The Bone Lady Debra Darnall, 2015-12-01 It's ironic I know that when I put on a costume I finally learned how to just be myself. But that's what happened. I created the Bone Lady out of my passion for football and the Browns. I did it for fun, never thinking it would change my life. But it did. In this unusual new memoir NFL Ultimate Fan Debra Bone Lady Darnall tells about the wacky bumpy and ultimately wonderful ride of self discovery she found herself on after deciding one day to put on an outrageous costume and start rooting like crazy for the Cleveland Browns. The struggling artist suddenly and surprisingly became one of the most visible women in football and a spokesperson for fans of all kinds. Now she shares her offbeat and candid personal story to inspire others to discover their own passion. Debra writes with enthusiasm about becoming an empowered fan and taking joy where you can find it even when your team's on field performance is less than rewarding. She offers tips for how to watch a Browns game without smashing your TV in frustration. Women love football too. Debra says. She embraces the idea that fandom is open to everyone. Just don't get her started on stripper cheerleaders. Browns fans looking to inspire a spouse, a friend or even a teenage daughter to share their love of the game will find THE BONE LADY a friendly guide for the journey.

Passport to Hollywood James Morrison, 1998-09-11 CHOICE 1999 Outstanding Academic Books. In Passport to Hollywood James Morrison examines a series of Hollywood films by directors from European art cinemas. Drawing widely on current research in film theory, film history and cultural studies he traces the influence of European filmmakers in Hollywood from the 1920s to the 1980s and illuminates the relation between modernism and mass culture in American movies. By interpreting important American films Morrison also shows how these films illustrate key issues of cultural hierarchy and national culture over fifty years of American cinema. In addition he explores the complex and often contradictory ways that these Hollywood movies conceptualize ideas about foreignness. Using insightful close viewings Morrison demonstrates new connections among modernism, postmodernism and American movies.

The Complete

Parade's End Tetralogy Madox Ford, 2022-11-13 Madox Ford's The Complete Parade's End Tetralogy is a masterful exploration of the disillusionment wrought by World War I and its aftermath encapsulating the complexities of human relationships in a rapidly changing world. Comprising four interconnected novels, the tetralogy employs a stream of consciousness narrative style that delves into the psychological turmoil of its characters, particularly the protagonist Christopher Tietjens. Ford's meticulous attention to social and political intricacies offers a vivid portrayal of Edwardian society, weaving themes of masculinity, duty, and the shifting nature of truth amidst the chaos of war. Ford, a prominent literary figure of the early twentieth century, was deeply influenced by his own experiences, including his service in the British Army during the Great War. His background in journalism and intimate connections with leading writers such as Joseph Conrad shaped his innovative approach to narrative structure and character development. This rich tapestry of personal and collective experiences informs the tetralogy's poignant reflections on love, loss, and the struggle for identity in the face of societal upheaval. A must-read for enthusiasts of modernist literature and history, The Complete Parade's End Tetralogy is not only a profound reflection on the impact of war but also a timeless exploration of human resilience. Ford's intricate character studies and expert narrative techniques make this work an essential contribution to 20th-century literature, inviting readers to engage with its enduring themes and complexities.

Parade's End: The Complete Tetralogy Ford Madox Ford, 2025-03-10T00:00:00Z Parade's End is a tetralogy of novels by the British novelist and poet Ford Madox Ford, 1873-1939, first published from 1924 to 1928, public domain. The novels chronicle the life of a member of the English gentry before, during, and after World War I. The setting is mainly England and the Western Front of the First World War, in which Ford had served as an officer in the Welch Regiment, a life he vividly depicts. Christopher Tietjens has long loved the beautiful young suffragette Valentine, but the pair are held apart by Christopher's loyalty to his wife Sylvia despite her callous infidelities and to a set of principles which belong to an old world and which are about to be swallowed up in the mud and chaos of the Western Front. This majestic four-part novel is one of the finest achievements of 20th-century literature.

Best Debut Short Stories 2023

Sarah Lyn Rogers,Summer Farah,2023-09-26 The essential annual guide to the newest voices in literature Selected by Venita Blackburn Richard Chiem and Dantiel W Moniz Best Debut Short Stories is an annual celebration of the most promising short story writers today Selected by a panel of distinguished judges these twelve stories are the 2023 winners of the PEN Robert J Dau Short Story Prize for Emerging Writers which recognizes each writer's outstanding debut in a literary magazine. The stories in this anthology encompass fraught family gatherings, death, inheritance, reproduction and birth, translation, secrets and betrayals. They show us what we would rather not face: a grandmother's repeated resurrection, the loss of a child, a family's excuses for a predator. They direct our attention away from fluorescence and to the natural world: iguanas climbing into beds, a reflection in an orange sweat like rain drops, gossamer petals, a child named Ant. They question how well we can ever know other people, partners reconsidering each other on the brink of divorce, an imaginary roommate. They remind us that some questions have no perfect answer. Why pretend not to understand someone in need? What can anyone do with anxieties over becoming a parent? This year's stories were selected by judges Venita Blackburn, Richard Chiem, and Dantiel W. Moniz, innovators of the short story form. Each story is accompanied by an introduction from the journal editor who first published it, providing insight about what's exciting in fiction right now and recognizing the vital work literary magazines do in nurturing new voices.

The Parade's End Tetralogy: Some Do Not, No More Parades, A Man Could Stand Up & Last Post Ford Madox Ford, 2023-11-29. The Parade's End Tetralogy comprising Some Do Not, No More Parades, A Man Could Stand Up, and Last Post is a masterful exploration of the disillusionment wrought by World War I. Ford Madox Ford employs a modernist literary style characterized by its stream of consciousness technique, fragmented narrative, and rich psychological depth. Set against the backdrop of the tumultuous years before, during, and after the war, Ford intricately weaves the lives of his characters, primarily focusing on Christopher Tietjens, a soldier grappling with societal expectations and personal convictions amidst the chaos of change. The tetralogy vividly captures the erosion of traditional values, reflecting the larger existential crises faced by a generation.

Ford Madox Ford, a pivotal figure in early 20th-century literature, was deeply influenced by his own experiences of war and the shifting social landscape of his time. Born in 1873 and steeped in the literary circles of Edwardian England, Ford's works often grapple with themes of identity, loyalty, and the moral complexities of war. His own service in the army and his relationships with fellow writers such as Joseph Conrad and Ezra Pound shaped his narrative techniques and thematic concerns, making this tetralogy an essential reflection on contemporary society. This profound and poignant tetralogy is highly recommended for readers seeking a deeper understanding of the effects of war on the human psyche and societal norms. Ford's nuanced examination of love, duty, and betrayal, set against the historical backdrop, resonates with modern audiences. For anyone interested in modernist literature and the human condition, The Parade's End Tetralogy is an indispensable addition to your reading list.
