Multinationals and Canada-United States Free Trade Alan M. Rugman, 1990 Multinationals in Canada: Theory, Performance and Economic Impact A.M. Rugman, 2013-03-09 Multinational enterprises have become one of the distinctive institutions of our times Controversy over their economic and political effects and over appropriate public policy responses has become common in home and host countries and in international agencies Much of this debate is reminiscent of the role of large corporations generally particularly in their interregional and intergroup effects The multinational setting however would have raised distinctive issues even apart from the strong surges of nationalism and anti imperialism which have marked recent history Canada has a long and unusual experience with such enterprises Foreign control of capital in the nonfinancial industries manufacturing petroleum and gas other mining and smelting utilities merchandising was already 20 percent in 1930 and 25 percent in 1948 It rose to 36 percent by the late 1960s but has since receded to about 30 percent In 1975 fully 55 percent of the capital in manufacturing was controlled outside Canada as was 72 per cent of that in petroleum and gas and 58 percent in other mining These figures exceed those of other developed countries although there have been striking increases in recent decades About 80 percent of the direct investment capital in Canada is from the United States Recently Canadians have become aware of a surge of Canadian direct investment abroad which on a flow basis has exceeded inflows exclusive of retained earnings for most of the 1970s Standardising Employment Growth Rates of Foreign Multinationals and Domestic Firms in Canada Michael Ray, 1990 Canadian Multinationals Jorge Niosi, 1985 Governance, Multinationals, and Growth Lorraine Eden, Wendy Dobson, 2005-01-01 Contiene Foreword by Peter J Buckley Part I Introduction Part II Corporate Governance Multinationals and Growth Part III Free Trade Multinationals and Growth Part IV Public Governance Multinationals and Growth Part V Conclusions Foreign Multinationals in the United States Lina Gálvez-Muñoz, Geoffrey G Jones, 2005-07-26 In this volume leading scholars in international business and business history in the United States Europe and Japan examine the experiences of a range of firms in the United States They survey British Canadian French German Spanish and Japanese firms and span a range of sectors including automobiles banking electricals petroleum and steel Together their contributions present a unique evolutionary and comparative perspective on the management and performance of foreign companies in the United States since 1945 This book is essential reading for all those with a professional or academic interest in international business management business history or business in the United States Taxing Multinationals Lorraine Eden, 1998-01-01 Eden examines how transfer pricing has been handled in different disciplines including international business economics
