Alto Before the Dawn Robert Rider, 1991 Death Without Weeping Nancy Scheper-Hughes, 2023-11-15 When lives are dominated by hunger what becomes of love When assaulted by daily acts of violence and untimely death what happens to trust Set in the lands of Northeast Brazil this is an account of the everyday experience of scarcity sickness and death that centres on the lives of the women and children of a hillside favela Bringing her readers to the impoverished slopes above the modern plantation town of Bom Jesus de Mata where she has worked on and off for 25 years Nancy Scheper Hughes follows three generations of shantytown women as they struggle to survive through hard work cunning and triage It is a story of class relations told at the most basic level of bodies emotions desires and needs Most disturbing and controversial is her finding that mother love as conventionally understood is something of a bourgeois myth a luxury for those who can reasonably expect as these women cannot that their infants will live When lives are dominated by hunger what becomes of love When assaulted by daily acts of violence and untimely death what happens to trust Set in the lands of Northeast Brazil this is an account of the everyday experience of scarcity sickness and death

Courage Tastes of Blood Florencia E. Mallon,2005-10-28 Until now very little about the recent history of the Mapuche Chile s largest indigenous group has been available to English language readers Courage Tastes of Blood helps to rectify this situation It tells the story of one Mapuche community Nicol s Ail o located in the south of the country across the entire twentieth century from its founding in the resettlement process that followed the military defeat of the Mapuche by the Chilean state at the end of the nineteenth century Florencia E Mallon places oral histories gathered from community members over an extended period of time in the 1990s in dialogue with one another and with her research in national and regional archives Taking seriously the often quite divergent subjectivities and political visions of the community s members Mallon presents an innovative historical narrative one that reflects a mutual collaboration between herself and the residents of Nicol s Ail o Mallon recounts the land usurpation Nicol s Ail o endured in the first decades of the twentieth century and the community s ongoing struggle for restitution Facing extreme poverty and inspired by the agrarian mobilizations of the 1960s some community members participated in the agrarian reform under the government of socialist president Salvador Allende With the military coup of 1973 they suffered repression and desperate impoverishment Out of this turbulent period the Mapuche revitalization movement was born What began as an effort to protest the privatization of community lands under the military dictatorship evolved into a broad movement for cultural and political recognition that continues to the present day By providing the historical and local context for the emergence of the Mapuche revitalization movement Courage Tastes of Blood offers a distinctive perspective on the evolution of Chilean democracy and its rupture with the military coup of 1973
