Blind Mirror:

Blind Narrations and Artistic Subjectivities Aravinda Bhat, 2023-07-11 Blind Narrations and Artistic Subjectivities Corporeal Refractions makes an important contribution to the field of blindness studies by highlighting the centrality of blindness in literary compositions. It presents a critical interpretation of selected prose writings by three blind authors: Argentine poet, short story writer and essayist Jorge Luis Borges; Australian religious educator and diarist John M. Hull; and the American memoirist and poet Stephen Kuusisto. The volume discusses themes like theorising the corporeality of writing, aesthetic turn to the experience of blindness, altered sensation and self-understanding, lived experience of growing blind, self-knowledge through interaction with the world, artistic subjectivity, narrative choices and the implied author. This book will be useful for scholars and researchers of blindness studies, disability studies, arts and aesthetics, literature, cultural studies and philosophy.

Narrative Fiction and Death Sabine Köllmann, 2023-09-29 Narrative Fiction and Death Dying Imagined offers a new perspective on the study of death in literature. It focuses on narrative fiction that conveys the experience of dying from the internal perspective of a dying protagonist. Writers from Victor Hugo in the early 1800s to Elif Shafak in the present day have imagined the unknowable final moments on the threshold to death. This literary study examines the wide range of narrative strategies used to evoke the transition from life to death and to what effect, revealing not only each writer's unique way of representing the dying experience. The comparative reading also finds common concerns in these texts and uncovers surprising parallels and unexplored intertextual relations between works across time and space that will interest comparatists as well as specialists in the literatures discussed. Students of individual texts examined here will benefit from detailed analyses of these works. The fictional evocation of dying addresses our basic human fears, offering catharsis, consolation and a greater cognitive and emotional understanding of that unknowable experience. Presented in an engaging and highly readable manner, this study argues for literature's potential to challenge our assumptions about the end of life and change our approach to dying, an aspect that will interest students and researchers of the health humanities, palliative caregivers and all those interested in questions of the end of life.

Mirrors in Mark Edmond Smith, 2014-09-23 Do you desire to go deeper still in your understanding of the New Testament Scriptures? In Mirrors in Mark you will find a fresh and arresting approach to most of the New Testament, drawing on the mnemonic methods that were common to the ancient world and employed by writers of the Scriptures. Much of the fascination of Mark's Gospel, Mark receives particular attention in this book, lies in the use of catchwords and catch phrases to stamp on our minds the words and works of Jesus. The other works of the New Testament treated in this way are Romans, Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, Titus, Philemon, Hebrews, James 1 and 2, Peter, Jude and Revelation. The book of Revelation features quite largely, yielding up many invaluable insights into its apocalyptic nature. This book will prove to be a constant companion to the serious student of the sacred writings.

Blindness Moshe Barasch, 2001-04-13 This is a remarkable study of how Western culture has represented blindness.

especially in that most visual of arts painting Moshe Barasch draws upon not only the span of art history from antiquity to the eighteenth century but also the classical and biblical traditions that underpin so much of artistic representation Blind Homer the healing of the blind blind musicians blindness as punishment blindness as a special mark The book discusses blindness in antiquity in the Early Christian world in the Middle Ages and in the Renaissance with a final consideration of Diderot
