It now encompasses a global spectrum of texts and practices in such media as graphic memoir, auto-photography, performance, and plastic arts, film, and video, and online.

platforms Reading Autobiography Now offers both a critical engagement with life narrative in historical perspective and a theoretical framework for interpreting texts and practices in this wide ranging field Hailed upon its initial publication as the Whole Earth Catalog of autobiography studies this essential book has been updated reorganized and expanded in scope to serve as an accessible and contemporary guide for scholars students and practitioners Sidonie Smith and Julia Watson explore definitions of life narrative probe issues of subjectivity and outline salient features of autobiographical acts and practices In this updated edition they address emergent topics such as autotheory autofiction and autoethnography expand the discussions of identity relationality and agency and introduce new material on autobiographical archives and the profusion of I s in contemporary works Smith and Watson also provide a helpful toolkit of strategies for reading life narrative and an extensive glossary of mini essays analyzing key theoretical concepts and dozens of autobiographical genres An indispensable exploration of this expansive transnational multimedia field Reading Autobiography Now meticulously unpacks the heterogeneous modes of life narratives through which people tell their stories from traditional memoirs and trauma narratives to collaborative life narrative and autobiographical comics

Fathers in the Motherland Swapna M Banerjee, 2022-08-03 This monograph breaks new ground by weaving stories of fathers and children into the history of gender family and nation in colonial India Focusing on the reformist Bengali Hindu and Brahmo communities the author contends that fatherhood assumed new meaning and significance in late nineteenth and early twentieth century India During this time of social and political change fathers extended their roles beyond breadwinning to take an active part in rearing their children Utilizing pedagogic literature articles in scientific journals autobiographies correspondence and published essays Fathers in a Motherland documents the different ways the authority and power of the father was invoked and constituted both metaphorically and in everyday experiences Exploring specific moments when educated men as biological fathers literary activists and educators assumed guardianship and became crucial agents of change Banerjee interrogates the connections between fatherhood and masculinity The last chapter of the book moves beyond Bengal and draws on the lives of Mohandas K Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru to provide a broader salience to its argument Reclaiming two missing links in Indian history fathers and children the book argues that biological and imaginary fathers assumed the moral guardianship of an incipient nation and rested their hopes and dreams on the future generation

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Transnational Perspectives on Artists' Lives Marleen Rensen, Christopher Wiley, 2020-10-06 This book demonstrates the significance of transnationality for studying and writing the lives of artists While painters musicians and writers have long been cast as symbols of their associated nations recent research is increasingly drawing attention to those aspects of their lives and works that resist or challenge the national framework The volume showcases different ways of treating transnationality in life writing by and about artists investigating how the transnational can offer intriguing new insights on artists who straddle different nations and cultures It further explores ways of adopting transnational perspectives in artists biographies in order to deal with experiences of cultural otherness or international influences and analyses cross cultural representations of artists in biography and biofiction Gathering together insights from biographers and scholars with expertise in literature music and the visual arts Transnational Perspectives on Artists Lives opens up rich avenues for researching transnationality in the cultural domain at large

Scholarly Adventures in Digital Humanities Claire Battershill, Helen Southworth, Alice Staveley, Michael Widner, Elizabeth Willson Gordon, Nicola Wilson, 2017-05-17 This book addresses the gap between print and digital scholarly approaches by combining both praxis and theory in a case study of a new international collaborative digital project the Modernist Archives Publishing Project MAPP MAPP is an international collaborative digital project funded by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada that uses digital tools to showcase archival traces of twentieth century publishing The twenty first century has witnessed and is living through some of the most dynamic changes ever experienced in the publishing industry arguably altering our very understanding of what it means to read a book This book brings to both general readers and scholarly researchers a new way of accessing and thereby assessing the historical meanings of change within the twentieth century publication industry by building a resource which organises interacts with and uses historical information about book culture to narrate the continuities and discontinuities in reading and publishing over the last century

Self Impression Max Saunders, 2010-04-22 I am aware that once my pen intervenes I can make whatever I like out of what I was Paul Val ry Moi Modernism is often characterized as a movement of impersonality a rejection of auto biography But most of the major works of European modernism and postmodernism engage in very profound and central ways with questions about life writing Max Saunders explores the ways in which modern writers from the 1870s to the 1930s experimented with forms of life writing biography autobiography memoir diary journal increasingly for the purposes of fiction He identifies a wave of new hybrid forms from the late nineteenth century and uses the term autobiografiction discovered in a surprisingly early essay of 1906 to provide a fresh perspective on turn of the century literature and to propose a radically new literary history of Modernism Saunders offers a taxonomy of the extraordinary variety of experiments with life writing demonstrating how they arose in the nineteenth century as the pressures of secularization and psychological theory disturbed the categories of biography and autobiography in works by authors such as Pater Ruskin Proust Mark Rutherford George Gissing and A C Benson He goes on to look at writers experimenting further with autobiografiction as Impressionism turns into Modernism juxtaposing detailed and vivacious readings of key Modernist texts by Joyce Stein Pound and Woolf with explorations of the work of other authors including H G Wells Henry James Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford and Wyndham Lewis whose experiments with life writing forms are no less striking The book concludes with a consideration of the afterlife of these fascinating experiments in the postmodern literature of Nabokov Lessing and Byatt Self Impression sheds light on a number of significant but under theorized issues the meanings of autobiographical the generic implications of literary autobiography and the intriguing relation between autobiography and fiction in the period
