Shirley McNaughton

Blissymbolics Speaking Without Speech:

Blissymbolics, Speaking Without Speech Elizabeth S. Helfman, 1981 Discusses the symbol language of blissymbolics and tells how it works and who it helps Communicating with Blissymbolics Shirley McNaughton, 1985 Women of Invention Charlotte Montague, 2018-06-05 Hypatia was a Greek mathematician astronomer and philosopher who invented the hydrometer in about 400 AD Described as a charismatic teacher she was seen as an evil symbol of the pagan science of learning and she was eventually murdered by Christian zealots For many women in years gone by the invention process was fraught with danger and difficulty Not only did they face the hardship and obstacles of inventing they also had to contend with the sexism and gender discrimination of a male world that believed women had nothing to contribute Scientific women came to the fore with momentous innovations which were impossible for men to ignore During World War Two Austrian actress Hedy Lamarr became a pioneer in wireless communications developing a Secret Communications System More recently 20 year old Ann Makosinski has invented the ingenious Hollow Flashlight which converts radiant body heat into electricity Meanwhile other women continued inventing in the domestic sphere with Miracle Mops long lasting lipsticks and magic knickers In every walk of twenty first century life women have been challenging themselves and men to shape the way we live Some of the incredible innovators featured include Myra Juliet Farrell Sally Fox Rosalind Franklin Helen Murray Anna Pavlova M ria Telkes Giuliana Tesoro Halldis Aalvik Thune Ann Tsukamoto Margaret A Wilcox Ada Lovelace and many more The 150 remarkable women in this book show all too clearly that not only can invention no longer be described as a male dominated domain but that a woman s inspiration and ingenuity will probably be driving the life changing ideas of tomorrow s world Communicating Together ,1995 Opinion Writing A. Dash, 2009 Cultivating Inclusive Practices in Contemporary K-12 Education O'Connor Jr., Johnny R., 2018-10-12 Due to state and federal policies there has been an increased emphasis on educating students with disabilities along with their nondisabled peers This can significantly impact the way that educators view instructional design as well as influence the academic program planning of school districts There is an apparent need for resources that provide additional insight and perspective into plans that facilitate these types of programs Cultivating Inclusive Practices in Contemporary K 12 Education is an essential reference source that discusses comprehensive methods for teaching students across a broad spectrum of capabilities The chapters within extend the knowledge base of inclusion by encompassing a variety of elements necessary for training and organizational development ensuring that each student is placed within his her least restrictive environment Featuring research on topics such as educational environments support frameworks and teaching strategies this book is ideally designed for educators administrators policymakers consultants and academicians seeking coverage on comprehensive methods for teaching students across a broad spectrum of capabilities Proceedings ,1983 Proceedings of the National Conference on the Use of Microcomputers in Special Education, Hartford, CT, March 10-12, 1983

Michael M. Behrmann, Liz Lahm, 1984 Thirty four papers from a 1983 conference on the use of microcomputers in special education focus on specific applications of the new technology An overview section section 1 includes papers on computer literacy and daily living skills considerations for marketing software and the role of special educators in the information age Section 2 addresses computers in special education management with papers on such applications as data based behavior modification and microcomputer networks for administration and instruction Section 3 on teacher training includes discussions on vocational assessment and instruction and testing of generic special education concepts Among the instructional applications considered in section 4 are computer camps career planning Blissymbol drill programs and handwriting instruction Section 5 deals with computers as tools with papers on speech output communication devices and alternate interface devices for physically handicapped persons The final section section 6 lists commercial exhibitors at the conference Resources are categorized according to four types general management instructional and tools CL Speech
