Bits Bytes And Binyanim:

Bits, Bytes, and Binyanim Arian J. C. Verheij, 2000 This study offers a new approach to one of the central elements of Hebrew and Semitic grammar viz the binyanim or conjugations Using various quantitative methods the book analyzes the complete verbal vocabulary of the Hebrew Bible as contained in the machine readable text developed at the Werkgroep Informatica Department of Biblical Studies Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam focusing on morphological characteristics as well as on some basic semantic and syntactic features It is argued i a that the Qal should be regarded as the default binyan of the Hebrew Bible and that the Pi el acts to some extent as a rival to the Qal Among the features discussed it is transitivity which emerges as the most important one The author 1959 reads theology at the University of Amsterdam specializing in Old Testament studies and Biblical Hebrew After his 1990 Leiden PhD on a linguistic comparison of the books of Samuel Kings and Chronicles he joined the Werkgroep Informatica in 1992 Language System, Translation Technique, and Textual

Tradition in the Peshitta of Kings Janet W. Dyk, Percy S.F. van Keulen, 2013-08-15 Using the VU University syntactically analyzed hierarchically structured database of ancient languages the authors compared the Masoretic text of Kings to the Syriac Peshitta translation The core question in this comparison is which deviations between the two texts are related to the requirements of the distinct language systems which are related to other aspects of the translation process and which are related to the transmission history of the translated text Though linguistic and text historical approaches differ in method and focus research into ancient biblical translations must take both into account On the basis of a synoptic matching at clause level corresponding phrases within the clauses are matched and corresponding words within phrases A choice out of a wealth of detailed differences thus brought to light are discussed at the syntactic level at which the phenomenon best fits word phrase clause and above the clause Going Deeper with Biblical Hebrew H. H. Hardy II, Matthew

McAfee, 2024-02-01 Learning any language is no small task not least one that sounds as unusual as Hebrew does to most English speakers ears Going Deeper with Biblical Hebrew primarily aims to equip second year grammar students of biblical Hebrew to read the Hebrew Scriptures Using a variety of linguistic approaches H H Hardy II and Matthew McAfee offer a comprehensive and up to date textbook for professors and students Markedness in Canaanite and Hebrew Verbs Paul

D. Korchin, 2018-08-14 Semitic linguistics is arguably involved in its own version of a maximalist versus minimalist controversy with respect to verbal morphology Dissent persists about whether and to what degree the Northwest Semitic verb paradigms underlying languages such as Biblical Hebrew and Amarna Canaanite yaqtul yaqtulu yaqtula are themselves determinative of tense aspect mood values as opposed to extra verbal structures ranging from syntax to discourse To label a verb form as marked or unmarked for these values is to evoke a bountiful yet nebulous complex of theories about how language is built and employed But Semitists have often unwittingly bleached markedness terms of their full historical and technical significance reducing them to generic appellations that are invoked in sporadic and nearly random fashions By applying markedness to Semitic morphology in a consistent and rigorous manner this innovative book brings to bear a venerable linguistic construct on a persistent philological crux in order to achieve deeper clarity in the structures and workings of Canaanite and Hebrew verbs Korchin's arguments hold relevance for translating and interpreting nearly every sentence in ancient texts such as the Hebrew Bible and the Amarna letters Catalogue of the Greek Inscriptions in the Sudan National Museum at Khartoum (I. Khartoum Greek) Adam Łajtar, 2003 It shall also be of interest among scholars researching Oriental Christianity and Greek epigraphy

BOOK JACKET Words, Texts, and Concepts Cruising the Mediterranean Sea Gerhard Endress, 2004 The remarkable extension in depth and width of Muslim intellectual life can be fathomed and measured only against the background of what went on immediately before and simultaneously elsewhere or it will remain in any real sense unexplored This statement by the late Franz Rosenthal is in a sense the red thread of the present volume which unites 35 articles by renowned scholars of Islamic Studies Middle Eastern Languages and Civilizations and various allied fields of research in honour of a scholar congenial to Franz Rosenthal and exemplary in his scientific carefulness and integrity Dr Gerhard Endress Professor of Oriental Philology and Islamic Studies at the Ruhr University Bochum Central topics of the contributions include Arabic philosophy and its Greek sources and Latin reception the history and historiography of Arabic Islamic science and Islamic concepts of language knowledge science and pedagogy Other articles deal with Qur'anic studies Arabic lexicography and linguistics the history of Middle Eastern civilizations the medieval translation movements from Greek into Arabic and from Arabic into Latin as well as with political and eschatological theories of medieval Islam Rooted in different scientific traditions and methodological approaches the studies collected in this Festschrift form a vivid and stimulating synopsis of more than 1000 years of Middle Eastern and Mediterranean intellectual social and cultural history

W. van Henten, 2002-01-01 In this Amsterdam based volume eight experts on Bible translations present essays concerning the practises of translating the Bible for the present and the future through Christian and Jewish approaches in Western Europe and North America as well as in the former Eastern Bloc and in Africa Each paper will be followed by a response Contributors include S Noorda J Rogerson S Crisp R Carroll M Korsak E Fox J Punt L Sanneh and other noted academics who write responses to the essays

On the Skirts of Canaan in the Iron Age Edward Lipiński, 2006 The history of Canaan in the Iron Age is generally written from the perspective of the kingdoms of Israel and Judah The scope of this book is to inverse this relation and to focus on the skirts of Canaan while regarding the United Monarchy and the Divided Monarchy as external and sometimes marginal players of the regional history After having examined the transition from the Late Bronze Age to the Iron Age in the mid 12th century B C the book deals thus with the Philistines and the role of Egypt in Canaan during Iron Age II especially in the face of the Assyrian expansion It treats further of the Phoenicians and the Aramaeans There follow five chapters on Bashan Gilead Ammon Moab and Edom with the Negeb Several indices facilitate the consultation of the work on

Variation in Modern Standard Arabic in Radio News Broadcasts Mark van Mol,2003 For this study a corpus linguistic approach was chosen requiring the compilation of a text corpus of radio news bulletins from linguistically very different countries Algeria Egypt and Saudi Arabia The Pragmatics of Perception and Cognition in MT Jeremiah 1:1-6:30 Elizabeth Hayes,2008-12-10 Recent advances in cognitive linguistics provide new avenues for reading and interpreting Biblical Hebrew prophetic text This volume utilises a multi layered cognitive linguistics approach to explore Jeremiah 1 1 6 30 incorporating insights from cognitive grammar cognitive science and conceptual blending theory While the modern reader is separated from the originators of these texts by time space and culture this analysis rests on the theory that both the originators and the modern reader share common features of embodied experience This opens the way for utilising cognitive models conceptual metaphor and mental spaces theory when reading and interpreting ancient texts This volume provides an introduction to cognitive theory and method Initially short examples from Jeremiah 1 1 6 30 are used to introduce the theory and method This is followed by a detailed comparison of traditional and cognitive approaches to Biblical Hebrew grammar These insights are then applied to further examples taken from Jeremiah 1 1 6 30 in order to test and refine the approach These findings show that Jeremiah 1 1 1 3 establishes perspective for the text as a whole and that subsequent shifts in perspective may be tracked using aspects of mental spaces theory Much of the textual content yields to concepts derived from conceptual metaphor studies and from conceptual blending theory which are introduced and explained using examples taken from Jeremiah 1 1 6 30 The entire analysis demonstrates some of the strengths and weaknesses of using recent cognitive theories and methods for analysing and interpreting ancient texts While such theories and methods do not obviate the need for traditional interpretive methods they do provide a more nuanced understanding of the ancient text Arabic Theology, Arabic Philosophy Richard M. Frank,2006 In the course of his career Professor Richard M Frank of the Catholic University of America produced a hugely significant corpus of works on the intellectual activity in Classical Islam known as Kalam which he argued should be rendered as speculative theology He also wrote on the Qur an on the Arabic and Syriac philosophical tradition and argued vigorously for a new reading of the famous religious scholar and theologian al Ghazali d 1111 as a devotee of the cosmology of Ibn Sina d 1037 In this volume fourteen scholars many of them contemporaries of Professor Frank engage with his legacy with important and seminal works which take some of his ideas as their points of departure The book is divided into six sections the Qur an Paths to al Ash ari Al Ash ari and the Kalam Christian Falsafa Avicenna and Beyond and Al Ghazali on Causality There are major articles on Qur anic emendations and Arabia and Late

Antiquity on the Arabic Plotinian Tradition on Syriac Philosophical Vocabulary and an important reading of the Greek Arabic translation movement in terms of the practical and exact sciences There are seminal studies of atomism with valuable translations of complex theological passages previously untranslated of the Christian philosophy of Yahya ibn Adi of a late Mu tazili argument for the existence of God and a hitherto unedited section on optics by Ibn Mattawayh These are complemented by important close readings of Avicenna s epistemology and his Metaphysics together with a major new survey of the Avicennan tradition in the madrasas of the Islamic East The volume ends with two discussions of the perennial question of al Ghazali s theory of causality In addition the volume contains an autobiographical piece by Professor Frank and a complete bibliography of his published works Actes Du Neuvième Congrès International Des Égyptologues Jean Claude
