Creating Tomorrows Mass Media:

Creating Tomorrow's Mass Media Harry D. Marsh, 1995      Creating Tomorrow's Schools Today Richard Gerver, 2010-04-08 Drawing on the incredible story of Grange Primary School Gerver argues that our education system no longer works for today's generation of learners      Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes      Disappearing Architecture Georg Flachbart, Peter Weibel, 2005-09-09 The creation of new environments through the use of developments in Information Technology is significantly altering not only architecture itself but also the roles and tasks of the architects Architecture can no longer be described in the terms we are familiar with since it no longer corresponds to the form of architecture as we know it an inclusive and exclusive structure clearly defined with a single interior and a single exterior For architects the challenge of the future will increasingly lie in creatively coming to terms with hybrid environments understanding and exploiting the design potential of digital spaces within the physical world and redefining the role of architecture within a visually dominated culture This volume presents a valuable and attractive contribution to the contemporary discussion on this subject      Remembering Tomorrow Michael Albert, 2011-01-04 In this lucid political memoir veteran anti capitalist activist Michael Albert offers an ardent defense of the project to transform global inequality Albert a uniquely visionary figure recounts a life of uncompromising commitment to creating change one step at a time Whether chronicling the battles against the Vietnam War those waged on Boston campuses or the challenges of creating living breathing alternative social models Albert brings a keen and unwavering sense of justice to his work pointing the way forward for the next generation      All Tomorrow's Cultures Samuel Gerald Collins, 2008-03-01 How will we live in the future Are we moving towards global homogeneity Will the world succumb to the global spread of fast food and Hollywood movies Or are there other possibilities In this book Samuel Collins argues not only for the importance of the future of culture but also stresses its centrality in anthropological thought over the last century Beginning with 19th century anthropology and continuing today in the work of anthropologies of emergent sciences anthropologists have not only used their knowledge of present cultural configurations to speculate on future culture but have also used their assumptions about the future of culture to understand the present      The Big Tomorrow Lary May, 2000-06-21 In this daring reexamination of the connections between national politics and Hollywood movies Lary May offers a fresh interpretation of American culture from the New Deal through the Cold War one in which a populist egalitarian ethos found itself eventually supplanted by a far different view of the nation One of the best books ever written about the movies Tom Ryan The Age The most exhilarating work of revisionist film history since Pauline Kael's Citizen Kane May's take on what movies once were energizing as opposed to enervating and hence can become again is enough to get you believing in them again as one of the regenerative forces America so sorely needs Jay Carr Boston Globe A startling revisionist history of Hollywood's impact on politics and American culture A convincing and important addition to American cultural criticism Publishers Weekly A controversial overview of 30 years of American film history must reading for any serious student of the subject Choice A provocative social history of Hollywood's influence in American life from the 1930s to the 1950s May argues persuasively that movies in the period offered a good deal of tough criticism of economic and social conditions in U S society May challenges us to engage in some serious rethinking about Hollywood's impact on American society in the middle of the twentieth century Robert Brent Toplin American Historical Review Making the Most of Tomorrow Matěj

The Media Creates Us in Its Image and Other Essays on Technology and Culture Richard Stivers, 2020-03-31 The Media Creates Us in Its Image and Other Essays on Technology and Culture proposes that modern technology seriously influences every aspect of culture and personality Technology shapes our beliefs and values and even how we think of ourselves It affects religion morality education language communication and sexual identity Every institution every organization is brought under its purview This book attempts to awaken the reader to the destructive side of modern technology that exists side by side with its constructive side What modern technology is destroying however is the very meaning of being human The essay The Media Creates Us in Its Image makes this case most dramatically The book asks the reader the following question Is what you have gained from the use of modern technology more important than what you have lost How do we once again bring technology under our control in the face of its inexorable progress Information Tomorrow Rachel Singer Gordon, 2007 In Information Tomorrow Rachel Singer Gordon brings together 20 of today's top thinkers on the intersections between libraries and technology They address various ways in which new technologies are impacting library services and share their ideas for using technology to meet patrons where they are In addition to a preface by the editor the book's foreword by Stephen Abram and 16 chapters feature insights and opinions from these library leaders bloggers and futurists

Tomorrow through the Past Jon Lewis, 2008-12-18 Tomorrow Through the Past Neal Stephenson and the Project of Global Modernization is the first collection of scholarly essays dedicated exclusively to this important voice in contemporary American fiction The collection grew from five essays originally presented at the 2006 XXth Century Literature Conference at the University of Louisville and the contributors are made up of graduate students independent scholars and university professors who hope the collection will aid general readers as well as instructors teaching Stephenson and professionals building the critical response to his work Reading through the lenses of history and linguistic cultural and science fiction studies the essays in the collection examine each of Stephenson's novels from The Big U to The Baroque Cycle as well as his long non-fiction work on computer operating systems In the Beginning Was the Command Line Included in this collection is a new interview conducted with Stephenson during the summer of 2006
