Of Memory A Study Of Memory In Medieval Culture:

The Book of Memory Mary Carruthers, 2008-05-01 Mary Carruthers's classic study of the training and uses of memory for a variety of purposes in European cultures during the Middle Ages has fundamentally changed the way scholars understand medieval culture. This fully revised and updated second edition considers afresh all the material and conclusions of the first. While responding to new directions in research inspired by the original, this new edition devotes much more attention to the role of trained memory in composition, whether of literature, music, architecture, or manuscript books. The new edition will reignite the debate on memory in medieval studies and like the first will be essential reading for scholars of history, music, the arts, and literature, as well as those interested in issues of orality and literacy, anthropology, in the working and design of memory, both neuropsychology and artificial memory, and in the disciplines of meditation, religion.

The Book of Memory Mary J. Carruthers, 1992-05-14 The Book of Memory is a magisterial and beautifully illustrated account of the workings and function of memory in medieval society. Memory was the psychological faculty valued above all others in the period stretching from late antiquity through the Renaissance. The prominence given to memory has profound implications for the contemporary understanding of all creative activity and the social role of literature and art. Drawing on a range of fascinating examples from Dante, Chaucer, and Aquinas to the symbolism of illuminated manuscripts, this unusually wide-ranging book offers new insights into the medieval world.

narrative histories cartularies and Libri memoriales and thus particular perceptions of the Frankish and Christian past It analyses both original manuscript material and key historical texts from the Carolingian period a remarkably creative period in the history of European culture Presentations of the past developed in this period were crucial in forming an historical understanding of the Greco Roman and Judaeo Christian past and in subsequent centuries of early medieval Europe They also played an extraordinarily influential role in the formation of political ideologies and senses of identity within Europe

Memory and Affect in Shakespeare's England Jonathan Baldo, Isabel Karremann, 2023-07-27 This is the first collection to systematically combine the study of memory and affect in early modern culture Essays by leading and emergent scholars in the field of Shakespeare studies offer an innovative research agenda inviting new exploratory approaches to Shakespeare's work that embrace interdisciplinary cross fertilization Drawing on the contexts of Renaissance literature across genres and on various discourses including rhetoric medicine religion morality historiography colonialism and politics the chapters bring together a broad range of texts concerns and methodologies central to the study of early modern culture Stimulating for postgraduate students lecturers and researchers with an interest in the broader fields of memory studies and the history of the emotions two vibrant and growing areas of research it will also prove invaluable to teachers of Shakespeare dramaturges and directors of stage productions provoking discussions of how convergences of memory and affect influence stagecraft dramaturgy rhetoric and poetic language

The Making of Memory in the Middle Ages Lucie Doležalová, 2009-11-17 Memory in the Middle Ages has received particular attention in recent decades yet the topic remains difficult to grasp and the research on it rather fragmented This book gathers particular case studies on memory in different parts of medieval Europe and in a variety of fields including literatures languages manuscript studies history history of ideas philosophy social history and art history The studies address on the one hand memory as means of storing and recuperating knowledge arts of memory and memory aids and on the other hand memory as remembering and constructing the past including the subject of forgetting It should be useful to all interested in medieval culture literature and history Contributors are Milena Bartlov Bergsveinn Birgisson Irene Bueno Vincent Challet Greti Dinkova Bruun Lucie Doležalová David Falvey Carmen Florea Cădric Giraud Laura Iseppi de Filippis Farkas Gábor Kiss Róbert Lorenz Else Mundal Előd Némethy William J Purkis Slavica Rankovi Lucia Raspe Kimberly Rivers Victoria Smirnova Francesco Stella Peter Tóth Tamás Visi Jon Whitman and Rafał Wójcik

The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric Lynée Lewis Gaillet, Winifred Bryan Horner, 2010-03-15 Through two previous editions The Present State of Scholarship in Historical and Contemporary Rhetoric has not only introduced new scholars to interdisciplinary research but also become a standard research tool in a number of fields and pointed the way toward future study Adopting research methodologies of revision and recovery this latest edition includes all new material while still following the format of the original and is constructed around bibliographical surveys of both primary and secondary works addressing the Classical Medieval Renaissance and eighteenth through twentieth century periods within the history of rhetoric The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric doesn't simply update but rather recasts study in the history of rhetoric The authors experienced and well known scholars in their respective fields redefine existing strands of rhetorical study within the periods expand the scope of rhetorical engagement and include additional figures and their works The globalization and expansion of rhetoric are demonstrated in each of these parts and seen clearly in the inclusion of more female rhetors discussions of historical and contemporary electronic resources and examinations of rhetorical practices falling outside the academy and the traditional canon New to this edition is a cumulative review of twentieth century rhetoric along with a thematic index designed to facilitate interdisciplinary or specialized study and scholarly research across the traditional historical periods As programs incorporating rhetorical studies continue to expand at the university level students and researchers are in need of up to date bibliographical resources No other work matches the scope and approach of The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric which carries scholarship on rhetoric into the twenty first century

Shakespeare and Memory Hester Lees-Jeffries, 2013-08-22 Shakespeare and Memory explores Shakespeare's plays and poems in the light of current interest in memory studies It sets out key features of the historical religious and cultural context of Shakespeare's own time

Memory in the Bible and Antiquity Stephen C. Barton, Loren T. Stuckenbruck, Benjamin G. Wold, 2007 The volume brings together essays that explore the topic of memory and remembrance in the ancient world taking into account the Hebrew Bible ancient Judaism the classical world the New Testament and Early Christianity The essays which focus on a wide range of sources from antiquity open up new questions about the social and religious function of memory As a collection they demonstrate how much social memory theory can contribute to the understanding of the ways ancient texts were on the one hand shaped by conventions of memory and on the other hand participated in and contributed to evolving strategies for reading the past Contributors Loren T Stuckenbruck Stephen C Barton Benjamin G Wold Joachim Schaper Erhard Blum Hermann Lichtenberger William Horbury John M G Barclay Doron Mendels Anthony Le Donne James D G Dunn Martin Hengel Ulrike Mittmann Richert Anna Maria Schwemer Hans Joachim Eckstein Markus Bockmuehl

Performing European Memories Milija Gluhovic, 2013-04-23 Asking whether a genuinely shared European memory is possible while addressing the dangers of a single homogenized European memory Gluhovic examines the contradictions specificities continuities and discontinuities in the European shared and unshared pasts as represented in the works of Pinter Tadeusz Kantor Heiner Muller and Artur Zmijewski

Monuments and Memory in Early Modern England Peter Sherlock, 2016-12-05 Funeral monuments are fascinating and diverse cultural relics that continue to captivate visitors to English churches yet we still know relatively little about the messages they attempt to convey across the centuries This book is a study of the material culture of memory in sixteenth and seventeenth century England By interpreting the images and inscriptions on monuments to the dead it explores how early modern people wanted to be remembered their social vision cultural ideals religious beliefs and political values Arguing that early modern English monuments were not simply formulaic statements about death and memory Dr Sherlock instead reveals them to be deliberately crafted messages to future generations Through careful reading of monuments he shows that much can be learned about how men and women conceived of the world around them and shifting concepts of gender social order and the place of humans within the universe In post Reformation England the dead became superior to the living as monuments trumpeted their fame and their confidence in the resurrection This study aims to stimulate historians to attempt to reconstruct and engage with the world view of past generations through the unique and under utilised medium of funeral monuments In so doing it is hoped that more light may be shed on how memory was created controlled and contested in pre modern society and encourage the on going debate about the ways in which understandings of the past shape the present and future

Shakespeare's Memory Theatre Lina Perkins Wilder,2010-11-04 Wilder examines the excessive remembering of figures such as Romeo Falstaff and Hamlet as a way of defining Shakespeare s theatricality

Augustine on Memory Kevin G. Grove,2021 Augustine of Hippo indisputably one of the most important figures for the study of memory is credited with establishing memory as the inner source of selfhood and locus of the search for God Yet those who study memory in Augustine have never before taken into account his preaching His sermons are the sources of memory s greatest development for Augustine In Augustine s preaching especially on the Psalms the interior gives way to communal exterior Both the self and search for God are re established in a shared Christological identity and the communal labors of remembering and forgetting This book opens with Augustine s early works and Confessions as the beginning of memory and concludes with Augustine s Trinity and preaching on Psalm 50 as the end of memory The heart of the book the work of memory sets forth how ongoing remembering and forgetting in Christ are for Augustine are foundational to the life of grace To that end Augustine and his congregants go leaping in memory together keep festival with abiding traces and become forgetful runners like St Paul Remembering and forgetting in Christ the ongoing work of memory prove for Augustine to be actions of reconciliation of the distended experiences of human life of praising and groaning labouring and resting solitude and communion Augustine on Memory presents this new communal and Christological paradigm not only for Augustinian studies but also for theologians philosophers ethicists and interdisciplinary scholars of memory

Mind, Soul and the Cosmos in the High Middle Ages Jack P. Cunningham,Adam Foxon,Rosamund M. Gammie,2025-01-24 This is a unique volume in which a critical introduction and multiple chapters offer a wide ranging discussion of medieval conceptions of the nature of humankind its relationship with the universe and the processes of thinking by which both are conceptualized Concentrating on the centuries spanning the High Middle Ages chapters include in depth analyses of such ideas as the habit as the ultimate dwelling place of the soul the Soul of the Universe and its relation to humanity and the Agent Intellect s part in the functions of the mind regarding abstraction and intuition This book explores how metaphysical Intelligences interact with our movements how the desires of our minds affect the acquisition of knowledge as well as asking how and why analysis of the makeup of animal souls took place The High Middle Ages was a crucially important epoch in the history of intellectual endeavor This volume appeals to students and researchers it discusses and evaluates the contributions on the subjects of mind soul and the cosmos of some of the finest Christian Jewish and Moslem intellects in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries Theologians philosophers and cosmologists include Aquinas Grosseteste Avicenna Gersonides Buridan the School of Chartres as well as many others The overarching theme of this collection of essays is that vitally new conceptions of what it meant to be a rational Human the purpose of thought in relation to the journey of the soul and the metaphysical character of our universe contributed enormously to the paradigm shifting nature of this age
