emerged during and just after World War II It includes several contemporary poems which are likely to become classics in the near future Each poem is followed by a short lively essay discussing its merits and suggesting why it might be considered a classic Poetry Australia ,1971

Past and Present Jeremy Beckett,1998 This book examines Aboriginal identity in various forums discourse education juvenile institutions geographic locations in terms of myths and in land rights actions A selection of authors drawn from a variety of disciplines present a readable collection of works covering the past and the present and many issues which face Aboriginal people in Australia today From the Ruins of Colonialism Chris Healy,1997-03-27 This book throws fresh light on the history of memory forgetting and colonialism It considers key moments of historical imagination and analyses the strange ensemble of elements that constitute Australian History It is an innovative and stimulating investigation of historical cultures and narratives Two Hundred and Fifty Ways to Start an Essay about Captain Cook Alice Te Punga Somerville,2020-12-09 Two Hundred and Fifty Ways to Start an Essay about Captain Cook No 29 With a Non argument that s Actually an Argument Captain Cook It s all so very complex I m going to sit on the fence Whose fence On whose land Dividing what from what You only have a fence when you fear something or when you re trying to keep something in Or as a renovation show on TV informed me when you want to upgrade your street appeal Alice Te Punga Somerville employs her deep research and dark humour to skilfully channel her response to Cook s global colonial legacy in this revealing and defiant BWB Text Wild Dog Dreaming Deborah Bird Rose,2011-04-01 We are living in the midst of the Earth s sixth great extinction event the first one caused by a single species our own In Wild Dog Dreaming Deborah Bird Rose explores what constitutes an ethical relationship with nonhuman others in this era of loss She asks Who are we as a species How do we fit into the Earth s systems Amidst so much change how do we find our way into new stories to guide us Rose explores these questions in the form of a dialogue between science and the humanities Drawing on her conversations with Aboriginal people for whom questions of extinction are up close and very personal Rose develops a mode of exposition that is dialogical philosophical and open ended An inspiration for Rose and a touchstone throughout her book is the endangered dingo of Australia The dingo is not the first animal to face extinction but its story is particularly disturbing because the threat to its future is being actively engineered by humans The brazenness with which the dingo is being wiped out sheds valuable and chilling light on the likely fate of countless other animal and plant species People save what they love observed Michael Soul the great conservation biologist We must ask whether we as humans are capable of loving and therefore capable of caring for the animals and plants that are disappearing in a cascade of extinctions Wild Dog Dreaming engages this question and the result is a bold account of the entangled ethics of love contingency and desire Modern Australian Poetry, 1920-1970

Herbert C. Jaffa,1979 A Fatal Conjunction Joan Kimm,2004 Why do Aboriginal women in Australia experience such high levels of violence in their own communities In this considered and carefully researched book Joan Kimm discusses the extent and nature of the violence its underlying causes current policies that deal with it and changes that might improve these policies Her work covers the devastating legacy of European colonialism on Indigenous culture modern anthropological evidence about patriarchy and violence in traditional Aboriginal societies beliefs held by Aboriginals particularly men about their cultural heritage the impact of cultural heritage upon modern Indigenous society and changing judicial attitudes to sentencing Aboriginal men for violence to Aboriginal women shifting from emphasis on the men s cultural background to emphasis on the women s rights as victims Kimm shows how this multi faceted environment particularly the interaction of two patriarchal laws has had and continues to have very real destructive effects on Aboriginal women Kimm argues powerfully that Aboriginal women like all women like all humans have the universal right to lives free of violence She contends that current law policy and practice place too much emphasis on their rights as Indigenous people and too little on their rights as women A shift in emphasis will be an important first step to safer lives Captain Cook Was Here Maria Nugent,2009-05-05 This book tells the story of the first landing of Captain Cook on the east coast of Australia in 1770
