Citizenship, Migrant Activism and the Politics of Movement Peter Nyers, Kim Rygiel, 2012-02-13 Migration is an inescapable issue in the public debates and political agendas of Western countries with refugees and migrants increasingly viewed through the lens of security This book analyses recent shifts in governing global mobility from the perspective of the politics of citizenship utilising an interdisciplinary approach that employs politics sociology anthropology and history Featuring an international group of leading and emerging researchers working on the intersection of migrant politics and citizenship studies this book investigates how restrictions on mobility are not only generating new forms of inequality and social exclusion but also new forms of political activism and citizenship identities The chapters present and discuss the perspectives experiences knowledge and voices of migrants and migrant rights activists in order to better understand the specific strategies tactics and knowledge that politicized non citizen migrant groups produce in their encounters with border controls and security technologies The book focuses the debate of migration security and mobility rights onto grassroots politics and social movements making an important intervention into the fields of migration studies and critical citizenship

studies Citizenship Migrant Activism and the Politics of Movement will be of interest to students and scholars of migration and security politics globalisation and citizenship studies Transnational Marriage and Partner Migration Anne-Marie D'Aoust,2022-02-11 This multidisciplinary collection investigates the ways in which marriage and partner migration processes have become the object of state scrutiny and the site of sustained political interventions in several states around the world Covering cases as varied as the United States Canada Japan Iran France Belgium or the Netherlands among others contributors reveal how marriage and partner migration have become battlegrounds for political participation control and exclusion Which forms of attachments towards the family the nation or specific individuals have become framed as risks to be managed How do such preoccupations translate into policies With what consequences for those affected by them in terms of rights and access to citizenship The book answers these questions by analyzing the interplay between issues of security citizenship and rights from the perspectives of migrants and policymakers but also from actors who negotiate encounters with the state such as lawyers non governmental organizations and translators Refugees, Recent Migrants and Employment Sonia McKay,2008-11-14 Pt 1 Concepts and methodologies pt 2 State policies in relation to migrants and refugees pt 3 Structural discrimination and strategies of response The Grants Register 2023 Palgrave Macmillan,2022-09-28 The Grants Register 2023 is the most authoritative and comprehensive guide available of postgraduate and professional funding worldwide It contains international coverage of grants in almost 60 countries both English and non English speaking information on subject areas level of study eligibility and value of awards and information on over 6 000 awards provided by over 1 300 awarding bodies Awarding bodies are arranged alphabetically with a full list of awards to allow for comprehensive reading The Register contains full contact details including telephone fax email and websites as well as details of application procedures and closing dates It is updated annually to ensure accurate information

A Bibliography of Works on Canadian Foreign Relations, 1991-1995 Jennifer McNenly,Canadian Institute of International Affairs,1998 Institutional Disrespect Ibolya Losoncz,2019-06-24 This book is about the institutional disrespect experienced by refugee immigrants at the hands of the state and its institutions The desire to be treated respectfully is not felt only by refugees but they are a much higher risk of not receiving it Using a case study of recently settled South Sudanese Australians the author uncovers the social realities of their marginalisation and examines how blocked pathways to cultivate collective and self identities can lead to a breakdown of social bonds between immigrants and social institutions Institutional Disrespect invites us to take a fresh look at whose responsibility it is to address the disrespect felt by immigrants and other marginalised groups and argues that when disrespect is systemic in governance arrangements or comes in the forms of injustice and institutional mistreatment the responsibility lies not with individuals but with the state its institutions and its appointed bureaucrats Systemic Islamophobia in Canada Anver M. Emon,2023-04-28 Systemic Islamophobia in Canada presents critical perspectives on systemic Islamophobia in Canadian politics law and society and maps areas for future research and inquiry The authors consist of both scholars and professionals who encounter in the ordinary course of their work the sometimes banal sometimes surprising operation of systemic Islamophobia Centring the lived realities of Muslims primarily in Canada but internationally as well the contributors identify the limits of democratic accountability in the operation of our shared institutions of government Intended as a guide the volume identifies important points of consideration that have systemic implications for whether how and under what conditions Islamophobia is enabled and perpetuated and in some cases even rendered respectable policy or bureaucratic practice in Canada Ultimately Systemic Islamophobia in Canada identifies a range of systemically Islamophobic sites in Canada to guide citizens and policymakers in fulfilling the promise of an inclusive democratic Canada Vancouver, Victoria and Whistler Ulysses Travel Guides,2006-02 Selling Diversity Yasmeen Abu-Laban,Christina Gabriel,2002-09-01 Using gender race ethnicity and class lenses to frame their analysis the authors review Canadian immigration multiculturalism and employment equity policies including their different historical origins to illustrate how a preference for selling diversity has emerged in the last decade Education, Immigration and Migration Khalid Arar,Jeffrey S.
