Novel Ideas Barbara Shoup, Margaret-Love Denman, 2013-05-01 Novel Ideas provides a substantial introduction to the elements of fiction, followed by in-depth interviews with successful novelists who speak with candor and insight into the complex process by which a novel is made. This edition includes new and updated interviews as well as writing exercises to enhance its use in the writing classroom. Dorothy Allison recalls deliciously self-indulgent days of writing in her bathrobe, wrapped in misery and exultation. Peter Cameron explains how he made the move from short fiction to the novel with the aid of a music composer's notebook to track the movement of his characters. Writers as different as Ha Jin, Jill McCorkle, Richard Ford, and Michael Chabon describe their unique approaches to their work while consistently affirming the necessity of committing to the hard effort of it while also remaining open to surprise. Aspiring novelists will find hands-on strategies for beginning, working through, and revising a novel; accomplished novelists will discover new ways to solve the problems they face in process; and serious readers of contemporary fiction will enjoy a glimpse into the way novels are made. Includes interviews with Dorothy Allison, Larry Brown, Peter Cameron, Michael Chabon, Michael Cunningham, Robb Forman Dew, Richard Ford, Ha Jin, Patricia Henley, Charles Johnson, Wally Lamb, Valerie Martin, Jill McCorkle, Sena Jeter Naslund, Lewis Nordan, Sheri Reynolds, S. J. Rozan, Jane Smiley, Lee Smith, Theodore Weesner.

Firefly Cloak Sheri Reynolds, 2012-08-21 Firefly Cloak is the powerfully vivid coming-of-age story of Tessa Lee, who after being abandoned by her mother, sets off on a risky journey to discover what she has lost. When eight-year-old Tessa Lee and her brother Travis are abandoned in a campground by their desperate mother and her boyfriend of the moment, they are left with only two things: a phone number written in Magic Marker on Travis's back and their mother's favorite housecoat, which she leaves wrapped around her sleeping children. This housecoat, painted with tiny fireflies, becomes totemic for Tessa Lee, providing a connection to her past and to the beautiful mother she lost Seven years later when word arrives that her mother has been spotted working at a tourist trap on a seaside boardwalk not far from where Tessa Lee lives she sets off on a dangerous journey to try to recover what has been taken from her Steeped in the rich Southern atmosphere for which Sheri Reynolds has long been hailed Firefly Cloak is a vivid coming of age novel of family loss and redemption Wilderness Forever Mark W. T. Harvey, 2009-11-23 Winner of the Forest History Society's 2006 Charles A Weyerhaeuser Book Award As a central figure in the American wilderness preservation movement in the mid twentieth century Howard Zahniser 1906 1964 was the person most responsible for the landmark Wilderness Act of 1964 While the rugged outdoorsmen of the early environmental movement such as John Muir and Bob Marshall gave the cause a charismatic face Zahniser strove to bring conservation's concerns into the public eye and the preservationists' plans to fruition In many fights to save besieged wild lands he pulled together fractious coalitions built grassroots support networks wooed skittish and truculent politicians and generated streams of eloquent prose celebrating wilderness Zahniser worked for the Bureau of Biological Survey a precursor to the Fish and Wildlife Service and the Department of the Interior wrote for Nature magazine and eventually managed the Wilderness Society and edited its magazine Living Wilderness The culmination of his wilderness writing and political lobbying was the Wilderness Act of 1964 All of its drafts included his eloquent definition of wilderness which still serves as a central tenet for the Wilderness Society an area where the earth and its community of life are untrammelled by man where man himself is a visitor who does not remain The bill was finally signed into law shortly after his death Pervading his tireless work was a deeply held belief in the healing powers of nature for a humanity ground down by the mechanized hustle bustle of modern urban life Zahniser grew up in a family of Methodist ministers and although he moved away from any specific denomination a spiritual outlook informed his thinking about wilderness His love of nature was not so much a result of scientific curiosity as a sense of wonder at its beauty and majesty and a wish to exist in harmony with all other living things In this deeply researched and affectionate portrait Mark Harvey brings to life this great leader of environmental activism
