had a German name and posting them to a non combatants regiment At home anti German feeling was reaching fever pitch However one young man the son of a German father conspired to have the Army send him into battle In doing so he became a hero This is the story of the German Tommy Walter Schwarz alias Lieutenant Walter Lancelot Merritt Military Cross and Bar bearer of the king s pardon told in full for the first time after years of research in Australia and Britain It reveals why and how others helped the young man from Queensland an Australian Army deserter survive in an atmosphere that was poisonous at home and in battle for those of German blood who were nevertheless like Schwarz loyal to king and country Ken Anderson has gone behind the accepted facts to claim how official documents were altered and members of a secret society lied and swore false testimony to help Schwarz acting on their oath to help a fellow member in distress The book offers an insight into the way in which people of German origin were treated in Australia and Britain during the First World War as well as how Freemasonry at its peak at that time helped men of humble backgrounds improve their status in life Sowing

Kees Mandemakers, George Alter, Hélène Vézina, Paul Puschmann, 2023-08-29 Twenty three major databases containing historical longitudinal population data are presented and discussed in this volume focusing on their aims content design and structure Some of these databases are based on pure longitudinal sources such as population registers that continuously observe and record demographic events including migration and family and household composition Other databases are family reconstitutions based on birth marriage and death records The third and last category consists of semi longitudinal databases that combine for instance civil records and censuses and or tax registers The volume traces the origins of historical longitudinal databases from the 1970s and discusses their expansion worldwide in terms of sources and hard and software The contributions highlight the unique genesis and common developmental arcs of these databases which are rooted in the fields of quantitative history social and demographic history and the history of ordinary people The importance of these databases in advancing knowledge and insights in various disciplines is emphasized and demonstrated along with the challenges and opportunities they face The collection of technical descriptions of these databases represents the most comprehensive and up to date overview of large database with longitudinal micro data on historical populations It includes descriptions of databases from Europe North America East Asia Australia South Africa and Suriname Technical details in terms of data entry cleaning standardization and record linkage are meticulously documented The volume is a must have for all scholars in the field of historical life course studies Changing Altitudes

Big Sky Publishing, 2024-10-02 In the early years of the Second World War Australian women began lobbying to contribute to the nation s wartime effort From 1940 women were signing up to serve in the Royal Australian Nursing Service and in 1941 an Auxiliary arm of the Royal Australian Air Force was established allowing women to join on a temporary basis to enhance the organisation s ability to fight In the decades since Australian women have continued to contribute significantly to the operational capability of the world s second oldest air force They have done so regardless of the social norms of the time or the perceived limits of their abilities always showing their detractors that they are capable of great things Changing Altitudes The Stories of Australian Air Force Women includes the personal stories of some of these women recounting in their own words their experiences while proudly wearing the uniform of the Service This is the second volume of the Royal Australian Air Force Oral Histories series aiming to capture the one capability that the RAAF cannot operate without its people Cohabitation and Non-Marital Births in England and Wales, 1600-2012 R. Probert, 2014-06-23 Today cohabiting relationships account for most births outside marriage But what was the situation in earlier centuries Bringing together leading historians demographers and lawyers this interdisciplinary collection draws on a wide range of sources to examine the changing context of non marital child bearing in England and Wales since 1600 Victorian Year-book..., 1883 The Australian People James Jupp, 2001-10 Australia is one of the most ethnically diverse societies in the world today From its ancient indigenous origins to British colonisation followed by waves of European then international migration in the twentieth century the island continent is home to people from all over the globe Each new wave of settlers has had a profound impact on Australian society and culture The Australian People documents the dramatic history of Australian settlement and describes the rich ethnic and cultural inheritance of the nation through the contributions of its people It is one of the largest reference works of its kind with approximately 250 expert contributors and almost one million words Illustrated in colour and black and white the book is both a comprehensive encyclopedia and a survey of the controversial debates about citizenship and multiculturalism now that Australia has attained the centenary of its federation Notes on the Colony of Victoria Henry Heylyn Hayter, 1875 The Insurance Cyclopaedia Cornelius Walford, 1871 Born in a Tent Bill Garner, 2013-10-01 Breathtakingly original this book shows that the history of Australia can be told through a history of camping Bill Garner reminds us that Australia was settled as a campsite the nation was born in a tent But while Europeans brought tents they did not bring camping Australia had been a camping place for millennia And so it continued to be For more than a hundred years settlers women as well as men colonised the country by living under canvas It changed them into a new sort of native Australian It gave them a feel for the place a wry can do attitude and a lasting taste for equality And it led to a sense of belonging Born in a Tent takes the story from the campfire to the gas bottle from a tarp slung on saplings to polymer tents and aluminium poles It reveals how deeply our camping holidays connect us to the land to the past and to one another The Insurance Cyclopaedia Cornelius Walford, 1871 Victorian Year-book Victoria. Government statist, 1885 Sixty-fourth-Eighty-second Annual Report of the Registrar-general of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England and Wales (1901-1919) Great Britain. General Register Office, 1867 Thirty third annual report abstracts for 1870 includes summary of marriages births and deaths registered in ten years 1861 70 Notes on the Colony of Victoria; Historical, Geographical, Etc Henry Heylyn HAYTER, 1876
