Alford, 2014-01-10 During World War II the Nazis plundered from occupied countries millions of items of incalculable value estimated in the hundreds of millions of dollars Spearheaded by Hermann Goring the looting program quickly created the largest private art collection in the world exceeding the collections amassed by the Metropolitan in New York the British Museum in London the Louvre in Paris and the Tretyakov Gallery in Moscow By the end of the war the Nazis had stolen roughly one fifth of the entire art treasures of the world This book explores the formation of the Nazi art collection and the methods used by Goring and his party to strip occupied Europe of a large part of its artistic heritage Handbook of the Collection Elvehjem Museum of Art, 1990 Highlights of the permanent collection Distributed for the Chazen Museum of Art University of Wisconsin Madison Smithsonian Institution United States. Congress. House. Committee on House Administration. Subcommittee on Library and Memorials, 1971 Publications of the U.S. Army Center of Military History Center of Military History, 2003 The Palgrave Handbook of Artistic and Cultural Responses to War since 1914 Martin Kerby, Margaret Baguley, Janet McDonald, 2018-12-05 This handbook explores a diverse range of artistic and cultural responses to modern conflict from Mons in the First World War to Kabul in the twenty first century With over thirty chapters from an international range of contributors ranging from the UK to the US and Australia and working across history art literature and media it offers a significant interdisciplinary contribution to the study of modern war and our artistic and cultural responses to it The handbook is divided into three parts The first part explores how communities and individuals responded to loss and grief by using art and culture to assimilate the experience as an act of survival and resilience The second part explores how conflict exerts a powerful influence on the expression and formation of both individual group racial cultural and national identities and the role played by art literature and education in this process The third part moves beyond the actual experience of conflict and its connection with issues of identity to explore how individuals and society have made use of art and culture to commemorate the war In this way it offers a unique breadth of vision and perspective to explore how conflicts have been both represented and remembered since the early twentieth century G.A. 100 National Museum of American History (U.S.). Exhibiting Italian Art in the United States from Futurism to Arte Povera Raffaele Bedarida,2022-06-28 This volume explores how Italian institutions dealers critics and artists constructed a modern national identity for Italy by exporting literally and figuratively contemporary art to the United States in key moments between 1929 and 1969 From artist Fortunato Depero opening his Futurist House in New York City to critic Germano Celant launching Arte Povera in the United States Raffaele Bedarida examines the thick web of individuals and cultural environments beyond the two more canonical movements that shaped this project By interrogating standard narratives of Italian Fascist propaganda on the one hand and American Cold War imperialism on the other this book establishes a more nuanced transnational approach The central thesis is that beyond the immediate aims of political propaganda and conquering a new market for Italian art these art exhibitions publications and the critical discourse aimed at American audiences all reflected back on their makers they forced and helped Italians define their own modernity in relation to the world s new dominant cultural and economic power The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history social history exhibition history and Italian studies

English, Colonial, Modern and Maori Anna Crichton,2014-11-24 How and why do works make their way into a public art collection Who decides what will be hung on the walls placed on plinths displayed in cases These important but seldom discussed questions lie at the heart of this cultural biography of the 70 years during which the Robert McDougall Art Gallery was Christchurch s civic art gallery The book explains how the collection came together how it developed and how the public and artists and critics reacted to it The book is presented in three parts each of which has its own introduction It provides an analytical framework in detail and in context by defining terms and explaining particular recurrent concepts These include and indeed highlight selection and presentation cultures derived from the core museological functions of collection and display These together with the framework s other concepts are related to mainstream methodology in the social sciences particularly political science The latter is especially relevant to the study of a public art gallery owned and funded by the public and its elected representatives and controlled by these representatives and their appointed agents Furthermore the framework explores the concept of post colonial tensions between heritages specifically indigenous transplanted and autochthonous ones The significance of this becomes more apparent when the concepts used in relevant previous studies of specific public art galleries in New Zealand are reviewed There is also a strong emphasis on the development of a public Maori art collection It is a story too of vivid and influential personalities the directors and curators who fought for the gallery and the artists represented in it But the book is more than just the story of a single gallery s collection it shines a light on concerns and patterns that will be familiar to galleries everywhere and provides a unique perspective on New Zealand s cultural development over much of the twentieth century

Eurovision and Australia Chris Hay, Jessica Carniel, 2019-07-25 This book investigates Australia s relationship with the Eurovision Song Contest over time and place from its first screening on SBS in 1983 to Australia s inaugural national selection in 2019 Beginning with an overview of Australia s Eurovision history the contributions explore the contest s role in Australian political participation and international relations its significance for Australia s diverse communities including migrants and the LGBTQIA community racialised and gendered representations of Australianness changing ideas of liveness in watching the event and a reflection on teaching Australia s first undergraduate course dedicated to the Eurovision Song Contest The collection brings together a group of scholar fans from a variety of interdisciplinary perspectives including history politics cultural studies performance studies and musicology to explore Australia s transition from observer to participant in the first thirty six years of its love affair with the Eurovision Song Contest Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1969 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Dimension ,1955 French News ,1963 Huntington Library, Art Collections, and Botanical Gardens Annual Report Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery, 1967 Reclaiming and Redefining American Exhibitions of Russian Art Roann Barris, 2023-08-23 This book examines the history of American exhibitions of Russian art in the twentieth century in the context of the Cold War Because this history reflects changes in museological theory and the role of governments in facilitating or preventing intercultural cooperation it uncovers a story that is far more complex than a chronological listing of exhibition names and art works Roann Barris considers questions of stylistic appropriations and influences and the role of museum exhibitions in promoting international and artistic exchanges Barris reveals that Soviet and American exchanges in the world of art were extensive and persistent despite political disagreements before during and after the Cold War It also reveals that these early exhibitions communicated contradictory and historically invalid pictures of the Russian or Soviet avant garde The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies and Russian studies Blake in Our Time Karen Mulhallen, 2010-01-01 Blake in Our Time explores the work of British poet and artist William Blake in the context of the material culture of his era In the 1960s University of Toronto scholar G E Bentley Jr almost singlehandedly shifted the focus of Blake criticism from formalism and symbolism to the materiality that contextualizes Blake s work Following in the footsteps of Bentley s pioneering scholarship this collection richly illustrated demonstrates that the locus of Blake s work lies in the elements that are historically particular to his place and time Topics include the impact of the town of Chichester on Blake s imagination the material processes of Blake s painting the detection of a Blake forgery and new biographical materials using archives and online resources on Blake s contemporaries patrons peers and friends Essays on the importance of Blake collections world wide on variant printings and on the heirs of Blake in British painting extend the focus of this remarkable investigation to include chalcography and book history Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology ,1998
