Collins, 2023-12-15 This book challenges the perceived underlying causes and culprits of the ongoing challenges in Canadian defence procurement arguing that although headlines often put the blame on the political leadership the defence procurement bureaucracy ongoing pressures in the defence industry and continuous demands placed on Canada though its alliances also carry a large part of the responsibility Focusing on four main case studies the Fixed Wing Search and Rescue Plane the Joint Support Ships the Medium Support Vehicle System and the Halifax Class Modernization the author offers a comparative analysis of how these ongoing procurement efforts were dealt with by different administrations from Jean Chr tien and Paul Martin to Stephen Harper The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Politics John Courtney,John Childs Courtney,David Smith,2010-04-29 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Politics provides a comprehensive overview of the transformation that has occurred in Canadian politics since it achieved autonomy nearly a century ago examining the institutions and processes of Canadian government and politics at the local provincial and federal levels It analyzes all aspects of the Canadian political system the courts elections political parties Parliament the constitution fiscal and political federalism the diffusion of policies between regions and various aspects of public policy The Politics of Procurement Aaron Plamondon,2010-07-01 In 1993 Canada s Liberal Party cancelled an order to replace the Sea King maritime helicopter The Liberals claimed the Tory plan was too expensive but the cancellation itself actually cost taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars The incident drew public attention to the waste in Canada s defence spending and to the under equipped state of its military Aaron Plamondon ties the bungled attempts to replace the Sea King before and since 1993 to the evolution of the weapons procurement process in Canada since Confederation He reveals that partisan politics rather than a desire to increase the military s capabilities has driven the nation s policy makers The Canada Year Book ,1974 The First Casualty Deborah Harrison,Lucie Laliberté,2002-05-17 Military wives are among the women most vulnerable to abuse in our society isolated from friends and family in a culture that ostracizes those who speak up they face desperate financial circumstances and lack professional support in times of crisis Deborah Harrison and her collaborators interview more than 100 survivors of abuse and their partners in this groundbreaking study of violence against women in military communities Despite a policy of zero tolerance abusive behaviour continues fostered by a culture centred on constant preparation for violent conflict and covered up by an ethos that demands members protect one another at all costs The First Casualty is a riveting account of how military culture contributes to abuse keeps it secret and attempts to silence its victims Command in NATO After the Cold War Thomas-Durell Young,1999-02 A series of essays on the changes in command and control C the NATO CJTF C command authorities and multinationality in NATO Canadian forces in Europe France s military command structures in the 1990s centralizing German operational C Italy s command structure Portugal s defense structures and NATO present and future command structure a Danish view and NATO restructuring and enlargement Charts and maps The Routledge Research Companion to Security Outsourcing Joakim Berndtsson,Christopher Kinsey,2016-06-10 Conveniently structured into five sections The Routledge Research Companion to Outsourcing Security offers an overview of the different ways in which states have come to rely on private contractors to support interventions Part One puts into context the evolution of outsourcing in Western states that are actively involved in expeditionary operations as well as the rise of the commercial security sector in Afghanistan To explain the various theoretical frameworks that students can use to study security military outsourcing Part Two outlines the theories behind security outsourcing Part Three examines the law and ethics surrounding the outsourcing of security by focusing on how states might monitor contractor behaviour hold them to account and prosecute them where their behaviour warrants such action The drivers politics and consequences of outsourcing foreign policy are covered in Part Four which is divided into two sections section one is concerned with armed contractors providing the provision of private security with the main driver being a capability gap on the part of the military law enforcement agencies and section two looks at military contractors supporting military operations right back to antiquity less controversial politically and often technologically driven The final Part takes into consideration emerging perspectives exploring areas such as gender feminist methodology maritime security and the impact of private security on the military profession This book will be of much interest to students of military and security studies foreign policy and International Relations
